BOYS LECTURE COURSE.

THE third lecture of the course was delivered on Friday evening March 23rd., by Mr. James Mc Dunnough. The lecture was entitled 'Foot Prints.' The lecturer had devoted much time to the careful preparation of the lecture, and was rewarded with marked and earnest attention.

The lecture was calculated to encourage the boys, and lead them on in the paths of rectitude.

The next lecture will (D.V.) be delivered on Friday, April 20th, by Mr. J. J. Gartshore. The title is "Some things I saw during a visit to England."

CORRESPONDENCE.

WE regret that our space will admit of but a few brief extracts from an interesting letter written by Charlie Edwards, and dated "New York, March 5th." He refers to the work of the Brooklyn Boy's Association, and he expresses a hope that the work in that City will be remembered by us in prayer, as they are not unmindful of our work. He says "I had the pleasure of attending the Boy's Bible Class, in connection with the Harlem Branch of the New York Association. This meeting has only lately been started, but it promises a rapid growth in numbers and usefulness."
