Obituary.

The death occurred on Tuesday, Oct. 11, of Mrs. W. H. Sharp of Hartland after a long illness. Age, sixty-seven years and seven months. She is survived by her husband three sons and two daughters and many relatives. She peacefully passed away in the arms of her Saviour.

Dear mother you have left this earth, We'll see your face no more; Your sickness, sorrows pains and death Are felt and feared no more.

You've gone to be with Christ above, He whom you loved the best, He's taken you to that world of love Forever there to rest.

How many dear ones that have gone, To that bright world of rest, You've gone to help them sing the song Of the everlasting best.

How many times you've played for us, How many tears you've shed, That we may in the Saviour trust And by His Word be led.

How many hardships you went through, To bring us up this far, How many restless nights you knew Our many ills to bear.

Dear mother, now you've past away, We'll hear you pray no more, We hope to meet you some sweet day On the blessed shiny shore.

How many times we heard you speak In the old church below, Inviting sinners Christ to seek And God's Dear Son to know.

Oh may we all prepare to go And there together be, 'Tis there we shall each other know Through all eternity.

W. H. SHARP.
