Launching of Vessel Postponed

Weather Conditions Delayed Launching of Schr. Peter McIntyre at Moss Glen.

The weather was responsible for disappointing the owners of the new schooner Peter McIntyre, her builders and the few hundred people who assembled at the Moss Glen shipyard yesterday afternoon. This fine 60-ton schooner looked a perfect picture as she rested on the ways, decorated with flags, and was viewed by very many critics as being of fine lines and very substantially built.

Crowd Disappointed.

The people from the surrounding district came for miles to witness the launching, and they were not alone to crowd on the bank, for there were nearly a dozen automobile parties from St. John, and the steamer Majestic, with a large number of excursionists, arrived shortly before 4 o'clock. Every other lady or gentleman carried a camera, while a moving picture man with the machine was also on hand ready to film the beautiful scene of a large ship taking her maiden dip. Many persons boarded the vessel to receive the thrilling sensation of being on the vessel as she would gracefully slide down the 125 feet of greased ways into the waters of the river. Finally, when the joyful sound of the masts driving the wedges home could not be heard and the time was past the hour named for the launching, it was announced that the vessel would not be ready to take the water before dark, and as this would be dangerous, it had been decided to postpone the launching until this morning. The tag Lord Beatty was on hand to take the vessel in tow when launched, and with the excursion steamer both left for full down town with their disappointed passengers, but there were no complaints when it became known that those in charge of the programme were not to blame.

Weather Responsible.

Yesterday morning it rained hard, and the builders were unable to grease the ways. When the weather became fine enough for this part of the work the men had lost over three hours, making it impossible to launch the ship on the time scheduled.

It is only about two years ago since Captain Peter McIntyre launched the iron schooner Ada E. McIntyre from the same yard, and this vessel has had very successful voyages, having visited her home port only a few weeks ago for the first time since she left St. John on her maiden voyage to South Africa. The Peter McIntyre is built on the same lines as the Ada, with the exception that she is twelve feet longer.

It is hoped that the launching today will prove a success.

CENTRAL BAPTIST REVIVAL SERVICES

Large Attendance Delighted With Address by Rev. Mr. Calder of P. E. I.

A large attendance last evening marked the third night of the revival services being conducted in the Central Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Calder, pastor of the Alberton and Springfield Baptist church, P. E. I., was the speaker of the evening. The song service was under the leadership of F. H. Tufts. Messrs W. W. Chase and Tufts were heard in a pleasing duet. The pastor, Rev. F. H. Bone, conducted the service.

Mr. Calder delivered a powerful address on "The Call of Matthew." Luke 5:27. He said that Matthew, the reprobate, transformed into Matthew, the Apostle, was a striking example of the power of the Gospel. He described Matthew before he met Jesus as an eater and drinker, a tyrant and a cruel man, but one dissatisfied with his state of life.

Then he encountered the Friend of publicans and sinners, he received the call of divine love and, leaving all, followed Him.

The speaker said the man of today was unsatisfied with his state of life, even as had been Matthew, and Jesus could do the same for him as He had for the great apostle.

JUVENILE BAND AT THE BAZAAR

The programme rendered by the Juvenile City Cornet Band at the Cathedral Bazaar last night was fully enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. The band was not the only attraction, however, and the bazaar was a brisk trade. All enjoyed themselves, and every face was smiling.

The door prize was won by ticket 192. The Fancy Booth Prize, a beautiful embroidered cushion, was won by Mrs. E. Harrington, Cliff street. The Flower Booth prize, a basket of eggs and a pound of butter, was won by Stella McDermid. The Grocery Booth prize, a pair of boots, went to ticket 97. The Gentlemen's Bean Board prize was won by B. Winchester, and the Ladies' Prize by Mrs. R. Pittman.

The City Cornet Band will be in attendance at the next fair this evening, and other equally attractive features will make the night an attractive one to all comers. A second door prize will be awarded to the lucky ticket holder.

MAKING INSPECTION TRIP.

Wetmore, unit medical director, E. unit, were in the city yesterday on a tour of inspection of eastern Canada. In the morning they visited the hospital in Lunenburg, and in the afternoon the St. John county hospital. They will leave this morning for River Glade and go from there to Fredericton.

Lost Deckload In Heavy Sea

Schr. Mildred K. Struck While Trying to Make Big Salmon River.

While on a voyage from Parrsboro, N. S., to St. John, the schooner Mildred K., with a cargo of lumber, got in difficulties off Martin Head, near St. Martins, on Tuesday night, and while attempting to round the head, and at last reports was safe behind the breakwater.

There was a heavy sea running at the time, and the captain of the schooner attempted to make Big Salmon River for shelter, and in doing so the vessel grounded on the tail of the bank, and was thrown broadside to the sea, with the result that her deckload of deals was washed overboard. The vessel then floated enough to round the head, and at last reports was safe behind the breakwater.

Captain A. J. Mulcahy, general representative of insurance underwriters, with others, went to the scene to reach the scene yesterday, but the sea was too rough for the motor boat, which they had engaged, and they returned to port. Captain Mulcahy informed The Standard last night that he got into communication with the captain of the schooner and gave instructions for the vessel to remain there, and he will visit the scene tomorrow or Saturday. As near as Captain Mulcahy could learn the schooner's sternpost is started, but as to any other damage caused this will be better known when an examination is made later.

Deckload Salvaged

Fortunately for the owners of the lumber and the insurance people who hold the risk, the deckload which was washed overboard by the sea was about all washed ashore and saved. It will be known by Saturday whether the lumber will be reloaded on the schooner and brought here by this means, or whether it will be transferred to some other craft.

