WENT ON STRIKE

R. ANGLIN, NEW HEAD OF PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL, LANCASTER, HERE SOUN

Has Had Many Years' Experience in Class of Work He is to Do Here.

Montreal, Sept. 8-Dr. J. V. Anglin, as sistant superintendent at the Protestant Hospital for the Insane, Verdun, will leave Montreal the latter part of the present month to assume charge of the Provincial Hospital for Nervous Diseases, at St. John. Dr. Anglin is fortyfour years of age, and has devoted his adult life to the study and care of those afflicted with insanity and allied diseases. He was born in Kings ton (Ont.), where his father was bursar

He graduated with honors in arts and medicine at Queen's University, Kingston.

Later he took summer sessions at McGill and Toronto Medical Schools. Then he went to Edinburgh for a post-graduate course, and there was instructed at Morn

Most of his special training has been under the ablest alienists in Ontario and Quebec, Dr. C. K. Clark and Dr. T. J. W. Burgess. At Verdun, Montreal, Dr. Anglin has had his main experience. He joined the evolution from an incomplete structure erected on a neglected farm to the present institution, comprising a group of modern buildings finely equipped and surrounded by perhaps the best kept lawns of any such institution in the country. More than 2,000 patients have been cared for at Ver-

Dr. Anglin has, it might be said, devoted thirty years of his life to the study | Dr. Burgess, the the most reliable means of effecting cures full charge at Verdun, and managed or ameliorating the condition of the less everything in a way that left nothing to be desired."

der such circumstances the safety of the men was imperilled, for it was difficult to avoid being swept overboard.

The matron reliable means of effecting cures full charge at Verdun, and managed men was imperilled, for it was difficult to avoid being swept overboard.

The matron reliable desired.

The matron reliable desired.

The matron reliable desired.

mer dominion cabinet minister. Dr. Ang- tober.

ads are always worth reading.

caused by cholera infantum.

a few days' illness.

Albout a week ago Policeman Lawson found a gentleman's bicycle on Mahogany road. No claimant has yet appeared.

There have been twenty-six deaths in the city since last Saturday, this number being exceptionally large. Nine were

Mr. and Mrs. Goo. H. Green, of Carleton, were called upon Friday to mourn the death of their four year old son, Karl.

The little fellow died of diphtheria after

Rev. William S. Pritchard, B. A., o

their pastor and will probably enter on

Chester Martin, of this city, the winner of the first Rhodes' scholarship awarded, will leave on Sept. 20 for Montreal to sail thence on the 22nd for England to begin his studies at Oxford. He has just returned from a trip to Bangor, Beston and New York.

Charles N. Hunter, of Boston, is a guest at the New Victoria. Mr. Hunter is a native of St. John, but left here some forty years ago. He is an official of the Charles street prison in Boston. He has one brother, Joseph Hunter, and other

J. S. Knowles, proprietor of The Grip sack, has arranged to publish an edition under the auspices of the Amherst Board of Trade, with illustrations; letter press descriptions of its industries, trade matters and historical statistics, prepared

LOCAL AND

PROVINCIAL

DR. J. V. ANGLIN, The New Superintendent of the Provincial Hospital fer Nervous Diseases.

and care of the insane. As a boy he worked with his father and learned the administrative branches of an hospital for who, he declares, stands in the front rank who has been considered. mental diseases. At Verdun he has re-sided in the hospital and has devoted all treatment of the insane. Dr. Burgess institution as well as with the types of dis-orders likely to be met therein, and with absence of six months Dr. Anglin assumed over the rails and descended on deck. Un-

ST. JOHN NURSES THROUGH A ROUGH NIGHT AT SEA

Cook Irjured by the Sea Throwing Him Around the Galley.

er, Capt. Wilson, of Grand Lake. He

The Domain left here about three weeks ago for New Bedford. While approaching Mt. Desert wind and rain came on and to such an extent that there was grave danger of the schooner being driven on the shore which was only about ten miles dis-

As the night wore along, the sea be came more violent. At times the entire leck of the vessel would be submerged Those on deck held on waist high in

Alfred Craft, of the Washademoak, cook of the schooner, was fired about in his He had several ribs broken. The waves broke into the cabins and part of the deck went into the sea. A couple of barrels of water were lost. The small boat clewed up to the davitts, was nearly torn away, his time to the work, assisting the super-intendent and acting for him in his ab-sence. Thus he has become familiar with the best methods of conducting such an as to obtain the best results. He is also Toward morning the gale subsided slight-Dr. Anglin is married. His wife is a daughter of the late Dr. Ives, of Compton.

