

- 1904-07. A. N. Worthington—Lieut. 13th Batt'n, 3rd Bgde (Royal Highlanders of Canada). Wounded May 24th, '15. Capt. 169th Batt'n.; Major.
- 1899-05. A. M. Wright—Lieut. 95th Batt'n., C.E.F.
- 1899-04. C. S. Wright—Wireless Operator, Imperial Army, R.E. Awarded the Cross of the Legion of Honour. Capt., 1916. R.E. Scottish Wireless.
- 1893-97. F. C. Wright.
- 1895-97. J. J. Wright.
- 1900-02. P. H. Wright—Lieut. 8th Mounted Rifles.
- 1905-13. V. B. Wright—Lieut. Alien Concentration Camp, Kapuskasing. 75th Battalion. Wounded, Aug., '16. Killed in action, Nov., 1916.
- 1896-00. W. W. Wright—Capt. C.A.M.C.
- 1904-09. H. H. Wrong—Lieut. Oxford & Bucks Light Infantry; invalided home; Adj. R.F.C., Toronto.
- 1894-95. H. M. Wylie—Lieut. 85th Battalion.
- 1910-15. F. D. Wynne—R.C.H.A.

Y.

- 1897-99. Douglas Young—Major, R.C.D., Machine Gun Section. Wounded, May 31, '15. Mentioned in despatches, Feb., '17. 2nd in command R.C.D., April, '17.
- 1905-08. J. V. Young—Lieut. 11th Batt'y, 3rd Bgde., C.F.A. Wounded, April 24, '15.

---

Although it is difficult to estimate the number of "Old Boys" now living or of those on active service, it is possibly not inaccurate to say that the proportion of the latter to the former is about one-third—a not inconsiderable state of affairs, seeing that not a few of those who survive are from 45 to 92 years of age.