

EVERYDAY LIFE IN THE HOLY LAND

By JAMES NEIL, M.A.

Formerly Incumbent of Christ Church, Jerusalem, and Acting Chaplain and Examining Chaplain to the former Lord Bishop of Jerusalem, Dr. Gobat. Author of "Palestine Explored," "Pictured Palestine," &c.

Testimonial from "Christian Guardian," Sept. 24, 1913.—

An exceedingly sumptuous and beautiful book, and an exceedingly useful and instructive one as well. The pictures are not for their charm and beauty only, but are intended to illustrate and describe eastern life and customs, which they do most intimately and effectively. The writing is by one who knows Palestine life by long residence and intimate association. And it is intended not only to be interesting and to describe accurately eastern life in all its charm and color, but above all to use that description in throwing a fresh and realizing light upon the Bible story, both in the Old and New Testaments. We do not know of any one book that takes us more into the heart of the great Oriental Book of Books or that at more points makes clear and meaningful the Bible records. A book that Students and teachers of the Bible can scarcely do without and can hardly be grateful enough for. We confess that we never quite got the point of the parable of the Virgins until we read Mr. Neil's chapter.
