EXL

Dear Sir:

This letter accompanies a shipment of baskets addressed to Gibson Armstrong as requested by Miss Moodie. Some time ago I sent 3 dozen. I thought then That I could send you the balance last week but the Indians happened to be busy ploughing and all I could get was 5 doz. less 4.

I hope this shipment will be satisfactory and that you will forward payment for same at your earliest convenience.

Your obedient servant,

Rev. E. Chiasson,
Indian agent.
