

FORMER CANADIANS IN MASSACHUSETTS POLITICS

Fred J. MacLeod and Edwin T. McKnight Winners in State Election - More Likely to Be Successful for Boston Common Council - Canadian Club's New Home - Politics Animates Americans Favoring Hay-Bond Treaty.

(By Charles H. McIntyre.) Boston, Nov. 17.—Since writing my last letter the Canadian Club has moved into its new quarters at 3 Joy street. On Wednesday evening last a house-warming was given to members and friends.

will soon become convinced that the British North American possessions, in their economic dealings with the republic, should be considered as a whole. No one can properly object to the spread of peaceful commerce over the globe. But when the promotion of this treaty is deliberately put on a political instead of an economic basis, when its merits are defended by those who have rendered no service to their country or to humanity.

Your readers are no doubt pretty familiar with the results of the state campaign in Massachusetts. But in the aftermath of political glory, it is pleasant to note that some of our Canadians have secured a share. Fred J. MacLeod was elected to the senate from Cambridge on the Democratic ticket. Racial and religious prejudices were aroused against him by certain Canadian elements of his party, but he succeeded in winning enough independent votes from the Republicans and naturalized Canadians to secure his election.

From time to time we are called upon to notice the deaths of Canadians who have rendered eminent services to their country or to humanity. On November 7 Rev. A. H. Lavers, pastor of the Baptist church at Calais (Me.), passed away. Our provincial papers have already alluded to some features of his life and work. But I wish to call attention to the remarkable grasp he had upon the affections of the people in his own parish and in the neighboring towns of New Brunswick. On the day of his funeral I am told that business was largely suspended in Calais. All the ministers, both Protestant and Catholic, took part in the public exercises and paid loving tributes to his memory.

SON OF PROMINENT MAN SENTENCED FOR BURGLARY

Boston, Nov. 20.—Robert Johnson, Jr., son of a former state legislator and railroad president, was today sentenced to the Concord reformatory for an indefinite term by Judge Stevens in the superior court after the young man had pleaded guilty to an old indictment charging burglary.

CHATHAM NEWS

First Smelt Shipments - Sudden Death of Mrs. Orliz Arsenau - Other Matters.

Chatham, Nov. 19.—The death of Mrs. Orliz Arsenau occurred at her home, Lower Newcastle, this forenoon. The deceased was apparently in her usual health until yesterday morning, when she was taken ill and died this forenoon. She was about forty-five years old, and leaves a husband and family.

MILD SMALLPOX IN YORK COUNTY

(Continued from page 1.) The People's Bank is taxed on its capital stock. Thos. Bailey, a well-known resident of Havelock, died yesterday. He was seventy-three years of age. Two colored boys, Nash and Cooney, were arrested for robbing a store in the village of Havelock. A. J. McKnight, of Moncton, paid a visit to Havelock during the week. James MacNeil has broken out in this section and are likely to spread.

HAVERLOCK NEWS

Havelock, Nov. 20.—Benjamin Freese, son of the late W. H. Freese, and who has lived some ten years or more in the U. S., has purchased the farm on which he has resided since he arrived in Havelock, where he will take up his abode in the spring. Mr. Freese is a young man with good health and plenty of vim. He will doubtless make farming a success.

THE CREST

The steamer Crest Stream arrived at Havelock Monday afternoon, and the crew reported that as yet little ice has formed up river. The steamer will probably return on her customary trip Monday afternoon, and will keep on the route as long as possible.

MAJOR WOOD'S NORWAY PINE

It is without a doubt the most efficacious, reliable and certain remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs, OR BOTH AFFECTED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE

IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE

IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

LOCALS

It is estimated that the lumber cut on the Aroostook this year will amount to 70,000,000 feet.

A patent has been granted through Marion & Marion, of Montreal, to Joseph Thompson, of Grand Bay, for an air cushion spring.

Six marriages were solemnized in the city last week. During the same period nineteen babies were born, twelve of whom were girls.

Seven deaths took place in the city last week. The causes were heart disease and diphtheria, two each; peritonitis, heart failure, broncho-pneumonia, one each.

