Mr. Jefferson, who is working with Goucher, the electrician, came near a sudden and tragic end on Monday of this week. He was working on the roof of the school connecting up the main lead wires. He had hold of one wire and with the other hand he took hold of a metal pipe, causing the current to pass through his body. He was unable to free himself. Mr. Goucher seeing what had happened pulled the young man away and into the building. If help had not been immediately, he would in all probability have come to his death. And the chance of falling off the building to instant death was almost certain.

A CORRECTION

In last issue in mentioning those from Margareville who attended the Masonic Lodge meeting we notice that Mr. Fred L. Harris of Boston was recorded as a "Shrier". This should have appeared (Shrier).

There seems to be something wrong with this season. We haven't seen anything in the papers about halibutones as big as hen's eggs.
