Mercantile Summary.

A CHART has been published in Montreal by Mr. Thomas McNabb, of that city. It shows very clearly at a glance the fluctuations in the prices of produce of all kinds during the year, and must be both interesting and valuable to business men.

IN OUR Fire Record will be noticed the accounts of two recent conflagrations—one at Mitchell, the other at Milbrook. The frequency of these occurrences lately—in some instances involving heavy losses to creditors from insufficient insurance—should, before stocks are enlarged for commencing the spring trade, cause wholesale merchants to use every influence to counteract the parsimonious policy, too commonly adopted, of keeping the item of insurance premiums at a dangerous minimum, to the great peril of their interests.

AT THE annual meeting of the Kingston Board of trade a number of matters relating to the interests of the city were discussed. In reference to manufactures it was suggested that "application might be made to the Legislature for power to assist such enterprizes by giving permanency
