HERO DROWNED, MEDAL
AWARDED TO HIS WIDOW

Tallahassee, Florida, Nov.—In recognition of the heroism of the late Prof. Lynn P. Collins who lost his life last year in the attempt to save a woman from drowning, a bronze medal has been awarded by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission to his widow, a teacher at Florida A. and M. College, this city. This was one of four medals awarded to Floridians, out of a total of fifty-one awards made by the Commission at its recent meeting.

Prof. Collins, then a teacher at Bishop College, Marshall, Texas, lost his life at Iowa City on July 4th, 1928 in attempting to save Mrs. C. K. Reed from drowning in the Iowa River. Overcome by her struggles, Collins was unable to make the shore and both went down.

New York, Dec.—The New York Times Wednesday in dispatches from Moscow, Russia tells of much sympathy being shown the "oppressed Negroes" of Haiti by the Russian newspapers. The report dated Dec. 19th stated:

Today's newspapers devote considerable front page space to the Haitian situation with characteristic headlines about "American imperialism" and the Soviet cartoonists waxed their witliest at the expense of the United States.

Florida pictures an enormous Uncle Sam swatting a tiny Negro on a table like a fly with the words "We let no one infringe on the Kellogg peace pact."

The cartoon's title is "Righteous Wrath."

Yvestia presents a cartoon of a blond Negro with a hand, above which waves the American flag, putting an automatic pistol at his head. The title of the cartoon is "Stimson Varies His Note."

Red Star, the army's paper, follows the same line but here a Negro bound to the mouth of cannon holds the Kellogg pact and looks reproachfully at Uncle Sam. The title is: "The Kellogg Pact Does Not Apply."
