H. A. match at their own rink, Jackson street, on Friday evening with Niagara Falls. The rink is closed duil ghis mild epell, so as to ensure having a first-class sheet of ice for the game. The Crescents will have a good team, having such men as McEachera, Fox, Rupy Watson, Telford and Steep in their ranks, and a red-hat game may be looked for, as the Falls team is one of the best in the series. The Junior Crescents have defaulted their first game to Niagara Falls, which was to have been played at the Falls. They are not in good shape yet, but will be in the game for their match here on the 14th.

WITHHELD THE AVERAGES.

The reason that the Western and Eastern Baseball League averages have not been published is that the Presidents of those organizations desired to keep the figures away from the National League in order to prevent the big league from drafting players. Now that the drafting time is past the figures will be published.

ST. LOUIS CLUB SOLD.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 5.—The St. Louis baseball team has been sold to John T. Brush, President of the Indianapolis Baseball Club, and others. Formal transfer of the club was made to Mr. Brush to-day. It is said that Messra. A. G. Spaulding, C. C. Spink and A. C. Anson are among those interested with Mr. Brush in the purchase of the Browns.

BURNS IN DEMAND.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 5.—Cloudy weather, track fast and fair attendance yesterday. Three favorites landed the money and the talent fared much better than it has lately. J.A. Grey breezed home in the handicap with top weight.

John Hugglus, trainer for the Lorillard-Beresford stable, who has been in this city for several days, offered $10,000 to Tommy Burns, the crack Canadian lightweight jockey, to ride his horses in England next season. The offer was made through Starter Chris Fitzgerald. Burns, who is under contract to ride for John W. Schorr, of Memphis, the coming season, declines to leave this country. He says he desires to shine in the east, and will probably ride on the New York tracks late in the summer.

RACING DAYS REDUCED HALF.

RACING DAYS REDUCED HALF.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 5.—At a meeting of turf representatives from Cincinnati, Newport, Covington and Louisville yesterday dates were arranged for the spring race meetings of 1898. The aggregate of racing days is reduced almost one half from last season. A uniform admission of 50 cents was agreed upon. The free list is to be entirely sone away with. Heretofore, at Latonia and Oakley, the price was $1, Newport first reducing the price hereabout. Lexington had no representative present, although the management there had been repeatedly notified of the coming conference. The dates assigned to-day were: Newport, April 9th to May 3rd, 21 days; Louisville, May 4th to May 20th, 15 days; Oakley, May 21st to June 7th, 15 days; Latonia, June 9th to July 9th, 27 days.

SEAWANHAKA CUP RACE.

Montreal, Jan. 4.—It is understood that the purpose for which Mr. E. Leroy Dresser, of the Seawanhaka Yacht Club, came to Montreal from New York, has been attained. He had a long conference with Mr. Duggan, and talks with other members of the Salling Committee of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, and it is semi-officially stated that the arrangements made about some troublesome details for next year's races are perfectly satisfactory. The arrangement in detail containing all the amendments to last year's rules that have been made will be published as soon as both clubs have sanctioned them. This will be done, it is expected, within the next week. One of the principal things that has been settled is that the weight of the crews shall in no case exceed 60°C pounds in future. It appears that when the change of crew took place on the Momo during the very stormy day of last year's races the three men from the United States weighed over that.

EFFECTS OF THE EXERCISE.

Now that the skating season is in full blast local physicians are in receipt of many queries regarding the effects of the sport on the racer. It has been diaimed that racing on the ice is responsible for heart disease. The medical men as a rule question whether such competition is more detrimental to a man's constitution than any other racing.

Arthur B. Swezey, the old champion ice skater of New York, has written an open letter, in which he says:

It is upivil a well known fact that heart trouble is responsible for my retirement from the skating field. Many causes have produced this, nervous disposition, which is increased before and during competition. I have actually stood on the scratch line waiting for the pistol with my testic chattering and my knees shaking, simply through pure nervousness. All this has a very bad effect on the leart. Again the lungs are highly developed aid take a great deal of strength from the heart. One awith poor "winal" is very seldom affected with heart trouble. More than half of the athletes of my acquaintance admit that they have this weakness in some form. The constant herrousness, hard exercise and competition gradually wear our it and the organ becomes enlarged.

Jack Daly and Jack Everhardt are likely to meet again, this time at New York.

Frank Garrard and Jack Hanley, both well known in Toronto, will box at roimes in Chicago on Saturday night.

Jack Daly, the lightweight, who gave Everhardt a beating a short time ago, is out with a challenge for Lavigne at 135 pounds or McFarland and Matthews at 140 pounds.

Jeffries, the California heavy weight, who is to meet Sharkey in San Francisco this week, is extremely confident of beating the former marine. He is training under the guidance of Billy Delaney. Sharkey is a strong favorite in the betting.

Jim Popp will box Downey, of Brooklyn, before the Olympic Club in Buffalo on January 17th, if both men are fit on that date.

Judges and Reporters.

Judges and Reporters.

The difficulty of dealing with newspaper reports of nauseous divorce cases has been solved in a very simple manner in England. The President of the court requests the reporters to withdraw and they do so, no one caring to make himself or. his paper unpleasantly conspicuous by asserting his right to rémain. In connection with this arrangement, some interesting correspondence has just passed between the President of the court and the press. Lord Jeune wrote:

wrote:
"I wish to express my acknowledgments to the gentlemen of the press for their withdrawal from the court at my request yesterday during the hearing of a particular cause. They may be quite sure that I never have made and never shall make such a request except on very rare occasions, when in my judgment a distinct and serious injustice to public morality would result from the publication of proceedings."

suit from the publication of proceedings."

The members of the press in reply, expressed their confidence in Judge Jeune's discretion, and so everything was as it should be, and everybody satisfied without any fuss—an example of English institutions at their best.

made, when the officers had to throw their man down, and hold him for a moment.

King street was crowded with people at the time, and it did not take long for a curious crowd of hundreds to collect about the officers and their prisoner. At the corner of Yongo street P. C. Redfern took a hand in the game, and the sight of the miform seemed to overawe the captive somewhat, and for the remainder of the distance-to headquarters he moved more quietly.

At the station he gave the name of Gervonia Gifrino, aged 19 years, and was held at the order of the Niagara Falls, N. Y., authorities on a charge of attempted murder.

Last evening First Scrgeant Miller, of the Niagara Falls, N. Y., police force, arrived in the city to take charge of the prisoner. The latter, however, refuses to waive extradition and will have to be brought up in the Police Court this morning.

In conversation with a reporter Sergeant Miller gave an account of the alleged crime. Gifrino was at allow Italian resort kept by. Nick Sandro, with a womat named Jennetta Pamellio, who, he claims, is his wife, when a drunken quarrel occurred, and it is affeged that Gifrino