She is a niece of Hon. W. B. Ives, a for of the Lancaster institution early in October 25 a shore as Mt. The days from the class a proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to the Lancaster institution early in October 25 and 10 per proximity to t age to New Bedford was without unusual

PROVINCE MER

Inompson at Yale.

makes this explanation:-

versity during the present year, two were to New Haven to get a B. A. from Yale.

The province man who writes of their success, rightly thinks it worthy of special note that out of thirteen of these enior appointments in philosophical ora-ions at the great university, two should "Receiving a pnilosophical appointment among the senior appointments means that they are among the very select few who, he high honor of an election to Phi. Beta versities. At the end of the year at Yale

a list, which is called the "senior appointments," is published by the dean of the college. This is divided into certain groups, philosophical orations, high ora-tions, orations, and so on, on the descending scale. Of the thirteen in philosophi-cal, Bancroft stood at the head in actual possible 400. This is a phenomenally high ord on the province of New Brunswick."

The Telegraph noted not long ago tuat

The high position which young men from American universities is a source of pride

by their scholarship, earned for ther

Showing the Good and the Rusted

The Work of Josoph A. Bancroft, John S. McFadden and Everard J ance, being of a brownish hue. Writing from New Haven, a former province man calls attention to the fact that among those receiving what are term-ed "senior appointments" at Yale Uni-be affected by rust. One estimate put it at ten to fifteen per cent. The rusted wheat is good only for feed. Mr. Hastings also has a nice sample of this year's No. 1 hard. The wheat crop in province men, one being John Smith Mc-Fadden, of Johnson's Mills (N. B.), and the other Joseph Austen Bancroft, of Bar-Manitoba and the territories this year will vield fifteen to twenty bushels an acre. Both were graduates of Acadia, and went This is not quite up to last year's average a little damage in the territories, but nothing serious, and the danger from fros The farmers will get a better price than be from the maritime provinces. He last year. The opening price will be around

Mrs Wm. W. Lewis, Yarmouth.

Mrs. William W. Lewis died at her honre in Yarmouth (N.S.), Wednesday. She was 76 years of age, and leaves one daughter, the wife of Charles R. Kelley, infantum, 7; meningitis, old age, diphtheria and uraemia. 2 each; inanition, asthenia, marasmus, accident, heart disease, enterecolitis, cancer of stomach and angina pectoris, one each. For the same per-

IN MEMORY OF HEROIC ACT.

lives consecrated to the service of the nestness in preparing themselves for a

Schooner Domain in Port-- Young Ladies from This City Tablet Bearing Names of Jas. Took Part in Trouble in Malcolm and Geo. Usher Unveiled in Grand Bay Melrose City Hospital. Church.

trike in Melrose (Mass.) city hospital. strike which included all except the head

"The strikers are: Miss Margaret Bell, ringleader, Ontario; Miss Irene Boone, Woburn; Miss Catherine McLain, St. John N. B.); Miss Agnes Bubier, Lynn; Miss Roberta Burton, St. John (N. B.); Miss Olive Masters, St. John (N. B.); Miss The interior of the building was very tastefully decorated with flowers and a Samuers, Dorchester; Miss Leuise Underwood, Fiskdale, and Miss Minetta Verge, Melrese. All these nurses were at this hospital from one to three years. The Boston Journal in its account of the trouble, says:

