THE CATHOLIC RECORD,

INTERESTING MISCELLANY.

6

NOT & PROTESTANT COUNTRY. The Rev. Minot J. Savage, of Boston, is a Protestant who sees through clear been dearer to me far than gold or woman. To you I have ever been devoted, yet you are the cause of all my ills. You have played me false. The time has come when we must part." "I gazed sadly and longingly at the cigar and then threw it into the street. I ted become convinced that tobacco was running me. For three months thereafter I underwent the most awful agouy. I never expect to suffer more in this world or the next. I didn't go to any physician or endeavor in any way to is a Protestant who sees through clear spectacles. He said a few days sgo: "We talk as though the Oatholics had no rights. We say this is a Protestant country. It isn't. Were I a Catholic, I would tight to the bitter end before I would submit to have a religion taught in the Public schools which I believed defined the count will are of my world or the next. I didn't go to any physician or endeavor in any way to palitate my suffarings. Possibly a physi-cian might have given me something to soften the tortures. Neither did I break my vow. I had made up my mind that I must forever abandon tobacco or I would be ruined by it. At the end of the three months my longing for it abated. I gained twenty-five pounds in weight. I slept well for seven or eight hours every night. I require that smont because of endangered the eternal welfare of my child's immortal soul. The causes that less than this. The cure seems to be simple. It lies in justness and fairness to all." led our forefathers in o rebellion were

THE POWER OF A GOOD BOOK.

It is wise at night to read, if but for a few minutes, some book which will compose and soothe the mind; which will bring us face to face with the true facts of hife, death and eternity; which will make us remember that man doth I slept well for seven or eight hours every night. I require that smont because of my excessive cerebration. When I don't get it I am liably to rheumatism or scittica. I have never smoked from that day to this, and, while no one knows better than I the pleasures to be derived from tobacco, I am still well content to forego them, knowing their effect. facts of life, death and eternity; which will make us remember that man doth not live by bread alone; which will give us before we sleep, a few thoughts worthy of a Christian man with an im-mortal soul in him. And, thank God ! ne one need go far to find such books. I do not mean merely religious books. I do not mean merely religious books. excellent as they are in these days; I mean any books which will help to make us better and wiser and more charitable to persons; any books which will teach to persons; any books which will teach us to despise what is vulgar and mean, foul and cruel, and love what is noble soul and cruel, and love what is holds and high-minded, pure and just. We should read books which tell us of wirtue, the stories of good and brave men and women, of gallant and heroic actions, of deeds which we ourselves the day of jadgment." The youth went away, and the party he travelled with were assaulted by robbers One fellow asked the boy what he had, and he answered, with a candor that sur-prised the questioner. "Forty dinars are should be proud of doing, of persons whom we feel to be better, wiser, nobler sewed up in my garments." The robber laughed, thinking the boy than ourselves.

CHEER HIM.

jesting. Another asked him the same question and received the same answer. At last the chief called him and asked him CHEER HIM. At a fire in a large city, while the upper stories of a lofty dwelling were wrapped in smoke, and the lower stories all aglow with flame, a piercing shriek told the startled firemen that there was some one still in the building in peril. A ladder was quickly reared until it touched the beated walls, and diving through the flames and smoke, a brave what he had. The boy replied : "I have told two of your people already that I have forty dinars sewed up in my clothes,"

"The chief ordered his clothes to be through the names and smoke, a brave young fireman rushed up the rounds on his errand of mercy. Stifled by the smoke, he stopped, and seemed about to descend. The crowd was in agony, as a He seemed almost loss, for every moment seemed an age. While this shivering fear sels: d every beholder, a voice from the erowd cried out. "Cheer him! Cheer him!" and a wild "Hurrah" burst from the excited spectators. As the cheer reached the fireman, he started upward through the curling smoke, and in a few moments was seen coming down the ladder with a child in his erms. That cheer did the work.

How much can we help the brave ones who are struggling wirh temptation, or almost fainting in their efforts to do good to others. Don't find fault with your brother in his trial, but cheer him. Give him a word that shall urge him on the way; and if you cannot help in any other way give him a cheer. RUSSIA.

THE UNHRALTHIEST COUNTRY IN THE WORLD.

