

Resolved—That the thanks of the Conference be given to Brother Green, President, and Brother Robins, Secretary, for the satisfactory manner in which each has filled his office during the last year.

Q. 2.—Who remain on the list of approved Preachers?

A.—Paul Robins,	John Chapple,	Henry Stevens,
J. Langdon, superannated	John Williams,	William R. Roach,
John H. Eynon,	William Hooper,	Robert Miller,
Abraham Morris,	Henry Ebbott,	George Parsons,
John B. Tapp,	Joseph Hoidge,	John Hooper,
Thomas Green,	G. Hayerost, sup ^d ated	David Cantlon,
John Edwards,	Arthur Doble,	Thomas R. Hull,
Robert Hurley,	Joseph Dix,

Q. 3.—Who are admitted into full connexion?

A.—G. T. Colwell,	Isaac Ashley,	George Bodle,
Andrew Gordon,

Q. 4.—Who remain on trial?

A.—Edward Roberts,	William Jossife,
Thomas C. Pickard,	William Newcombe,

These have travelled two years.

Henry J. Colwell,	Henry Nott,
-------------------	-------------

These have travelled one year.

Q. 5.—Who are admitted on trial?

Adam Curry,	John Coon,	Archibald Clark,
-------------	------------	------------------

Q. 6.—What Preachers have died this year?

A.—None.

Q. 7.—What is the state of our christian experience?

A.—The Brethren spoke clearly and decidedly of their acceptance with God; attachment to each other; the cause of Christ; of a desire to glorify God, and a determination to help to build up the Kingdom of our Redeemer in this world. The meeting was numerously attended by the friends in the circuit and surrounding ones, and the feeling that prevailed was most delightful. Looking at this and the unity which existed between the Ministers, Representatives and Members, we doubt not but the meeting and the Conference will be long remembered.

Q. 8.—What is the spiritual state of the Connexion?

A.—There is ground to hope that many of our friends see more clearly their duty in supporting the cause of God, and it is expected with improvement of times we shall be in fewer difficulties. Greater attention is being given to our Sunday Schools, and we hope our friends will still, in greater numbers, take hold of this department of the work. Eight stations report an increase in the membership of two hundred and sixty-two. Thirteen report a decrease of two hundred and eighteen, which leaves but a small net increase. This is rather a gloomy aspect at first sight, and forces the enquiry, What is the cause of this state of things? Worldly circumstances have required the removal of several of our members to situations beyond the bounds of the Bible Christian connexion; this and the deaths partly account for the losses sustained; but we fear instability and coldness meet