St. John nurses took part in the recent

Because the authorities of the hospital fused to reinstate her upon the petition of the other nurses, all except the head for the former things are passed away," During his discourse the reverend gentleman unveiled the tablet. He said in part:
"There has been set before the young peo-

At the bottom of all the trouble is the complaint of cruelty made by Samuel D. Cameron, a telephone lineman, and others against Nurse Miss Edith Scott of Onario, who has been at the hospital more

The Journal says the matron attempted to help the girl, but found the charges so serious she could not, and the committee of corporations in charge of 'che life of service, the highest service a man can render to his fellows. Shall we be wise as they were wise in their day and signing or being discharged on the ground of cruelty, inattention to duties and inability. Miss Scott resigned and then a champion stepped forward in Miss Mar-garet Bell, also of Ontario, who knew her at her old home.

but two of the nurses to sign it, asking the committee to reinstate Miss Scott. sought the matron, and thought by get-ting her to approve the petition she could

SAMPLES OF WHEAT

Grain — Large Grop and Good Prices.

versal love and peace. These are they who in every age have led the bright hosts of progress onward and upward, who count not their lives dear unto them. At the offices of the Lake of the Woods Market square, may be seen sample heads of good wheat and rusted wheat from Manitoba, of this year's crop. The heads are of good average length and well filled, but the rusted wheat presents a marked difference in appearsamples were sent to the St. John office from the company's office in Winnipeg. A. O. Hastings, the company's maritime agent, said that it was not possible yet o tell what proportion of the crop would but there is a larger acreage. Frost did is now practically over, as harvesting is in full swing all over the west.

will do much to bring in the age of uni-

These are they who stand in the estima-tion of their fellow men and women for all that is best and truest and grandest young men lost their lives last July.

He is to leave for home this evening. In and their responsibilities in that regard.

ABOUT READY FOR BEST EXHIBITION EVER HELD HERE

Much Done to Have Buildings and Grounds in First Rate Order for Fair to Open Next Saturday-What the Features Will Be.

One more week and the exhibition will music the public may anticipate something be open, and from present indications it of a superior class.

One of the bands to play is from the tastefully decorated with flowers and a choir from Westfield sang the hymns "The Sands of Time," "Forever With the Lord," "A Few More Years Shall Roll," and "Abide With Me." Rev. James Ross preached an eloquent sermon based on Rev. xxi.—4: "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more principle." Music for the occasion will be furnished by the 62nd band, and vocal selections will be given by a quartette composed of J. A. Kelly, A. C. Ritchie, Miss Munro and During his discourse the reverend gentle-

As yet the exhibition buildings are com-

ple of this community and country an example of the blessedness there is in young paratively empty of exhibits, but in the various departments many booths and Kingdom of God. It is well with these young men. No shadows can fall across their pathway now. We speak of their whole hearted consecration and noble earready under construction.
Since July a staff of exhibition workmen, besides men employed by exhibitors, have been engaged in the buildings and about the grounds, and they did not commence any too early, for the amount of work to be done was very large.

generation? Have we not the same opportunity for service as they had. Why not start out on the pathway of life with the same good intent, the same holy purpose, why not consecrate our life and work to the service of the Master. Why not connection with prevaring the building in connection with prevaring the building. to the service of the Master. Why not choose to do something to make life worth high pressure activity has been in evidence high pressure activity has been in evidence living and become a blessing not only to the community, but the world at large.

"Whatever the circumstances that surrounded the death of these two young men, we believe no other than that the surrounded believe no other than that the surrounding states and sheep pens. The fences surrounding this live stock that the surrounding this live stock that the surrounding this live stock that the surrounding the surrounding that the surrounding the surrounding that the surrounding that the surrounding the surrounding that the surrounding the surrounding tha men, we believe no other than that the one would have gladly risked his life to help the other if risk would be considered as an element in the case. Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend.' We have had this love exemplified in this community by the history of such an act. It was a noble and heroic act demanding of man the highest type of self sacrifice, exciting the anding of man the have been erected for the accom of the public during the judging.

