RESIGNATION OF THE MINISTRY.

ELMA AND WALLACE AGRICULTU-RAL EXEIBITION.

Elliot made the largest display. SWINE, hoth large and small breeds, were on ex-hibition in larger numbers than at any previous Fair. The want of a more ex-tended prize list is very apparent in this department. To confine the various breeds of swine to two classes, "large" and "small" is not apt to produce the marked results which should be the aim of the Society. Some good Berkshire stock was shown by P. McBain of Minto; the "Cardiff Giant" was afine specimen; he is breed from Bow Park stock. In large breeds the Chester Whites took our fancy; if there is any beauty in a pig, the Chesters are fairly entitled to the distinction. The exhibit of POLTRY hundred other ornamental devices which "surpass man's understanding." were "shibited in elegance and profusion. A glance at the prize list will reveal the hannes of the successful prize takers. A beautiful case of millinery from the estab-lishment of D.McFarlane & Co., attracted general admiration. The display would indicated that the millinery form the estab-lishment are acredit to any show room; it of the "Emporium" was managed with excellent taste. There was fair display of home-made and factory cloths, flamels, hose, cargets, etc. The Fine Arts are evidently not yet fully developed within the jurisdiction of the Elma & Wallace Agr! Society, or else there would have been a larger display in this important branch of the exhibition. In the musi-exhibitor. He showed two organs and a legastment, B. B. Sarvis was the only exhibitor.
