TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

We have just put in, at great expense, a WONDERFUL MACHINE, heated by steam, for only passing through the rollers once: the result—WORK IS EASIER, WITH NOT BREAKING, and will last much longer than when heated by the old method, heated by gas, which has to pass through the rollers eight times.

P.S.—We have also added a newly invented machine to iron the edges of Collars and Cuffs.

Duty Before Pleasure.

Hostess (to new curate)—We seem to be talking of nothing but horses, Mr. Soothem. Are you much of a sportsman? Curate—Really, Lady Betty, I don't think I ought to say that I am. I used to collect butterflies, but I have given up even that now.

TO KNOCK OUT COLDS.

And cure them in an hour without resorting to nauseous drugs just use fragrant, healing Catarrhose—the most pleasant, prompt and certain cure for colds ever discovered. No medicine to take, you simply inhale the balsamic vapor of Catarrhose. It never fails to root out the cold and is so simple and convenient to use that no one can afford to be without it. Carry a Catarrhose inhaler in your pocket, use it occasionally and you won't have colds. Complete outfit $1.00; trial size 25c.

The Crucial Moment.

One of the favorite maxims of General Grant and one certainly in accord with human nature was that in every closely contested battle there comes a time when both sides are exhausted. When this condition arises, he said, the army that first breaks the dull and puts itself in motion is likely to win. A blow then is worth a dozen previous ones.

HE LEARNED A GREAT TRUTH.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by All Druggists.

Here's Too Heavily.

"This won't go for only one stamp," said the village postmaster to old Uncle Kiah as the latter handed him a bulky and much sealed missive.

"Whuf for? What's de maddah wid dat?"

"Too heavy," replied the postmaster, laughing it on his hand.

"Unph! I telled dat boy so when he was a-writin' of it. I telled him he was writin' too heavy a han', but he kep' on a-bearin' down an' a-bearin' down on de pen, lak a load o' hay. I'll take it back, sah, an' mek him write wid a pencil. I ain't gwine spen' no mo' 2 centses jes' fer his pigheadedness."

SICK AT YOUR STOMACH.

Perhaps feeling as if the bottom had dropped out of your life. It's Nervine you want. Nothing restores quiet and order to the stomach so quickly. All squeamishness and nausea goes away the minute you take Nervine and an extra dose or two is always sufficient to set you up in first-class shape. Nervine is an old tested remedy for stomach and bowel troubles and always can be relied on. Sold in large 25c. bottles.

Not the Landlord's Fault.

A travelling man found a hair in his order of honey at a Muscatoh hotel and complained to the landlord about it. "I can't help it," the landlord replied. "I bought it for combed honey."

RAN A NAIL THROUGH HIS HAND.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by All Druggists.

It is much less for a man's honor to distrust his friends than he is deceived by them.

Stanstead Junction, P. Q., August 12th, 1893.

Gentlemen,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a load car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. In ten days was nearly well. I can sincerely recommend it as the best Liniment that I know of in use.

Yours truly,

C. H. GORDON.

CONFIDENCE UNDER WATER.

How This First Essential in Swimming May Be Acquired.

A person who is timid about the water can overcome the greatest part of the difficulty of learning to swim by the proper use of a wash basin.

The obstacle that nervous persons meet in the water is not the conscious fear of drowning, but an involuntary nervous shock that causes them to gasp for air even before their faces are under water. It is this gasping for breath that drowns people.

They cannot control the gasping, and consequently they often snap for breath when their mouths are under water. As the buoyancy of a human body is easily disturbed, a few pints or quarts of water swallowed in these involuntary gasping acts serve to sink a person who otherwise would float long enough for help to arrive.

Now, if a person afflicted with this involuntary fear of getting under water will thrust the whole face gently into an ordinary basin full of water every day and stay there as long as possible it will be only a short time before the gasping sensation begins to disappear.