In the agricultural hall there are but few changes, but in the amusement room steps have been taken to make it more comfortable and attractive. Throughout the buildings the lighting arrangements are about completed. As in previous exhibitions the end of Wen'tworth street has been fenced off and the fence between the agricultural hall and the grounds beyond is about to be removed, which will provide adequate open ### in human nature. These are they who when the bugle sounds for war, perform such acts as only heroes can." The tablet, which has been before de-The Horse Show. scribed, occupies a prominent place in the Opposite the grand stand, where boxes are now being constructed will be the horse show. The ring is not quite completed, for it will be necessary to re-rake and roll it. In the centre of this ring a 24x24 stand has just been finished. Here there will be

The walls around the entire first floor The darmers will get a better price than last year. The opening price will be around ninety-five cents, or about twenty-eight cents a bushel higher than last year's.

If the six to leave for home this evening. In conversation with a Telegraph reporter, he said the consolidated school at Kingston has been opened under most favorable auspices. The formal opening will not take place for some time yet, when the department expects Prof. Robertson, the lieutenant-governor and others interested in educational matters to take part in the exercises.

The superintendent still entertains strong hopes of a consolidated school at Hampton. The foundation of the consolidated to give satisfaction. This year, though, a new one has been built, capable of holding a ton of ice and all the food stuffs that may be found necessary to place in it.

The Main Building.

reached only when the people awoke to a floor there is usually a crush of people, for full realization of the value of education the band plays directly underneath.

This uncomfortable crowding will not be experienced this season, for a stout railing has been built around the gallery, leaving between the railing and the edge of the gallery sufficient room for the placing of indreds of seats, where those desirous of hearing the music can sit as long as they choose without interfering with the pass-has also been extended ten feet, in order to avoid too much crowding. Further along the upper portion a sleeping apartment has discovered his son was shingling on the been provided for the restaurant staff.

This room at the last exhibition was given scrambling down to safety.

over to the use of committees.

In the machinery hall, where Thomas Logan is in charge, a new engine is being installed. It is of twenty-five horse-power and will run the line shafting. Boilers have been tested, and so far everything is fully satisfactory. A car load of ma-chinery from upper Canada has arrived. Adjoining the hall are toilet rooms and the shooting gallery. The basement walls have been whitewashed, and the floors, in all departments, are clean and neat. All the space for exhibits has about been taken. There will be many features not seen in previous local exhibitions, ex pecially in the amusement line. The fire works display promises to eclipse anytthing of the kind ever witnessed here, and in 5th Royal Garrison Regiment, Halifax, It is one of the best five bands in the Brit-

The exhibit of live stock will be very cess which it will merit.

In the main buildings a large amount of space is set apart for the natural history, and fishery display.

The flower exhibit requires considerable that a season ticket is good only to the exhibition, which is to open here next Saturday night, that the Association has been compelled to give up to exhibitors will be allotted to waiting exhibitors.

W. C. Edwards & Co., Rockland (Ont.), urday night that they would send a draft

R. P. Stericker, the noted horse breader of Orange (N.J.), who has been judging some of the harness classes in the Toronto nachines exhibiting moving pictures. The Canadian Autoscope Company will place a number of these machines in the build-

HON, GEORGE E. FOSTER'S CASE SETTLED

The case of Beatty against Hon. George E. Foster was Friday withdrawn from the record. The defendant pleaded payment of the note. Mr. A. W. Baird, act. ing with Mr. Currey, K. C., for the plaintiff, suggested a conference for effecting a settlement. Judge Landry concurred and the counsel in the case and the parties interested who were present withdrew to the barristers' room. The plaintiff, Mr.

it. In the centre of this ring a 24x24 stand has just been finished. Here there will be a band concert every day and evening of the exhibition. Another quarter of the grounds is reserved for the fire works.

Talks of Consolidated Schools and Teachers' Salaries.

