ONONDAGA COUNCIL
Onondaga, Aug. 5.—A full council met in the town hall at 2.30 p.m. A by-law was passed to borrow money from the Bank of British North America for current expenses, also one fixing rates to be levied for the different funds, the county asking for over $1400 more than last year will make the county rate considerably higher than last year, but to offset that the township is asking for less, so that the general tax, outside the school regulations, will only be a 1-2 mill higher than last year. The school rate, with the exception of U. S. No. 7, will be less, so on the whole the taxes will only be a trifle higher than last year excepting S. S. No. 7.
On account of the dog tax being double that of last year, it is quite possible that next year there will be less dogs in the township.
The Reeve issued his order on the treasurer for the following accounts, for over $1400 more than last year will make the county rate considerably higher than last year, but to offset that the township is asking for less, so that the general tax, outside the school regulations, will only be a 1-2 mill higher than last year. The school rate, with the exception of U. S. No. 7, will be less, so on the whole the taxes will only be a trifle higher than last year excepting S. S. No. 7.
At the close of session, the council motored up to inspect Malen's bridge, which was reported ready for traffic.
The council will meet at call of Reeve. The next regular meeting will be in Middleport on Oct. 7th.

ONONDAGA COUNCIL
Onondaga, Aug. 5.—A full council met in the town hall at 2.30 p.m. A by-law was passed to borrow money from the Bank of British North America for current expenses, also one fixing rates to be levied for the different funds, the county asking for over $1400 more than last year will make the county rate considerably higher than last year, but to offset that the township is asking for less, so that the general tax, outside the school regulations, will only be a 1-2 mill higher than last year. The school rate, with the exception of U. S. No. 7, will be less, so on the whole the taxes will only be a trifle higher than last year excepting S. S. No. 7.
On account of the dog tax being double that of last year, it is quite possible that next year there will be less dogs in the township.
The Reeve issued his order on the treasurer for the following accounts, for over $1400 more than last year will make the county rate considerably higher than last year, but to offset that the township is asking for less, so that the general tax, outside the school regulations, will only be a 1-2 mill higher than last year. The school rate, with the exception of U. S. No. 7, will be less, so on the whole the taxes will only be a trifle higher than last year excepting S. S. No. 7.
At the close of session, the council motored up to inspect Malen's bridge, which was reported ready for traffic.
The council will meet at call of Reeve. The next regular meeting will be in Middleport on Oct. 7th.
