Musical Heckey Match

The married men and single men of the 15th band played a return match from 10 to 11 last night which resulted in a tie. Considerable rivalry existed and both sides worked hard. Ten minutes over-time was played, during which the single men scored one goal by kind permission of the married men's goal keeper. Davis, the condemned, still at the same time don is shown in Mr. F. # Bitten By a Horse

An accident which might have proved more serious occurred to Mr. Fred McKee, when the horse to which Mr. Harford Ashley and Mr. Neil he was attending, suddenly turned on neck. The cut is within an inch of the jugular vein, and might; easily have been very serious indeed. As it was, Mr. McKee was for a short time unable to realize what had occurred to him, so unexpected was the attack .-Hestings Star.