Dr. J. R. Inch, of Fredericton, chief superintendent of education, came down to the city Friday and is at the Royal. He is to leave for home this evening. In The walls around the entire first floor

it. In the centre of this ring a 24x24 stand has just been finished. Here there will be a band concert every day and evening of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Beatty, was not in court. At 11 o'clock they returned and Mr. Currey, K. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, withdrew the record. He said the defendant had submitted statements with regard to the payment of the note, but had refused to allow Baird estate nor Mr. Beatty. In the con-ference he had submitted evidence which should be satisfactory to the plaintiff. He had refused to allow the matter to stand as Mr. Foster wished to return to Toronto but he had expressed a will send for Mr. Lee, of the Bank of New Brunswick, who would confirm the evidence of payment of the note. Mr. Currey had declined to accept this offer and he (Mr. Hazen) had therefore insisted that the case be proceeded with at once. He said the true plaintiff in this case, the executors of the late Geo. F. Baird, had not rentired to having ection in their own. not ventured to bring action in their own names, but had endorsed the note over long after it was due to John Beatty who, Mr. Hazen was informed, was financially unable to pay Mr. Foster's costs if the latter should succeed in the suit.

The judge said as the record had been withdrawn by the plaintiff, further discus-

SHINGLING BURNING BARN.

Uncomfortable Position of Young Man on Loch Lomond Road Satur-

A barn on the Loch Lomond Road, near Silver Falls, containing fifteen tons of hay and a mowing machine, was destroyed by ind a mowing machine, was descroyed by fire about 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

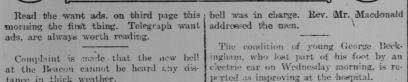

The building together with its contents was the property of the Catholic church or Sisters of Charity, a bequest of the late John McSweeney. The farm on which the barn stood was occupied by Laku Callagher. At the time the fire was ### under the board's supervision. Announcement of the resignation of Miss & Co. Mowatt, court stenographer, created a wrong impression. Her resignation was sent in so that she might be regularly an pointed to the position of official stemo-grapher, in place of the late W. H. Fry, and such appointment took effect on Aug. A meeting of the Tobique Valley Railway Company, of which James Knox is president, was held Friday. It was de-cided to put in concrete culverts in place of those at present in service, and to lay the first ten miles of the road with heavier rails. Payment was ordered of the second coupon on the first bonds of the road. The railway is thus in a flourishing condition It extends twenty-eight miles from Perth Junction to Plaster Rock.

Flossie, the little daughter of William Newman, 36 Simonds street, disappeared from her home Monday night and up to 10 deaf mutes. The hour will be announced o'clock had not been found. She was later. There will also be service at 4 Newman, 36 Simonds street, disappeared from her home Monday night and up to 10 noticed early in the evening watching a o'clock. At the regular evening service Salvation Army procession, and may have Rev. Mr. Searing, who is not a deaf mute, wandered off in its rear and became confused by strange streets. She is fair hair-ed, and dressed in white. The child's fam-ily and friends were greatly troubled over her absence, and were searching vigilantly throughout the North End.

The fare of 1,000 fresh mackerel which the netter Ocean Belle landed at Port Clyde (Me.) Wednesday, brought thirty cents each at Boston, the highest price of the season.-Gloucester Daily Times.

Dr. J. W. Daniel, M. P., while driving was thrown from his carriage and cut about the head. His wife was with him at the time of the accident, but she escaped injury.

A meeting of the executive of King's College was held Thursday. A committee was appointed to secure the services of Granby (Que.), has accepted the call of the congregational church here to become several names being proposed.—Hantax

> The steamer Kilkeel is lying in Walker's Kappa. The society of Phi Beta Kappa is slip awaiting inspection. This is the boat a society which recognizes high scholar-which was on the Parrsboro route last ship among undergraduates. It has chapwhich was on the Parrsboro route last winter, and has been talked of for business on a route from St. John to points as far up the bay as Amherst.

At Chubb's corner Monday Auctionee Lantalum sold the Benjamin Stackhous farm of 250 acres at Loch Lomond with dwellings and harn to satisfy a mortgage.

