Death of Mrs. Stephen King

Death has once more visited Athens and called away a highly respected resident—Mrs. Stephen King. Deceased had always been in robust health until last December when she was stricken down with the Flu, from which she never recovered.

Deceased was born in Somerset, England and came to Canada at the age of 18. A few years later, she was married to Stephen King of Athens, in which vicinity she has always resided.

The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at the family residence at 1.30 and was largely attended. Rev. S. F. Newton conducted a short and appropriate service.

The pallbearers chosen by the deceased a few days ago were—James Gordon, Jas. M. Wing, Percy Alford, Lucas Tackaberry, Mort. Tackaberry and Mort. Topping.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone, both near and far, who were exceptionally kind and good, during the long illness, and in our sad bereavement.
