

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

Key-Tennant

What was probably the most fashionable nuptial event of the season took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Centenary Methodist church when the pastor, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, united in marriage Miss Dorothy Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tennant of this city, and Joseph Key of Toronto. She was given in marriage by her father and entered the church to the music of "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," sung by the choir, with Miss Key presiding at the organ. The choir also sang the matrimonial chant during the ceremony, while Mrs. L. M. Curran sang a solo, "O Perfect Love."

The bride was beautifully attired in white tulle, with a surplice bodice, skirt draped with pearl trimmings and a court train trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a band of pearls across her forehead and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons, presenting a most charming appearance. Her bridesmaid was Miss Dorothy Tennant of Amherst, N. S., who wore a becoming costume of blue and green broadcloth trimmed with white satin. Her maid was Miss Dorothy Tennant of Amherst, N. S., who wore a becoming costume of blue and green broadcloth trimmed with white satin.

There were four girl ushers, all wearing costumes of similar design but different in color—Miss Helen Tennant of Moncton, in pink satin; Miss Margaret Tennant of Moncton, in blue; Miss Christine Tennant of Fredericton, in mauve; and Miss Greta Mettler of Campbellton, in white. The decorations at the church were prettily arranged, mainly sweet peas and hydrangeas, while an appealing color scheme with the same flowers was carried out at the home of the bride's parents, 70 Orange street.

A reception was held after the ceremony, with only intimate friends and relatives invited. Miss Kathleen March sang "O Promise Me." Mr. and Mrs. Key left last evening on the Montreal train for the south branch of the honeymoon, where they will spend their honeymoon camping. On their return they will reside in Coburg street.

Among the guests at the wedding were several from out of town points, including Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tennant, Amherst; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Tennant, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Flocken, Westville, N. S.; Miss Vivien McLeod, Amherst; Miss Maude Tennant, New York; Miss Isabel McLeod, Amherst; Miss Helen Schell, Woodstock, Ont.; Doctor and Mrs. David Freese, Sussex; Mrs. Wm. Langstroff, Hampton; Mrs. A. L. Morrison, Amherst; Mrs. A. L. Fry, Sussex; Mrs. C. F. Elford, Atlanta; Mrs. J. C. Garfield White, Sussex; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Salmon, Moncton; Harold Tennant, Amherst; and Allison Taylor, Fredericton.

Chase-Folkie. A wedding of much interest took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock in the Portland Methodist church when Miss Lena Vera Polkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Polkins, Jr., 53 Blomont street, was united in marriage to Harry Chipman Chase, son of Mrs. James Chase, 65 Victoria street. They were unattended. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Neil J. McLaughlin. The bride was given away by her father and entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Mabel Sandell, while after the ceremony Miss Audrey Moffatt sang "O Perfect Love." Donald W. Polkins, brother of the bride, and George A. Stevenson acted as ushers. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and a large number of relatives and guests were present. A dainty wedding luncheon followed, after which the bride and groom left on the Montreal train for an extended tour including Montreal, Niagara and Buffalo, N. Y. Many beautiful and useful presents were received including a mahogany electric reading lamp presented by the lady employees of Macaulay Bros. and Company, Limited, where the bride was employed. The groom was employed in Emerson and Fisher's and the staff of that firm presented a handsome leather upholstered Morris chair, while Mr. Emerson gave a substantial check.

DeLong-Fowler. Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myles H. Fowler of Hampton, their daughter, Stella Josephine, was united in marriage to George William DeLong, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. DeLong, in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Stanley Helms, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. W. H. Johnston, pastor of the Hampton Baptist church, and was solemnized on the lawn in front of the home. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. DeLong left on a short trip through the Maritime Provinces.

Quill-Connell. Miss Mabel, daughter of Mrs. Mary Connell, 31 Erie street, and Albert Quill, Newburyport, Mass., were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the Tabernacle church, by Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother, Frederick T. Connell. Paul Keating, Frederick Dunham and George Fry acted as ushers while Miss May Owens presided at the organ.

Following the ceremony a supper and reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Quill will leave on Saturday for Newburyport, where they will reside. J. J. Quill, Newburyport, Mass., father of the groom, and brother Charles Haverhill, Mass., attended the wedding. Harrington-Leger. A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at the Catholic church, when Miss Alice Leger, Moncton, was united in marriage to Robert D. Harrington, St. John. The bride was given away by her brother, Anthony. She was attended by her sister, Isabel of New York, while the groom was escorted by his brother, Leo. After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. T. L. Murphy, Waterloo street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The happy couple left by boat for a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside in St. John.

Maguire-Cosman. One of the most interesting events of the season was solemnized at 3 o'clock p.m., September 9th, at the United Baptist church, Midland, in the presence of a large number of guests and friends, when Miss Bertha Letitia Cosman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cosman, of Midland, became the bride of Reginald Herbert Maguire, of Elmville, Charlotte Co. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants. William Cosman and Herbert Sherwood, cousins of the bride, acted as ushers. As Lohengrin's chorus was being rendered by Miss Helen Carvell, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, wearing a gown of pink crepe de chene, made a dainty little flower girl, Miss Buriel Baird, sister of the bride, in a gown of yellow crepe de chene, acted as maid of honor while Miss Elizabeth Ward, sister of the groom, in a gown of white georgette, was bridesmaid. Little Miss Lena Macdonald, in a dress of pink crepe de chene, made a dainty little flower girl. Mrs. W. B. Hoyt played the wedding march and Rev. J. R. Belyea performed the ceremony.

The guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. H. Springer Cosman and Mr. Elisha Cosman, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Urquhart, Kara; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fairweather, Bloomfield; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Delous, Hampton; Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Ship, Carpenter; Mr. and Mrs. Osburn, Maguire and Mrs. C. Maguire, New Fisher and Mrs. Williamson, of Charlotte Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Maguire left on the eight train for their home in Elmville, Charlotte Co., where a reception will be given them, after which they intend taking an extended wedding tour. On Saturday evening, September 6, the members of Kitchener Lodge, of which the bride was an active member, gave her a surprise and presented her with cut glass water set and tray. She also received a linen shower from her girl friends the same evening.

Bulmer-Davidson. At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. C. B. Appel, 91 Victoria street, Tuesday evening, Miss Ethel Jean Davidson of this city was united in marriage to John Thomas Bulmer of Halifax. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Bulmer left for a short tour through Nova Scotia, after which they will return to this city to reside. A large number of friends in this city and elsewhere wish them much future happiness.

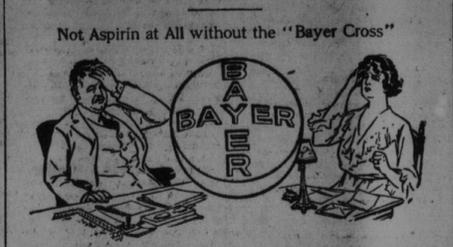

Ward-Baird. Andover, Sept. 10.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at twelve o'clock today in Trinity church, when Miss Edith Ramona Baird, eldest daughter of Mrs. Douglas Baird, of Perth, became the bride of Albert Hartley Gould Ward, of Newport, Rhode Island. The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, A. Herbert Baird, was charmingly gowned in white satin draped with georgette and wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and carnations. Miss Buriel Baird, sister of the bride, in a gown of yellow crepe de chene, acted as maid of honor while Miss Elizabeth Ward, sister of the groom, in a gown of white georgette, was bridesmaid. Little Miss Lena Macdonald, in a dress of pink crepe de chene, made a dainty little flower girl. Mrs. W. B. Hoyt played the wedding march and Rev. J. R. Belyea performed the ceremony.

KLIM is Genuine Powdered Separated Milk. THERE is no question about the purity of Klim. It is made by separating butterfat from liquid milk and drying the food solids, which include protein, into a fine powder by the "spray process." No chemicals nor adulterants are used. Klim is in powder form within a short time after the liquid milk is received at the milk powder plant. Of course, the separated milk for Klim is pasteurized. This is the best guarantee of safety and does not affect the natural flavor. Try a tin. Order from your grocer.

As good as McClary's

That is the measure of a stove or furnace in Canada. That is the best that is ever said of the unknown article —It is as good as McClary's. Then, what a safer course could you follow than to buy the thing you know—McClary's. The McClary's reputation for quality was not earned in a day. The McClary's institution, the largest of its kind in the British Empire, has been over seventy years in the making. McClary's stands high among the great names in Canadian industry because it was never attached to an inferior article. Whatever fuel you may wish to use, whatever type of stove, range or heater you may desire, you will find one bearing the McClary's name-plate. Isn't it worth your while to seek it? Isn't it worth your while to consult McClary's on the subject?

THE WEDDING OF MISS BJURSTEDT

The Wedding of Miss Bjurstedt. Tennis Champion Married in America Has Her Own Ideas on Marriage.

New York, Sept. 10.—Miss Motha Bjurstedt, formerly champion among America's women tennis players, and internationally known for her exploits on the court, was married last Wednesday in the Marriage Chapel of the Municipal Building to Franklin I. Mallory, a broker of No. 116 Broadway. The bride gave her age as twenty-seven; her husband said he was forty-two.

The witnesses were Mrs. George Wightman, who held the tennis title in 1912 and who won it again this year, and Julian D. Myrick.

Miss Bjurstedt was a trained nurse in Norway and was studying to become a physician when her successes on the tennis court induced her to come to America and interrupt her medical studies.

In a recent interview, she spoke at length on her views on the relation of marriage to tennis, and issued a warning against disparity in ages between husband and bride.

"Love is life to women," she said. "But there are several kinds of love, and each has its proper time and place. When I am forty I hope to have other interests in life than playing tennis and flirting."

"Does the one inevitably lead to the other?" she was asked. "It may be because there are so many men in England and in Norway there are more girls than men. In consequence, girls learn from babyhood to depend on themselves for their amusements."

"If men and marriage come their way and good, if not they find cheerfully make other women's children objects for their own maternal love. They substitute friendship for love and keep their bodies young and their minds healthy by exercise in the open, especially by walking tours."

"This trouble with women tennis players," she added, "is that it keeps them dangerously young. Consequently they seek the companionship of the young, which to my mind is a dangerous mistake. There is nothing more pathetic than to see a woman close to the half-century mark in a sentimental attachment with a man in his twenties or thirties."

"Don't load your gun until you are actually ready for business. At all times trouble with women tennis players are looking down the barrel at your game."