S. L. Maxwell and Miss Helen M. G. scholarship record, and has not been equal-S. L. Maxwell and Miss Heien M. C. Caie were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Arthur Caie, South Boston (Mass.), on Monday evening last. Both Mr. Maxwell and his buide are Scotia, as does Mr. McFadden's high recording the control of the good old province of Nova Scotia, as does Mr. McFadden's high recording the control of the good old province of Nova Scotia, as does Mr. McFadden's high recording the control of the good old province of Nova Scotia, as does Mr. McFadden's high recording the control of the good old province of Nova Scotia, as does Mr. McFadden's high recording the control of the control of the good old province of Nova Scotia, as does Mr. McFadden's high recording the control of t who will join in wishing them much happiness. Among those from this city who were present at the wedding was Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maxwell, parents of the groom, and W. H. Maxwell, of W. H. Hayward & Co. natives of this city, and have many friends

J. D. O'Connell, of Sussex, left Saturday Everard J. Thompson, a native of Bass evening on a trip to Boston, New York, River, Kent county, who was then visiting Baltimore and Washington. He will also his old home, is one of the two editors of Baltimore and Washington. He will also his old home, is one of the two editors of visit the exposition at St. Louis. The that important educational publication, primary object of his journey is to hold a Yale Alumni Weekly, and a contributor business consultation with his three brothers, with whom he is in company in large lumber industries in Scattle (Wash.) and cepted by Harper's. other points on the Pacific slope. The conference will be as to the desirability the provinces are able to take at the great of starting a saw mill this winter in Cuba. If it is decided to go on with the and satisfaction. manager of the concern.

For the mission to the deaf and dumb to be open here on the 22nd inst, on each evening from Thursday, the 22nd, to Tueso'clock On Sunday the 25th, there will will preach with special reference to spiritual work among the deaf and dumb in these provinces. It is hoped by the promoters of this mission that as many as possible will take advantage of the op portunity offered.

Boys COLLEGE

Sept. 2nd it is stated that a Black Lang Shan hen has a habit of laying large eggs, sometimes measuring eight inches in diameter, seven and a half inches oring a common size. I thought when I read it that something uncommon had occurred. But in a St. John paper dated Sept. 7th the statement appears that Record is reported to have been purchased by Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., and that in future it will be conducted by J. D. McKenna, who has been the Ottawa correspondent of the St. John Sun and Halifax Herald. Under the circumstances it is surprising that the egg was any under eighteen inches in diameter.

Yours respectfully.

Attiverside has been laid. This will be a much larger school than the Kingston one, and will cost, equipped, about $15,000.

The attendance at the Normal School is about the same as usual. The chief difficulty of the department, he says, is not in finding candidates for the teaching profession, but in the fact the inducements are so small it is hard to secure them to make the proposal of the government to increase the salaries of the teachers, Dr. Inch said that the same proposal had been held up every year for some time past. The solution of the teacher mount of space.

On the upper floor about as much progress in the preparation of booths has been made at the Normal School is about the same as usual. The chief difficulty of the department, he says, is not in finding candidates for the teaching profession, but in the fact the inducements are so small it is hard to secure them to make the proposal of the government to increase the salaries of the teachers, Dr. Inch said that the same proposal had been held up every year for some time past. The solution of the teacher made as on the lower floor. At the southern end in the casterly wing, where you look from the gallery into the main floor there is usually a crush of people, for Yours respectfull FARMER.

Sept. 8, 1904.

Moncton, Sept. 9—(Special)—The death of Peter G. Brean, aged eighty-six years, occurred this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Bourgeois, Fox Creek.

Deceased was born in Memrameook but lived in this grant of the second was born in Memrameook. Deceased was born in Memramcook, but lived in this ricinity for a good many years. Two sons and four daughters survive. The sons are J. P. Brean, the well known shoe merchant, Moncton; Laurence, oson. The daughters are Mrs. J. J. nue, Mrs. Frank Flanerty, Monoton; Jerry Gogan, Cocagne; Mrs. Joshua

There were 23 deaths in the city last week from the following causes: Cholera