Mrs. Cassie Rogers of Bristol, who for the last few weeks has been visiting Mrs. Richard Lamont of West Glassville and Mrs. John K. Glass of Windsor, is now visiting Mrs. Harry Lipsett of Hartland. Her many friends were glad to see her after an absence of two years in Auburn, Me.
Halloween parties were a feature of last evening. Miss Anna Carpenter entertained a number at a pleasant masquerade and Miss Anna Kingston entertained her Sunday-school class. More complete reports of these will be given in next week's issue when the names of the costumed and their representations will be given.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Annett were in Hartland yesterday and were preparing to remove to the home of Mrs. Annett's parents at Chester. Mr. Annett had just returned from the Royal Victoria Hospital at Montreal, where he had consulted the best specialist, who, his friends will regret to learn, gave him very little encouragement for immediate recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Annett have many friends here, who will be sorry indeed that they are to remove from the town.

QUIGLEY O'REGAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Assumption on Monday evening, when Miss Mary Lillian, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Regan, was united in marriage to Mr. George Thomas Quigley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Quigley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Albert, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, looked very charming in her bridal gown of white silk flat crepe, with trimming of accordion pleated frills. She wore a veil and wreath and carried a beautiful bouquet of pale pink roses. Her sister, Miss Louise O'Regan, was bridesmaid, wearing a pretty and becoming dress of pink crepe de chine, with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Michael McCluskey acted as groomsmen. Little Miss Mary O'Regan, sister of the bride, made a very sweet little train bearer, in a dainty dress of white satin. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and a buffet lunch was served. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received, including a substantial cheque from James Burgess & Sons, with which company both bride and groom have been employed. Mr. and Mrs. Quigley left by C. N. R. for a trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities. On their return, they will reside here. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Peter Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of Carleton, Me., Mr. and Mrs. Everett McCluskey, of Limestone, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gillespie of Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hanson, New Denmark.

Among the many town people present were Mrs. J. P. Kelly, Mrs. John Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Meagher Costigan, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Guilmet, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rideout, Mrs. Jesse Estabrooks, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. D. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Elder Kirkpatrick, Mrs. F. W. Olmstead, Mrs. Felix Charrette, Mrs. Herbert Felt, Mrs. John McCann, Mrs. Allyn Burgess, Mrs. J. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hanson, Mrs. M. C. Bertelson, Miss Annie Fraser, Miss Gladys Warnock, Mrs. John Henniger, Mrs. W. B. MacLaren, Miss Church, Miss Bessie Fraser, Miss Lulu Watson, Mrs. C. J. McCluskey, Mrs. George Lepp, Miss Mary McCluskey, Mrs. Archibald Willet, Miss Gladys Henniger, Mrs. B. A. Puddington, Miss Ella McCluskey, Miss Helen Hallett, and many others.