Then the bathtub should be used, so that the bather, lying full length, can immerse the entire head. At first this will bring back all the old frightening sensations of suffocation, but the attacks will be of short duration, and within a few days it will be found that the total immersion can be maintained for almost a full minute without discomfort of any kind.

Once a person has learned how perfectly comfortable one can be under water the first great step has been taken toward learning to swim.

Many otherwise good swimmers have never really acquired this calmness under water. The result is that when such a swimmer is caught in an undertow or a swirling current his confidence leaves him as soon as he feels himself dragged under the surface. Instead of diving or remaining motionless and so preserving his breath he gasps involuntarily and naturally swallows water, and the choking sensation at once forces him to exhale what breath he has left and gasp again.

Confidence under water should be the first lesson in swimming.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

There is a type of man who doesn't know he's a fool. He is always a fool. This is finally said of every secret: "I don't see how in the world it ever got out."

You sometimes hear people say they do not hear gossip. It's a fib. We all hear gossip.

If you discover something important for yourself the doctors say they knew it all the time.

It is hard to get a good washer-woman but then it is mighty hard to wash for a living.

If you do not label your good will in your intercourse with some people they accuse you of being disagreeable.

Give a boy a toy, and the first night he takes it to bed with him, and the second night he leaves it on the stairs so that some one falls over it.

Famous Physician's Diplomacy.

Some Philadelphia physicians recently were playfully discussing the diplomacy to be employed with young mothers.

"When I am called to a house where is a baby whose sex I do not know," said one, "I am always embarrassed as to how to speak of it. A mother always feels better if you ask her, 'How is the little girl?' or 'How is the little boy?' as the case may be, as she usually takes pride in the sex of the child, whichever it is."

One of the most famous physicians in the world remarked: "I never have any trouble in that regard. I make it a rule to call all babies whose sex is unknown to me 'Francis.' The mother doesn't know whether I spell it with an 'f' or an 'e'."

A Legal Antiquity.

The feeling upon the subject of oaths among the earlier colonists of Maryland is shown by the following extract from a petition of assemblymen of the province, addressed to the lord proprietary in 1649 and "signed by all the members present":

"We do further humbly request your lordship that hereafter such things as your lordship may desire of us may be done with as little swearing as conveniently may be, experience teaching us that a great occasion is given to much perjury when swearing becometh common."

Quick Turn.

"Did you ever make any money on the board of trade?"

"Yes, I made $175 there one day in less than twenty minutes."

"Whew! What did you do with it?"

"Oh, they got it back before I had a chance to see it."

Another Fool Question Asked.

"That policeman at the second crossing is a misplaced humorist."

"What makes you think so?"

"I asked him today if he wore gloves on Sunday. He said no; he wore 'em on his hands."

Rather.

"Would you permit your daughter to marry a titled rone?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle.

"I don't know," replied the hostess.

"Do the Roceys belong to a very old family?"—Exchange.

Money is never safe in a safe to which an unsafe person has the combination.

Strained His Back While Lifting

Was in a Bad Way Till He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

They Removed the Bad Effects and Now William Sharam is as well as Ever Again.

Murray Harbor South, P. E. I., October 3.—(Special).—Hurt through straining his back while lifting Mr. William Sharam, general storekeeper here, got so weak that he could scarcely hold up. To-day he is enjoying the best of health once more and when asked how he got his health back he unhesitatingly answers, "Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Having sprained my back with heavy lifting," Mr. Sharam says in telling his story, "it brought on Urinary and Kidney Trouble. I got so weak that I almost fainted and could scarcely hold up. I was terribly troubled with having to get out of bed so frequently to urinate."

"After using many medicines with no good results, I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have used ten boxes in all and now I can sleep without being disturbed and my old trouble has vanished."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidneys. Cured Kidneys cure numerous diseases, including Rheumatism, Dropsy and Bright's Disease.

Parting Shot.

"No," said Miss Thirteenth, "I could not think of marrying you. Everybody knows you are a confirmed rake."

"Oh, well," rejoined the reckless man, "it's about time you were making hay if you ever intend to." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.