There have not been any new cases of diphtheria for several days, and the health authorities are beginning to think the outbreak is abating. On Saturday the pharynx were taken from a couple of houses.

Samuel S. Mays, who has a farm at Taylor's Island, has a flock of sheep feeding on it, and the other day he missed two of them. Search revealed the members of a fire and portions of the animals. Some one had been having a barbecue at Mr. Mays' expense.

A large raft reached Indiantown Saturday night, and the logs are being cut and floated. The logs are the property of several local lumber firms. Another raft, the last of this season, is now on its way towards the bay, towed by the tug Champion.

There was a pleasant ceremony in No. 4 fire station, City Road, on Saturday evening, when the members presented to William McLellan, a fellow fireman, a beautiful sideboard in recognition of his marriage, which took place a few days ago.

The death of the following former provincialists is announced: In East Boston, Nov. 15, John A. McKee, aged 43 years, formerly of St. John; in Dorchester, Nov. 6, Sarah I. Cannon, aged 49, formerly of St. John; in Everett, Nov. 12, Marjorie S. Warren, aged 38, formerly of Moncton.

W. M. Marsh, of Toronto, is here to complete arrangements for the line of fruit steamers he hopes to see established in business between St. John and Jamaica. He said that he hoped to have complete arrangements made in a short time, and that a schedule would soon be prepared.

Mrs. C. E. Williams house on Douglas avenue was badly gutted by fire this afternoon Saturday morning. An alarm from box 126 brought the firemen. Most of the furniture was saved. The fire is supposed to have started from a grate. The property is insured for $12,000 in the Quebec Fire Insurance Company.

The steamer May Queen arrived at Indiantown at a late hour Sunday from Jonesport. She had on a cargo of hay and a few passengers. The crew reported that they had a very comfortable trip, there being just a little in the eddies. They also said that the high wind Saturday night kept the river from freezing but they had no doubt it would freeze soon.

Harris H. Niles died Friday night at his home, 127 Douglas street, at the age of 30. He was a native of New Brunswick and had been in St. John for some time. He was a member of the St. John Baptist church. His father and mother he leaves four sisters. Mrs. Bennett Swain, of St. John, is his widow. Also Mrs. W. A. Fairweather, of this city, and Miss Edna and Nettie at home, besides two brothers, Freeman, of Toronto, and Allison, of this city.

La Tour Section Templars of Honor and Temperance on Thursday installed a new grandmaster. The first time in St. John. The following officers were installed: Miss Stella M. Estabrook, W. G. Arthur as grandmaster, Rev. McKenny, P. W. A. Sterling, second W. A.; Robert Stewart, vice A.; Leonard Smith, W. U.; Ernest Black, W. A. U.; John Byles, W. U.; Wm. Brown, A. R.; Fairweather, P. R.; H. Estabrook, A. F. R.; Marshall Campbell, I. W.; Wm. Campbell, O. P.

Weddings. Tompkins-Hartley. A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Matias Hartley, East Florenceville, on Wednesday, Nov. 15, when his youngest daughter, Miss Lizzie Hartley, was united in marriage to Walter Tompkins, of Carleton Place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. E. Anderson in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The bride, who was one of the most charming, being beamingly attracted in white crepe de chene, with chiffon and lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums. The bride was the recipient of a number of valuable presents, the groom's being a handsome set of pink fur. The happy couple took the C. P. R. train for Carleton Place on Thursday. The bride's room was in the house at Carleton, where Mr. Tompkins has a position on the B. & A. Railway.

Mrs. Matilda A. Crombie. The death of Mrs. Matilda A. Crombie occurred unexpectedly Monday at her residence, 153 Brunswick street. Mrs. Crombie was the daughter of the late J. W. Chase, of Cambridge, Quebec county, and is survived by her husband, Fred G. Crombie, a brother, E. W. Chase, of Colborne Bay, and four sisters. She also leaves four children, the youngest of whom is only one day old. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family by a large circle of acquaintances. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. at the Orangetown.

