

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS on the twenty-fourth day of March, now last past, we thought fit to prorogue our Provincial Parliament to Wednesday, the eleventh day of May, now instant, at which time, at our town of Kingston, you were held and constrained to appear: Now Know Ye, that for divers causes and considerations, and taking into consideration the ease and convenience of our loving Subjects, we have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Executive Council, to relieve you and each of you, of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking, and by these Presents enjoining you and each of you, that on Saturday, the eighteenth day of June, now next ensuing, you meet us in our Provincial Parliament, at our town of Kingston, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of our said Province of Canada, and therein to do as may seem necessary.—Herein fail not.

In testimony whereof, we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed:

Witness our right trusty and well-beloved Sir Charles Bagot, G. C. B. one of our most Honourable Privy Council, Governor-General of British North America, and Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief in and over our Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Island of Prince Edward, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

At Kingston, the sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and in the fifth year of our reign.

By Command,
Felix Fortier,

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

Proclamation convening Parliament at the town of Kingston, on the eighth day of September.

To our well-beloved and faithful, the Legislative Councillors of the Province of Canada, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, elected to serve in the Legislative Assembly of our said Province, summoned and called to a meeting of the Provincial Parliament of our said Province, at our town of Kingston, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of July, now instant, to have been commenced and held, and to every of you—

Greeting:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the meeting of our Provincial Parliament stands prorogued to the twenty-seventh day of July, instant, nevertheless, for certain causes and considerations, we have thought fit further to prorogue the same to Thursday, the eighth day of September next, so that you nor any of you, on the said twenty-seventh day of July, instant, at our town of Kingston, to appear are to be held or constrained, for we do will that you and each of you be as to us in this matter entirely exonerated; commanding, and by the tenor of these Presents enjoining you and every of you, and all others in this behalf interested, that on Thursday, the said eighth day of September next, at our town of Kingston, aforesaid, personally you be and appear, for the Despatch of Business, to treat, do, act and conclude, upon those things which in our said Provincial Parliament, by the Common Council of our said Province, may by the favour of God be ordained.

In testimony whereof, we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province of Canada to be hereunto affixed:

Witness our right trusty and well-beloved the Right Honourable Sir Charles Bagot, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, one of our Most Honourable Privy Council, Governor-General of British North America, and Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief in and over our Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Island of Prince Edward, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

At our Castle of St. Lewis, in our city of Quebec, in our said Province, this eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and in the sixth year of our reign.
