Everybody Welcome

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the Special Mission in the Methodist Church beginning Sunday morning, November 11th.
 Evangelist John E. Brown of New York, who has been attracting such large crowds at the First Methodist Church, Hamilton, will speak Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. F.
 R. Hendershot of Carlisle will preach Sunday evening and the Carlisle choir will have charge of the music.

The Milton District has been divided into groups for evangelistic purposes, and Freelon, Carlisle and Waterdown constitute one group with Waterdown as the centre, at which the services will be held.

On account of the Anniversary Supper and Entertainment in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening no service will be held, but beginning with Tuesday evening November 13th, for two weeks, there will be services each evening. Evangelist Brown preaching. Everybody is cordially invited to these services.

Methodist Choir Entertained

On Friday evening, November 2, the Methodist choir, which attended in goodly numbers, were entertained at the home of Mrs. Lillie Robson.
 Choir practice and a short business meeting conducted by the President was the program during the early evening. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and other amusements, after which refreshments were served, and it is needless to say all did themselves ample justice. After moving a vote of thanks to their hostess for such an enjoyable evening, the jolly crowd wended their way homeward.

It is just half-past eight

The dinner dishes are washed, the children are in bed, and Mrs. ———— has settled down to a night's darning.

A hundred miles away, in the Hotel, Jim ———— has finished dinner, written the day's report and looked over the local paper. Time hangs heavy till, happy thought, he remembers Long Distance.

"Hello Mary! How are the children? How are you?"

Just three minutes at home, and yet it makes all the difference. The hotel seems brighter. And Mary ———— well, the holes in the socks don't seem quite so large.
 Just the effect of a voice you love to hear.

Keep the home ties strong, the Long Distance way

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station

Thomas McGillicuddy

Who will be heard at Knox Church Monday evening, November 12th.

Fowl Supper and Entertainment

A Fowl Supper and Entertainment in connection with the Anniversary of Knox church will be held in the church on Monday evening, November 12th. The entertainment will be provided by Mr. Thos. McGillicuddy of Toronto assisted by local talent. Mr. McGillicuddy is Canada's foremost humorous lecturer and will be heard in his leading number "A Bagful of Folks." Supper will be served from 6 to 8.

Oliver Carson

The funeral of Oliver Carson, eldest son of Jas. Carson, whose death occurred at Calgary on October 27th took place last Saturday from the residence of his uncle, Patrick Carson, Main street, to Waterdown cemetery. Rev. Mr. Jones of Knox church conducted the services at the home and grave. The pallbearers were W. H. Purdie, Irvin Galbraith A. C. McGuire, Bertram Hamilton, Wm. Carson and Albert Wilson.

Locals

Geo. Copp, Geo. Potts and a number of others left last week on their annual hunting trip.

The Carlisle choir will furnish special music at the Waterdown Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. G. H. Greene, who has been spending the past three weeks in Dundas, returned home last Monday.

Mr. Geo. Allison left Wednesday for Hamilton where he will spend the winter with his son, Dr. Geo. F.
 Allison.

A foot specialist from Chicago specially trained in Dr. Scholl's method of foot comfort, will demonstrate at Eager's store on Friday, November 30th.

On account of the evening service in the Methodist church, the Devotional Committee of the Ladies' Bible Class will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Foster.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday, Nov.
 14th, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Reid.
 Members are reminded of the Rest Fund collection which will be taken at this meeting.

Carlisle

Preparations are already under way for the Christmas Entertainment at Carlisle church. The date has not been definitely set, but will probably be December 20th or 21st. Miss Stella Cairns, Miss Edna Eaton, Mrs John Alderson and Miss Mildred McCartney are on the programme committee. They are planning to have the finest programme ever presented to a Carlisle audience.

Apple picking has been in full swing lately and is not quite finished yet.

The hunters from this section were not long in securing their deer this year. Among the lucky ones from Carlisle were Mr. Wm. Livingstone and his son Stan.

The Young Peoples' League had a good attendance at their meeting Tuesday evening. The Willing Workers' class presented the programme. A paper on "Martha and Mary" was read by Miss Rilla Bennett, and another one on "Where do you go for your good times?" by Miss Mildred McCartney. Miss Grace Gingerich recited, while a delightful violin duet was rendered by Misses Rilla Bennett and Alta Bogle.

Next Tuesday evening the League Council will have charge and among interesting features will be an illustrated talk on New York City by Mr Hendershot. On November 27th a debate will be put on between Lowville and Carlisle on "Resolved that love of money leads to more crime than poverty." The Lowville folk will come to Carlisle and an interesting time is expected.

Next Sunday evening our Choir goes to Waterdown for the service.
 This being the first Sunday of the special services at Waterdown under the direction of Evangelist Brown of New York. Carlisle and Freelon Circuits are expected to cooperate in these services.

The Carlisle Choir is travelling these days—Boston last Sunday and Waterdown next Sunday evening.
 Strabane and Kilbride Presbyterian churches have arranged for them within the next few weeks. Mr.
 Herb. Bennett and his splendid organization deserve credit for their faithful service and willingness to help out everywhere.

On Monday evening the officials of the Kilbride and Carlisle churches had a social meeting in the church basement. The wives were there also, and by all accounts a very good time was had by all.

The Township Council met in the Community Hall on Monday afternoon and transacted Township business.

On Friday evening, November 9th a meeting of the local Sunday School Board of Management and the Township S. S. Executive will be held in Carlisle church to arrange the details of the coming Convention which will be held at Carlisle about Nov. 30th.

Since the visit of many of our folks to Boston last week, and since the long cool evenings have arrived, it is confidently expected that wedding bells will be merrily ringing before long.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star and the Waterdown Review both papers one year for $2.25.
