

coming generations two of the many acts of heroism which have been demonstrated by the hardy fishermen of Bonavista.

On the 19th of September, 1907, the Norwegian schooner "Snorre," tore from her moorings. The lives of the six members of the crew were endangered. Four were rescued at great risk while two were drowned. These acts of heroism on the part of the rescuers brought them into prominence. The Carnegie Hero Com-

LEWIS LITTLE,
Saved lives on two occasions.