Russia altogether is the unhealthlest country in the civilized world. The statistics of the medical department for 1887 shows a less satisfactory state of the public health than the immedia'ely pre-ceding year. The cases of infectious dis-cases a libourgh far from being all although far from being all eases, although far from being all chronicled, were much more numerous in preportion to the population than in Eag-land, Holland, Italy, Belgium or Praesia : land, Holland, Italy, Beight of russia: leprosy was found in 65 districts, and 615 fresh victims were registered during the year; there were 21 blind to every 10.000 inhabitants — a greater proportion tasm elsewhere on the continent; —and 27,107 persons poisoned themselves. Every year 15 more persons in 1000 die in Russia

"See, mother," he cried, "what I have found-such a handsome pocket book ?" "Where did you find it?' saked his mother. "In Pine Grove ; now who do you suppose it belongs to ?" "I dare say it grew there," said his

"Grew there !" exclaimed Frank, lift. ing up his cyclows in surplise, "a pocket book growing in the woods! Who ever heard of such a thing! It could not be." "Why not ? she asked.

"Why not?" she saked. "Why not?" replied the boy. "The pocket-book was made on purpose. Look here! (opening ii) "here is the place for bank-notes, and here is a little out-of-the-way spot, with a snug fasten-ing, for gold, and a memorandum book and a peucli case and a beautiful gold pencil. Look, mother, with a pen and lead both; it was made for a man to use." "Some contrivates here, certainly," said his mother, putting down her work, and taking it into her nands for further "It is one of the most examination. "It is one of the most useful pocket-books I ever saw. If it did not grow there, perhaps it made it-

Both boys stared at ber more and

"Why. mother, you talk foolishly," said Frank, with a sober and puzzied look ; A story is told of a Persian mother, who there must have been a man with a mind to have made this

A story is told of a testan mouth, we as on giving her son forty pieces of silver as his portion, made him yow never to tell a lie, and said, "Go, my son, I consign thes to God; and we shall not meet again till the day of judgment." "A man that knew how—a pretty neat workman," added Tom Jackson. "How do you know? You never saw him." "No, but I have seen his work, and that's enough to convince me ; I am just as certain that somebody made it as if I saw him " "You are !" esid Mrs Cary, " how so ?"

"You are!" stid Mrs Cary, how so 7 "Why, mother," said Frank, vory much in earnest, "you see the pocket book bad to be planned to enswer a certain purpose; how, it must have had a planaer, that's the lorg and short of it, and I know just as well as if I saw it planned and done by the man himself."

done by the man himself.' "That is, said the mother, "it shows wise contrivances and it must have had a wise contriver. Somebody must have be a solution of a subset be a solution of a subset of $23,000 towards the erection of a Catholic church in the pirlsh of St. Subset and the new church in the pirlsh of St. a wise contriver. Somebody must have that Substian in Berlin. I made it, and thought beforehand how will cost about £22,000.

to make it." "Just so !" exclaimed both the boys at once. "It would be foolish to think otherwise," added Frank. "I think so," said his mother. "And it is just as foolish," she continued, with a great deal of meaning in her tone, as she looked into the boys' eyes, "when you see this wonderful contrivances in the b ings and things around you, the end for which they are made, and the skill with which they were put together, for you to doubt or deny that there is a God who made them. Who planned your eyes to see with, your cars to hear with? Can eyes make themselves ? Can a man make a bird ? Who created sun and planned night and day? Did your mother or father plan your ingers and make them grow? You never saw who does all these things, but you know perfectly well that a great Some you know perfectly well that agreat Solute body thought beforehand, designed and contrived the eye, and ear, the sun, and your fingere-sil things and beings which are around you. And that great Some-received 635 of these cards, with ody is G d, the eternal Mind and Maker of ns sli.' The boys did not expect to be condemned from their own mouths in this

AN AGE OF DISCOVERY.

The latter half of the 19th century will pass into history as one into which is crowded more inventions and discoveries for the benefit of mankind than in all the for the benefit of mankind than in all the centuries that have preceded it. Among these discoveries none will take higher rank than those in medicine, calculated to relieve "the ills that flesh is helr to," restore vitality, and prolong life. Ladles everywhere will rejoice at the discovery of D. Williams' Pick Pills, undoubtedly she didn't have to go to school and study those tiresome lessons; she wanted to take long walks and play in

To His Wife. JOSEPH BRENNAN.

