

brown. When snow is on the ground, they are quite white.

3. A pair of Frank's hares came from the far North. This kind of hare is large. It weighs from ten to twelve pounds.

4. In the cold months, its fine soft fur is pure white. When warm days come, its coat is gray, and its big broad ears are black.

5. On fair days, Frank lets his hares out of their pen. He takes a chair and sits near, while they eat the green grass on the front lawn.

6. Frank does not let a dog nor a cat scare them. He is so kind that they do not fear him. They eat twigs and young leaves from his hand.