John A. Howard, Formerly of Gaspoint. Eastport, Nov. 17.—Funeral services of the late John A. Howard, who died Monday night after a short illness of pneumonia, were held Thursday afternoon and evening at St. John's parish. The body was taken to the North end of the parish church at 2:30, the pall-bearers being six members of the Orangetown. He was a member of the late J. W. Chase, of Cambridge, Quebec county, and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Howard, and four children. He was a well-known lumberman and one of the best known lumber operators in northern Maine.

Charles S. Chapman. Amherst, N. S., Nov. 17.—(Special)—The death occurred at his residence, Upper Victoria street, this morning, of Charles S. Chapman, Amherst's most highly respected citizen. He was sixty-three years of age and had resided in Amherst many years. He was a son of the late Major J. Hood and was a member of the Victoria, N. S. militia. He was actively engaged in the lumber and business interests and was secretary of the Amherst Real Estate

OBITUARY

John Wilson Addison. John Wilson Addison, a well known and popular young citizen, died Saturday morning at his home, 39 Pitt street. Mr. Addison had been a sufferer from lung trouble for some time. He formerly kept a hardware store in the market building, and much distressed him to give it up on account of his health. His mother and sister survive.

John W. Byrne. Sussex, Nov. 19.—(Special)—John W. Byrne, millman, of Norton, who recently took ill at Truro (N. S.), died this morning at his home in Norton. He was about forty years of age and leaves a wife (nee Celia Desmond, of Hampton), and one son, besides his parents and two sisters. He was a member of the Sacred Heart Church, of Catham. His body will be taken on the Sussex express Tuesday morning to Truro, where it will be interred at 10 o'clock.

Isaac McLellan. Isaac McLellan, ship master of the Ruby and Boston, died Saturday at Georgetown (S. C.). A telegram to that effect was received on Saturday by his wife, who lives in Waterloo street. Beyond the mere fact that he had died, no particulars were given. Mr. McLellan was a native of this city. Besides his wife, two young daughters, and three sons—Mrs. J. Wilkins Bell, of Colchester (N. S.); Mrs. Manley Seelye, St. John; and Mrs. John Holmes, of Somerville (Mass.).

T. B. Roberts of Wolford. The death of T. B. Roberts, an aged and respected citizen of Wolford, occurred Sunday afternoon. Mr. Roberts, who had been in ill health for the past year, formerly conducted a general business there. He was in business there for about forty years, but about two years ago he bought a place at Wolford and had resided there since that time until his death. Mr. Roberts leaves his wife and two sons—T. B. and George—who are attending Mr. Allison college. He is survived by this city, is a nephew of the deceased.

Mrs. Wm. Porter, City Road. Mrs. Porter, wife of William Porter, City Road, died this city Sunday afternoon. She was only twenty-two years of age and had been married for only a year and a half. A baby girl was born a few days ago and was stricken with pneumonia and it was feared from the first, although all that medical aid could be done, she could not survive. Mrs. Porter was formerly Miss Marion Pettinson, of Bellefleur, Kings county. The bereaved husband will have deep sympathy in his affliction.

Mrs. Lena E. DeLong. Mrs. Lena E. DeLong died Sunday after a long illness which she bore with much patience. She was the wife of Harry DeLong of St. John, and daughter of E. J. Hurrier, of Wickham. Two daughters and one son survive. There are three brothers—James H. of British Columbia; James, with R. C. Elkin here, and George. The funeral will be at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday, from 299 Broad street.

James R. Taylor. Moncton, N. B., Nov. 17.—(Special)—James R. Taylor, an old and well known I. C. R. machinist, passed away at his home in St. John last night. He had been in failing health for some time, and the end came suddenly. Deceased was one of the oldest employes in the I. C. R. He was in the employ of the American Railway and was altogether well known to the railway forty-five years.

Alexander McTavish. St. Stephen, N. B., Nov. 20.—(Special)—The announcement of the death of Alexander McTavish, of the dry goods firm of Cameron & McTavish, has cast a gloom over the community this morning. He was ill only a few days, his death resulting from pneumonia. He is survived by a brother, William McTavish, of Toronto, and two sisters, Mrs. Hugh Cullinan and Mr. T. W. Anglin, of Montreal.