Come to me, darling, I'm lonely without thes, Daytime and night-time I'm dreaming about thes: Night-time and daytime in dreams I behold thes. Unwe.come the waking which ceases to fold thes. thee. Come to me, darling, my sorrows to lighten. Come in thy beauty to bless and to brighten; Come in thy womanhood, meekly and

Come in thy lowingness, queenly and holy.

You have been glad when you knew I was gladdened; Dear, are you sad to hear I am saddened? Our hearts ever answer in tune or in time, As octave to octave, or rhyme unto rhyme, love; I can not smile but your cheek will be glow-ting.

1 can not smill out your cheek will be flow-10g. You can not weep but my tears will be flow-10g. You will not linger when I shall have died, 1 could not live without you by my side,

Come to me. darling. ere I die of my sorrow, Rise on my gloom like the sun of to-mor-Rise on my gloom like the sun of to-mor row; Strong, swift and sweet as the words which I spack, love. I speak, love. With a song on your lip and a smile on your check, love. Come, for my heart in your absence is areay: Hate, for my spirit is sickened and weary; Come to the arms which alone (an careas

Come to the heart which is throbbing to press thee.

LATEST CATHOLIC NEWS.

The Christian Brothers bave taken charge of the higher grades of the Hamilton Separate schools for boys. The memorial cross designed by Mr.

Eiward Cofford as a monument for Father Demien will be soon sent to Molokai. A prominent position has been selected where it will be placed. A megnificent mosaic representing the Madowna and Child is beirg executed at the Vatlean mosaic factory. The Holy Father intends to present it to the Queen

A monument is to be raised at Agen. tenberg, near Z voll, to Thomas a Kem-pis, the author of "The Imitation of Christ." He spent his life in the Christ." He spent his life in the Augustician convent, of which his brother was prior, in the same town. In 1880 a papyrus manuscript was discovered in an old hermitage near Jeru-salem, which, having been submitted to a committee of the London Biblical Society, is pronounced to be in the handwriting of St Peter the Apoetle. An offer of $100 000 for the document has been refused by the Committee.

Competition.

In order to ascertain the views of chem-ists throughout Great Britain as to which of the remedies for outward application had the largest sale and greatest popularity, "the Chemist and Druggist" instituted OFFICE: 137 Dundas Street. a post card competition, each dealer to	bllowing results.

	St. Jacobs Oil
	Elliman's Embrocation
	Holloway's Ointment
	Allcock's Plasters
	Bow's Liniment
	Pain Killer
	Vaseline
	Cuticura
	Scattering

A Bag of Flour.

A Bag of Flour. As a general renovating tonic and pur ing family medicine useful at all tm but especially so in the spring, Burd Blood Bitters is unequalled. "It's like a bag of flour in a poor mu family," says Mr. John Maunder, of Yo ville, Ont., "the oftener you take B, B the better you are."

FEB

FATE

THE JUBIL

Wednesday congregation here for the c anniversary esteemed pas-the siver jub commencea : the Reveren Kiernan, of C Une Mass, aid ville, as subac Reformatory Others 1 reser. Of Fios, McM Dixle, sna M Dixle, sna M Dixle, sna M Pradored ver approriately inbuom at i Dabeau presi After the 6 dressed the 6 there to hour their pastor, he had beem duriag whic been done to have been m for. Father M prescher in learned, logi the dignity After the name of the following ad

REV. AST brokher.pric Torontc, col the celebras We jadge record our b life, your i ardent zeal life, your i ardent zeal hige, your i ardent zeal bright exam heseed you istrations i ments of y within the meased you istrations i charity, wi unite the d you are b you are b you are b you are bine you are bine you are bine you you are bine you are bine you you are bine you you are bine you are bine you are bine you you are bine you you you you you you you you you in every i these sacre opr warm Signed of diocese,

Father much plea Grace Ar missal he from His 1 Father 1

Father 1 nctexpres of his britoo kind s one side o other side said of hi years a pr could not he is befa they wou reasons to to arise mercy. E fled that approbat ecclesiant ecclesiant encourse they are try and 1 closed th He than ings, the with wh He than ings, the with wh the than ar spin Rooney 1 sflected brance o lee. He wo who was pricets o Then A the Rof accompt Treasurt forwart forwart He so

French Mr. K constrain trusted Father 1 plained and ven priestho invested give the

DEAR the Eng

PRIEST O

Penetan

CASTLE & SON

40 Bleury Street, MONTREAL, and NEW YORK, -ARTI TS IN -

STAINED - GLASS

Figure Subjects and Memorial Windows, Ornamental and Emblamatical Designs in Colored Glass.

