BRUNSWICKAN SUPPLEMENT

NOTICE

The publication of the FIQ Manifesto on pages six and seven of this supplement dealing with the situation in Quebec is not necessarily a reflection of the political opinions of the BRUNSWICKAN staff, Students Representative Council or the academic community of the University of New Brunswick. This supplement is purely for the dissemination of knowledge on this campus of an issue clouded by the commercial media reporting. We feel this issue deserves the kind of reporting to be found in the following pages.

These pages are written in Montreal in the midst of a whirlpool of events whose final solution one can only begin to glimpse.

This is not an explanation of the grievances of Quebec - that must come later, and some even think it's already too late for that, years too late.

This special preliminary report has been prepared by the staff of Last Post Magazine, working with journalists in Montreal, Ottawa and Quebec City, whose examination of events, and their treatment in the English press outside Quebec, has given them that too much has not been told, and too many questions have to be raised in the explosion of the profound events.

It is our aim-those at the Last Post and those of us in the papers and broadcast media who have joined the Last Post in this effort- to raise questions about the motives of men in power in the cataclysmic days of October, perhaps not to answer many of them, but to begin the urgently needed examination of what some have already begun to call: The Santo Domingo of Pierre Elliott Trudeau.
