

of imports and exports. The same is true of the Leeward Islands. I have included all under the name of Canada in making calculations. This slightly affects the result, but the difference in the percentages of trade would hardly be appreciable if the Newfoundland trade were eliminated. However, it should be noted that Newfoundland ships large quantities of fish to New York and perhaps some of the fish imports into Trinidad credited to the United States actually come from Newfoundland.

STATEMENT showing the amount of duty collected annually on Merchandise entered for consumption in Canada, from British West Indies, during the fiscal years ended March 31, 1908 to 1916, inclusive.

1908..	$1,593,259 76
1909..	1,265,966 84
1910..	891,094 15
1911..	1,102,597 87
1912..	1,004,892 75
1913..	849,121 79
1914..	500,070 35
1915..	*1,238,117 42
1916..	*1,334,635 21

* These amounts do not include "War Tax."

DEPARTMENT OF CUSTOMS,
OTTAWA, October 19, 1916.