Our reputation for anaccessful results in staired glass, whether a simple colored window or an elaborate subject window, is such that it affords a guarantee to those in-tending to bestow commission.

A FEW EXAMPLES.

St. Johnsbury Church of Notre Damo, Vermont, U.S. Courch of the Rev. Leonard Batry, V.G., Milwaukee, Also endorsel by His Lordship the Rt. Rev. Bishop Otto-Jardite, St. Cloud. Minc.) Chappei of the Secret Heart Convent, Montreal. St. Bridget's Church, Ottawa, Ont.

TESTIMONIAL.

ST. THERESE.

Br. THREESE. Messrs: Castle & Son have put in standed g as in all windows of our church. There windows present a mag-nificent sight and add greenty is the bouts of our tem-ple. It would be very difficult to be better served in an we have been by Messrs. Castle & Son. The fight spiced in the six windows in the Transcept are part eithout. The best workmen to Europe could not give a better or more perfect fights. Messrs. Castle & Son deserve the patronage of all who intend having this kind of work done in heir churches. L. A. CHARELESOIS. Provess.

Testimonials and designs submitted. Our work is guar-anteed. We understand requirements, having made church glass a special study.

Agents for Harrington's Tubular Chime Bells. These Bells are sweeter in tone and one-fifth the cost of ordi-nary bells.

THE ONTARIO MUTUAL LIFE?

IF NOT, WHY NOT?

THE ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian company which belongs exclusively to policy-holders. THE ONTARIO LIFE pays all claims the same day the completed claim papers are received at the head office

THE ONTARIO LIFE issues a policy free from all restriction as to residence,

THE ONTARIO LIFE guarantees on all policies the cash value and the paid ap

THE ONTARIO LIFE makes such a bargain with you that you know the contract before you accept the policy ; this bargain cannot be changed without your consent. THE ONTARIO LIFE has given better results during the past twenty years than have been given by any other company during the same period. THE ONTARIO LIFE solicits your splication upon the merits of the company, the policy, and the profits already given; and does not present any figurehead or any extravagant estimates by means of which to get your basiness.

May we add your name to our list of policy holders? We shall be pleased to give

Faithfully yours, THE ONTARIO MUTUAL LIFE.

to	NATIONAL	PUNITEUAL INSTITUTE OF CHERSTIAN ACH
her the 2	COLONIZATION LOTTEBY Under the patronage of the Rev. Father Labelle. Established in 1884, under the Act of Quebec 32 Vict., Chap. 36, for the benefit of the Diocesan Societies of Colonization of the Province of Quebec.	BENZIGER BROTHERS
2 9 7 4	CLASS D. The 43rd Monthly Drawing will take place WEDNESDAY, FEB, 18, 1891, At 2 o'olock p. m.	A HAPPY YEAR; or, the Year Sanctified by meditating on the Maxims and Sayings of the Saints 12mo, cloth, net, $1.00 MISCELLANY: Historical Sketch of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redermer. Bules and Constitutions. Instructions
2 .8 35	PRIZES VALUE	<ul> <li>boult the Bailgious State. Lives of two Fathers and of a Lay Brother, USS R. Dis- courses on Calsmittles, R. flections useful for Bispops, Rules for Seminaries, net $125 PSYCHOLOGY. By Michael Maher, S. J., Stonyburst College, . net, $150</li> </ul> rify- mes,	1 Real Estate worth $5,000.00 5,000.01 1	This is toe fifth issue of the English Man- nals of Catholte Philosophy. THE HEART OF ST. JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL. Thoughts and Prayers complied by the Sisters of the Divine Gom-
dock an's ork.	30 Furilture Sets	Dassion. 32mo, cloth, red edges. 50 cevts, NOVENA TJ SC, CATHARINE D& REJ- CI. By the Dominican Sisters, Albany. Parer. GETHSEMANI, JERUSALEM, AND GOL-
B. B.	100         do	GOTHA. Meditations and Prayers for Leut. From the German by Rav. A. Geyer. With Morning and Evening 'Tay- ers, Devoltons for Mass, etc. 32mo. No 26. Cloth
cked	Tickets, $1.00: 11 Tickets for $10.00.	No 4. Arabesque, gilt centre and edge

0 60

Piso's Remedy for Catarrh is the Best, Easiest to Use and Cheapest.

