

REPORT.

The Committee of the YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION beg respectfully to present the Eleventh Annual Report embracing proceedings during the past nine months.

Immediately after their election, they met together and consulted as to the best method of conducting the affairs of the Association for the remaining nine months of official connection with it. And finding your Committee so large they deemed it expedient to organize in separate sections, each having charge of a distinct department of the Association's operations, the Chairman of each Committee to report to the General Committee quarterly.

In accordance with this arrangement four Committee's were elected each to concentrate its energies upon the different departments of Christian effort as follows :—

The Lecture and Bible Class Committee have been called together fortnightly during the past few months, and they have been enabled to secure a series of Lectures not inferior to any yet delivered, a list of which, to the end of the year, is herewith submitted. The course this winter was inaugurated by a Prayer Meeting held in the Grafton Street Church. The Rev. Mr. Geddie the returned Missionary from the Southern Polynesia addressed the meeting at great length on the subject of his mission. The address was listened to with marked attention, and your Committee would convey its thanks to all those who took part in the proceedings. They trust the course has not been without its beneficial influence and they return thanks to those who