Hopewell Hill Happenings. Hopewell Hill, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Ernest Shields, who came to Lower Cape to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, the late W. C. Bennett, returned to her home in St. John on Monday. Herbert L. Brewster, of the I. C. R. treasurer's office, Moncton, spent a few days at his home here last week. Mrs. James L. Robinson, who has been in the St. John hospital for about five weeks, where she underwent an operation, returned home today. Her health is considerably improved.

Mrs. M. M. Lingley returned today from Dorchester, where she spent two weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Ernest McAuley. The death occurred at Hillsboro a few days ago of Chandler Dowling, an old and highly respected resident. The body was brought to Albert today and interred in the cemetery there beside that of his wife, whose death occurred about three weeks ago. Mrs. John Russell went to New Horton a few days ago to see her mother, Mrs. George Bartlett, who was quite lately injured by falling down cellar.

Mrs. Fred G. Robinson is quite sick. Dr. Carnwath, of Riverside, was called to see her. The ladies of the sewing circle at Hopewell Cape held a large supper on Tuesday night, which was largely attended. The proceeds, which amounted to about $90, are to pay for the new bell for the Baptist church. Capt. Frank Morrison, of Folskell Village (N. S.), visited his cousin, Mrs. G. M. Russell, here last week, on his way home from a trip to the western province years ago in our family for the past three years and I consider it the best remedy known for the cure of colds. It has cured all my children and myself.

"M. R. A'S. Unrivalled $10 Suit for Men." The BEST VALUE IN ALL CANADA. Its Not a Poor Man's Suit, Either.

"UNRIVALLED" indeed, for as yet no make of clothing has approached in general excellence the TEN DOLLAR SUIT which we have been selling for years to delighted customers. As we have said before, the reputation of our establishment is wrapped up in every one of these suits. They are made expressly for us, and for no other house in this country. We dictate how they shall be made INSIDE, which is a fact worth remembering. Do not judge clothing by the fine pressing it has received. You are not confined to a limited range of cloths, colors or cuts in this suit, we can give you the best materials, every new shade, each up-to-date pattern. Single and double-breasted styles. Honest tailoring and shape-keeping guaranteed. Blues, Blacks, Greys, Browns and Mixtures. All one price. Sent to any address upon receipt of measurements. Physical deformities overcome, if necessary. Our $10 Suit is everybody's suit. Hundreds of St. John business men wear no other.

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON, LIMITED ST. JOHN, N. B.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's CHLORODYNE THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE. Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis.

ASK HIM HERE FOR THE JEWS OF RUSSIA. The national committee for the relief of sufferers by Russian massacres has issued the following appeal: Dear Sir—It is impossible to describe the outrages upon the Jews in Russia.

Don't Neglect a Cough or Cold. IT CAN HAVE BUT ONE RESULT. IT LEAVES THE THROAT OR LUNGS, OR BOTH, AFFECTED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE TREE IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE TREE IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE TREE IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE TREE IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

ASK HIM HERE FOR THE JEWS OF RUSSIA. The national committee for the relief of sufferers by Russian massacres has issued the following appeal: Dear Sir—It is impossible to describe the outrages upon the Jews in Russia. From all sources comes the urgent cry for instant help and the immediate duty to give promptly, ample and efficient relief. Our advice from unquestionable sources are that those communities are homeless and without food. Apparently no collection of such magnitude has befallen Israel since the fall of Jerusalem. All the horrors of the inquisition, all the persecutions of the middle ages, are incomparable with the stupor and unparalelled crime both its magnitude and the number of people ruined. (According to most reliable sources, about 200,000 Jews were killed and over 100,000 have been wounded and maimed in the last brutal massacre. In order to relieve the miseries of these unhappy people, $100,000 has been raised by the Jews of America, and is raised at once. Signed on behalf of the committee, OSKAR S. STRAUSS, Chairman, CYRUS L. SULZBERGER, Secretary.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.

ROOSEVELT STICKS TO HIS OPINION. (Continued from page 9.) ate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you; nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year ago. You quoted portions of what I said—often as to these portions, your language was inaccurate; and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me, as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to a deliberate purpose or deception; or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a nice sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said. In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.