The Mildred K. is 35 tons register, built from Digby, and was built at Granville, N. S., in 1901. Frederick Ogilvie, of Parrsboro, is the owner, and she was loaded with the lumber cargo at Parrsboro by Hatfield Brothers. The vessel has for a long time been engaged in the packet trade and is a familiar visitor to the Market slip.

Armistice Day Is Celebrated

Sons of England With Friends Enjoyed Excellent Programme Last Evening.

Over one hundred and twenty-five members of Marlborough Lodge No. 207 Sons of England, were present at the Orange Hall yesterday evening when a grand smoker was held to celebrate Armistice Day. Songs, music and a number of very pleasing addresses contributed towards making the evening a thoroughly enjoyable one, and one which will strengthen the social intercourse between the members of the Sons of England in this city.

R. I. Carloss, President of Marlborough Lodge, was in the chair, and previous to beginning of the evening's programme three addresses to Marlborough Lodge were initiated and six applications received. The committee in charge of affairs was composed of C. Ledford, E. J. Puddy, G. H. Lewis, E. C. Trevelyan, J. A. Clark, D. Evans and R. I. Carloss.

The Programme
The programme which was very much appreciated included the following:
Violin solo—Wm. A. Horner.
Vocal solo—Wm. B. Bellie.
Recitations—J. Brammon.
Vocal solos—Fred Panter.
Vocal solos—W. C. Parker.
Vocal solo—J. S. Clark.
The chairman prior to the starting of the programme delivered a hearty address of welcome to the lodge members, in which he referred to the growing strength of the Sons of England and what Armistice Day stood for.

Addresses Delivered

Speeches were also delivered by H. Sellen, President of Portland Lodge; Rev. E. B. Hooper, former Rector of St. Paul's Church and a well known padre who served overseas throughout the European war; and by New Brunswick forces, Commissioner J. H. Priest, Frank Foster, T. F. Ribley, Secretary of New Brunswick Lodge and Charles Ledford, Secretary of Marlborough Lodge. Rev. Mr. Hooper is the founder of his remarks recited "In Flanders' Fields" by the late Colonel John Macrae and the reply entitled "Victory."

The various speakers commented upon the large number of members who had served with the British forces in the great struggle for humanity and those of their number who had paid the supreme sacrifice for King and country. It was also pointed out that the Sons of England had proved a huge success not only in a fraternal and social manner, but its members had and were still taking leading part in municipal, provincial and federal matters; and the wish was expressed that the society would unflinchingly maintain its present standard and continue to serve the best interests of the British Empire.

W. L. Delyea was the accompanist for the occasion, and the gathering broke up by singing "God Save the King."

Miss Mary Heales Severely Injured

Knocked Down by Horse on Garden Street—Taken to Hospital for Treatment.

Miss Mary Heales of 127 Wright street was knocked down and cut about the head and face, when a horse owned by Dr. A. J. Boyce became unmanageable on Garden street yesterday afternoon about five o'clock.

After being attended to in Short's Pharmacy, Miss Heales was conveyed to the hospital in the ambulance.

She was reported to be resting comfortably last evening, and her injuries were not considered to be of a serious nature.

Horse Became Frightened

The horse became frightened at a train and got beyond control; when the driver realized this, he drove it straight for a telephone post. The animal struck it with such force as to stun itself.

Both Dr. Boyce and Trust Officer McMahon, who were in the team, noticed Miss Heales was in the path of the run-away, and shouted to her, but the aged lady became excited and failed to avoid being struck.

Owing to the way the team was averted to one side, she was merely grazed by the shaft of the wagon, thus accounting for the lightness of her injuries.

Prince Edward Island Conditions

Business Man Reports Good Crops, Prices Excellent, and Selling Brisk.

Conditions in Prince Edward Island were described as especially good this fall by a prominent business man from that province last evening.

With barns bursting with phenomenal crops, prices good and selling brisk, he thought the Islanders might look forward to the coming of winter with some degree of complacency.

Potato Crops.

The potato crop, he stated, was an abundant one, although there was considerable rot. Because of this farmers were selling for fear of loss if they held their produce until the spring for higher prices. The highest price being paid on the island at the present time is seventy cents a bushel. Buying is quite brisk, but there are some who are holding. A poor crop in Ontario and Nova Scotia has set the tide of the trade in that direction.

The hay crop was another which was a bumper one in the "garden of the globe," the ruling price for it being $25 a ton.

The apple crop was no exception to the bumper year, and the island growers claimed the best that they produce a gravenstein that will not take second place to even the far-famed Annapolis variety.

Fox Industry.

The fox industry is still an important factor in the prosperity of the Prince Edward Islanders. Last spring's hunters secured 1,400 foxes yet known to the New York market. It numbered some 120 black and silver foxes, and they sold for two thousand dollars per head. The ordinary price being paid on the island at present is one thousand dollars.

CONSIDERATION IS PROMISED DELEGATES

Retail Merchants Wait on Gov't in Regard to Workmen's Compensation Act.

The delegation from the Provincial Branch of the Retail Merchants' Association returned last night from Fredericton, where they met the members of the Government in the morning at 11.30 in connection with the request for a more equitable assessment of retailers in regard to the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Premier Foster and other members of his cabinet, who were present, after listening attentively to the remarks of the delegates, promised that every consideration would be given, and that statistics in the matter would be prepared and furnished as early a date as possible.

SUMMER COTTAGERS MAY ORGANIZE

There are prospects of some tingling buckshot peppering before the winter is really here, let alone when it is finished, if rural ramblers persist in taking liberties with cottages, camps and bungalows.

Already a few bold lads have been testing their marksmanship on window panes along the Kennebecasis back of the city. Owners of these cottages have a line on the lads and developments are expected soon. Suburban depredations in the past, have stirred cottagers into organized action, and what may turn out to be something like the Night Riders or Klu Klux Klan is in the air.