CATARRH

Sold by druggists or sent by mail, 50c. E. T. Hazeltine, Warren, Pa., U. S. A.

MANUFACTURING

UNDERTAKERS

Wholesale and retail. Outside the com bine. Always open.

R. DRISCOLL & CO.

424 Bichmond-st., - London, Ont.

SMITH : BROS.

Plumbers, Gas-Fitters,

Steam and Hot Water Heating

Engineers.

172 KING STREET, LONDON.

McShane Bell Foundry.

Tinest Grade of Bolls, Chimos and Peaks for CHURGITES, COLLEGER, TOWER CLOCKS, etc. Fully warranted; satisfaction guar-snited, Eard for price and catalogue, HY, McSHANE& CO., BALTINGAS, Md.U. S. Medion chis paper.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Telephone No. 588

getting her lessons ready for the morrow, instead of dreaming. Suddenly a funny little woman came Way.

but the pretty woman smiled and said : "My dear, I am Mrs. Always Bs Content, "My dear, I am Mrs. Always Bs Content, and live in Sunshine Terrace, sometimes I'm called Always Busy or the good fairy that multiplies things. How can I help you smooth out the frowns and puckers that are spoiling your pretty face ?" The girl found courage to tell her friend that she was just wishing that strings as Estelle; so pick them out my pink cotton, ever so many strings of lovely pearl beads, just what she

Oh how beautiful there they lay on

dear

wanted

"The chief ordered his clothes to be ripped open, and the money was found. "And how came you to do this? "Because," repiled the boy, "I would not be false to my mother, whom I solemnly promised never to tell a lie." "Child," said the chief, "art thou so mindful of thy mother, while I am insen-sible, at my age, of the duty I owe to God? Give me thy hand that I may swear repen-tance on it." He did so and his followers were struck with the scene. "You have to make it." tance on it." He did so and his followers were struck with the scene. "You have been our leader in guilt," they said to the chief; "be the same in the paths of vir-tue;" and, taking the boy's hand, they took the oath of repentence on it. Boys, speak only that which is true. You may do much good by it, if you never lead a band of robbers to God and honesty.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS.

A PERSIAN LEGEND.

ADELE'S FAIRY. O.ce upon a time a little French girl whose name was Aiele, sat on the porch-steps with her eibows on her knees and her chin resting in her hands. her chin resting in her hands. She was idle, not because there was nothing to do, for there hay her bag full of books, and she ought to have been along and stopped right before her. She had bright, shining eyes, rosy checks and pretty white hair, and carried a basket on ler arms.

Adele was afraid of the stranger at first.

given in the Caucasus, where there is only one hospital to every 309,000 inhabitants, and one hospital bed for every 12,000. WHY HE QUIT BMOKING.

Cartal Carta

Everybody knows that Chauncey Deper doesn't smoke, but the reasons for his ab-doesn't smoke, but the reasons for his ab-stinence form an interesting story. "I used to smoke twenty clgars a day," said Mr. Depew, "and I continued it antil I became worn out. I didn't know what was the matter with me, and physicians that I applied to did not men tion tobacco. I used to go to bed at 2 o'clock in the morning and wake at 5 or 6 I had no appetite and was dyspeptic. I was in the habit of smoking at my desk, The little girl reached out her hand, hesitated, then began to cry because she did not know how much to take. She must take six times as many, no more, no less. was in the habit of smoking at my desk and thought that I derived material assistance in my work from it. After a time I found that I couldn't do any work with out tobacco. I could prepare a brief or an argument without smoking, but still I was harassed by feeling that something was amiss, and the result was not up to to the mark. I also found that I was in greatly weakened, and I could not think well without a lighted cigar in my mouth. Now, it is perfectly clear that without this power of concentration a man is incapable nables nim to attend to various and mul tifarlous affairs, to drop one absolutely and take up another and give it full atten-

It is this which enables a man to deliver two orations in one night prepared on the same day. Well, one night I went to bed at 2 o'clock I was not feverish, of doing many things. It is this added

no less. This made the good fairy feel pity for Adele, so she said as she closed the lid of the basket "since you do not know how many you want I will go away and come back in the spring time and perhaps you back in the spring time and pernaps your good friends youder (poluting to the books in the bag) will help you to be come one of my family, then you will know how to count your blessings and not your trials. By forgetting ourselyes we increase our own happiness and that capable of doing any great quantity of work; my power of concentration was greatly weakened, and I could not think when you are drawing when when you are drawing when you are drawing when you are drawing when you are drawing "Don't loiter by the way to and from school. Don't dawdle in the morning when you are dressing. Learn to do everything quickly and well. I know somebody who sits on the floor with one shoe in her hand dreaming away-con sequently has to be called many times to breakfast." While Mrs. Always Busy talked,

