The rails are on hand, and it is expected the gap will be filled during the month, at which time it is stated the bridges will also be ready. A train may run over during the first week in October, and the line will probably be open-ed for traffic by the 15th.—Amherst Gazette.

FOUND DROWNED.—This afternoon the body of a man was found floating in Hamilton's dock-Some boatmen picked up the body and took it to the Ferry Slip where it was identified as that of Mr. William Fraser, who had been missing for about a fortnight. He was a bookkeeper for Messrs. Reardon & Co., and lived in Spring Gardens. The Coroner was notified, and will hold an inquest to-morrow morning. -Recorder 19th inst..

DISTRESSING RAILWAY ADCIDENT .- On Wednesday last Mr. Enoch Wright, about 24 years of age, was engaged in loading logs on cars of the N. B. & C. Railway, near CanSalisbury, Nov. 1 terbury. The cars were set in motion, and he unfortunately, fell between them, tre wheels passing over both his legs and crushing them off above the knees. A special train was at once despatched to Woodstock for a doctor, but before his return death had come to the sufferer's relief .- St. John Telegraph.

The high rate of premium which U. S. Bonds have attained, and the consequent reduced rate of interest produced by the investment, has caused investors to seek a different class of securities which will increase their income, and at the same time offer an equal guarantee for safety. The is no greater security than municipal bonds, to prove which it is only than municipal ponds, to prove the circumstance that necessary to revert to the circumstance that necessary to the circumstance tha ity is felt in the obligation, and a personal pridetaken in carrying out in good faith the agreements which they represent. The West is being developed more rapidly than any other A fact worth remembering—Five cents worth of "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders," interest must necessarily be paid, which point, together with the absolute security of the obligations, is inducing Eastern Capitalists to turn their attention in this direction. The Wheat crop of the world is briefly summarized as follows by the London "Spectator:"—

Suddenly, on the 20th inst., at Dartmouth, Richard Smith, aged 26 years.

The aggregate reports from the wheat producing countries indicate that corn will be dear the coming year, but not extravagantly so. The home crop is good, but from 10 to 15 per cent-under average; the crop in South Russia and Hungary is very poor, and the crop in Ger-many is not good.
