Congratulations are to be given to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carroll on a happy domestic event. A bouncing girl.

Mr. Hazen Lyons has trapped a very large bear this season.

Mr. E. Lyons had a canoe on his lip. It was out out by Dr. Doctor Irving of Boiestown. The patient is doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. M. Story got his house burnt one day last week and most of his furniture was destroyed. It caught fire from the stovepipe.

A very heavy shower of rain fell here on Thursday. It was needed very badly for the grain and crops. The trees are dressed once more in their robes of green.

BOIESTOWN.

Boiestown, May 26.—The heavy rains of Saturday and today have swollen the river considerably and as a result the drives are coming along rapidly. The running drive of the main South West is passing here today and the twitching drive is close in the rear. All the lumber was brought along in one drive to Hayes' bar.

The condition of Mr. William Richards health is not very much improved and today he went to Fredericton to interview an American Medical Specialist on his case, who, on account of pressure of business was unable to come here to see him. We trust Mr. Richards may be much benefitted by his trip to Fredericton, and hope for his speedy recovery to his usual health.

Empire Day was fittingly observed in the school here, on Friday last. The day was spent in lessons on the history and geography of the Empire, and in the rendering of appropriate readings and recitations conducive to instilling more patriotism into the minds of the young and rising generation.

Today is being observed as Victoria day and the Union Jack is flying over the school.

The farmers are getting along nicely with the spring's seeding. Vegetation is very backward for the time of year on account of the very cold weather during the season.

Mr. Sandy Fairley, who had his spine broken in the Minnesota lumber woods last February, arrived home about two weeks ago. He came the whole distance on a stretcher and speaks very highly of the care and attention shown him on the trip.

Mr. Fairley's many friends are glad to see him in such good spirits, and all look forward to his partial recovery at least from his very serious accident.

Fred W. McCloskey is home from McGill University for the summer holidays. All are glad to learn that Fred carried off a prize and many honors on the completion of his sophomore year in the applied Science Faculty of that institution.

Messrs. Timothy Lynch and Michael Welsh have been in the village for the past few days and are in good spirits over the progress of the drive since the rise of water.

The marriage of Mr. J. Woodcock and Miss Minnie Palmer of the Portage were united in hymen's holy bonds on Wednesday last. Rev. M. R. Knight tying the nuptial knot. They will reside for the present at Asie's Crossing.

Our popular young tailor, Mr. William McDonald, is enjoying a well earned holiday with friends in Fredericton and Marysville.

Rev. J. J. McLaughlin of Chatham, and Rev. H. Meahan of Moncton, are in town.

Events.

BATHURST, May 21.—The death of Mr. Charles Meahan, occurred very suddenly on Monday morning. Deceased was 78 years of age and was highly respected.

The funeral took place this morning at nine o'clock, from his late residence, Water street, to the church of the Sacred Heart and was attended by a large number of citizens and relatives.

Mass was celebrated by the Rev. H. A. Meahan, of Moncton, nephew of deceased. The Right Rev. Bishop Barry, and the Rev. Father McLaughlin occupied seats in the sanctuary.

The services at the grave were performed by Father Meahan, assisted by Fathers McLaughlin and Martin. Deceased was born at Otago county Tyrone. Seven children, Mrs. John Barnes, of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Fred L. Hall and Miss Kate Meahan, of Winthrop Beach, Mass.; the Misses Laura and Martina Meahan, of Bathurst; Mr. Joseph J. Meahan, Bathurst, and Mr. Frank Meahan, of Lynn, Mass., survive. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Richard Branch,

P. G. Mahoney of Melrose, visited Janeville on Tuesday.

SAD SUICIDE AT MONCTON.

At Moncton Saturday evening a young man, 20 or 22 years of age, arrived at the Hotel Minto, registered as R. S. Little, Halifax, and was assigned to room 51. He did not come down to breakfast or dinner, and as no response could be got, the bell boy opened the door and found him lying dead on the bed, with a gaping hole in the wound at the base of the brain. A note on the table contained the address, R. S. Little, son of Thomas Little, 87 Cunard street, Halifax, and lying beside the body was a 42 Remington revolver, with one shell empty.

Written on the back of the Remington music concert programme in the vest pocket was the following note: "My special trouble from which I can never get free is the cause of this deed. The deceased was the son of Mr. Thomas Little, head of the retail dry goods house of Thomas Little & Son, Barrington street, Halifax, and the body will be sent home for interment. Mr. Little had been employed in the Royal Bank at Sackville and was to go to Charlottetown as teller.

PLEASED THE CROWD.

Whitney's Minstrels Played to a full House at the Academy

Whitney's San Francisco Minstrels played at the Academy of Music last night to a large audience. The aggregation includes many good performers and among the best are John Goss, Arthur Crawford and the Higgins Bros., each of whom imitable in his way. The grand medley opening was good and in the olio many novelties were introduced. Master Joe Shannon, the expert club juggler, kept the audience in a state of difficult feats, and Coel, the wonderful manipulator of knives, canes, hats, balls and lamps was loudly applauded. Crawford and Finning and the Higgins are also two good teams who furnished much amusement and entertainment.—Halifax Herald.
