A Fine Send Off at the Train--Piper on Hand.

The departure of Doctor and Mrs. Morison and their little daughter on the I. Cson and their little daughter on the I. C. R. for Chicago Monday was a magnificent send-off. Hundreds of people crowded around them to shake hands, and the portets had hard work pushing the heavy trucks along the platform, so great was the piess. About ten minutes before the time for the train to start, Piper Cruikshank, of St. Andraw's Society, arrived ar stanted the tune of Dormoch Links. Then as the people pressed closer The Cock o' the North blew out shrill and clear, and as the train started to steam slowly out of the depot the p per glided imperceptibly into the plaintiff tune Will Ye No Come Back Agin, and amid a great storm of cheering and waving of handkerchiefs Doctor Monison started on his journey towards the far west.