Adele face turned crimson. "How did this fairy know she did all

Mr. Depew illustrated his meaning by that ?" speading out the fingers of both hands and making them dodge in opposite directions with great rapidity. Then he The truth is there are many little girls like Adele. Are you ?

STARTLING, BUT TRUE. Frank Clary, who had just returned to his mother, after a conversation with a friend named Tom Jackson, remarked that the latter did not believe in God but I couldn't sleep. I got up in the morning with no appetite, a bad taste in because he never saw Him. "Now, mother, I don't know that I believe in Him either, for I never saw my moath, and a tired and worn-out my mouth, and a theat and work-out feeling. I drank a cup of coffee and work out and bought a Partega cigar. That was the favorite then. I paid 25 cents for it. I lit it with a feeling of Him. D) you believe in God, mother?" "I do," said his mother; and she said ncthing more. A week or more after this, F.ank burst into the kitchen with Tom at his heels.

was the layout it it with a feeling or cents for it. I lit it with a feeling or pleasure which is only possible to the devotee. I smoked only a few inches, and I took it out of my mouth and hooked at it. I said to it: 'My felend hooked at it. I said to it: 'My felend To purify Your blood and bosom companion, you have always Take Hood's Sarsaparilla. glow of perfect health. These pills are an unfalling cure for nervous debility, palpitation of the heart, loss of appetite, headache and all the irregularities of the female system that entail so much misery and distress. Every suffering woman should give them a trial. For sale by al deal, or will be sent, post paid, on receipt of price-50 cent a box-be addressing The Dr Williams Medicine Co., Brockille, Oat. Beware of imitations.

The coughing and wheezing of persons troubled with bronchitis or the asthma is excessively harassing to themselves and annoying to others. DR. THOMAS' ECLECused '

5

ENTIRELY FREE OF CHARGE TO ANY ONE WHO WILL ADDRESS

D,

3

0

YOU A PRISONER NOW? DOES DISEASE HELD YOU? ESCAPEI

annoying to others. DR. THOMAS' ECLEC-rRIC OIL obviates all this, entirely, safely and speedily, and is a benign remedy for lameness, soreness, injuries, piles, kidney and spinal troubles

Minard's Liniment cures Distemper

C.C.P.

WONDERS FOR THE SICK MAN.

120 SUTTER ST., SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

THE POINT

Hamilton, Ont.

Hamilton, Ont. JABESHI SNOW, Gunning Cove, N. S., writes: — "I was completely prostrated with the asthma, but hearing of DE. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OLL, I procured a bottle, and it done me so much good that 1 got another, and before it was used, I was well. My son was cured of a bad cold by the use of half a bottle. It goes like wild-fire, and makes sures wherever it is used "

WORMS CAUSE SPRIOUS SICKNESS, Dr. Low's Worm Syrup destroys and expel all kinds of worms quickly and surely.

THE UNSPEAKABLE DELIGHT

OF IT! THE VIM AND BUOY-ANCYI HAVE YOU EVER

BEEN A PRISONER?

PALE, WEAK WOMEN need a tonic, strength giving, flesh building medicine like Milburn's Beef, Iron and Wine.

you full information.

nediately. (Send slip of paper size of your tinger. SEARS & CO., 112 Yonge St, Toro

Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the Bowels, Kidneys and Liver, carrying off gradually without weakening the sys-tem, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same time COr-recting Acidity of the Stomach, curring Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaun-dice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scro-fula, Fluttering of the Heart, Ner-vousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK BLOO BITTERS. For Sale by all Deaters. T. MILBURN & CO. Promietors, Torento-Unlocks all the clogged avenues of th

T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Toronto-ROYAL CANADIAN INS. CO. FIRE AND MARINE.

of Fure Copper and Tin for Churches, ols, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY RANTED. Catalogue sent Free. VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O. MENEELY & COMPANY WEST TROY, N. Y., BELLS avorably known to the public short should be the public short and other bells, also, Chimes and Peaks