The Only Weekly Engineering Journal Published in Canada

A few months ago, when it was decided to issue the

once a week instead of as formerly once a month, the publishers were a little doubtful as to whether there would be enough engineering news to justify such a change being made.

The fact is it is really difficult to find room for all that offers itself, engineering development of all kinds follow one another so rapidly.

Each week it is filled with distinctly live, up-to-date engineering news.

If you desire to reach the civil and consulting engineers, contractors and supply men, the paper to use is the

Canadian Engineer

62 Church Street
 Toronto

P.S.—Specially valuable when municipalities want to advertise for tenders for public works.
