

43 Geo: III,
Sec. 40.

specifying in his order what quota each of them shall furnish in proportion to the number of the Militia which it contains ; and to the total number of the Provincial Militia.

52, G. III.
sec. 6.

VIII. He may form them into Battalions or Companies of which he shall appoint the officers ; and shall cause them to be exercised during ninety days between the first of May and the fifteenth of August, after which they shall be disbanded.

IX. He shall cause them to march to such place as he shall think fit, in order to be exercised and trained ; provided that he keep them at the distance of two leagues at least from such Towns, Boroughs or Forts as contain troops, except in case of war, invasion or insurrection.

Section 7

X. In the above mentioned cases or in that of imminent danger of them he may at his discretion retain the said two thousand Militia men for a greater length of time than that above specified. (No. 8.)

Section 11.

XI. It is lawful for him to accept and to embody such Volunteers as may offer themselves, exclusive of the said two thousand men. He shall form such Volunteers into Battalions, Light companies, Companies of Artillery, Squadrons of Cavalry or otherwise : and shall appoint their officers,

XII.