

Knowing then, the principles by which it is governed—understanding the motives by which it is influenced—and appreciating the labours in which it is engaged—let us increase her facilities for doing good, by augmenting her funds, and multiplying her agents. The altar in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite—the Ointment that perfumed the house of Simon the Pharisee—and the Widow's mite are all suggestive of liberal things, and show what Love can do.

Let us give—give not as a mere habit—not from a principle of abstract liberality—but from Evangelical motives, and then we will be co-workers together with God to promote His Glory, and to accomplish what his servants the Prophets desired and foretold. “His name shall endure forever; his name shall continue as long as the Sun; and men shall be blessed in Him; all nations shall call Him blessed.”
