> SOCIAL AT THE MILL ROAD.—The pie Road, last week, was an unqualified success, and one of the most pleasant and enjoyable events of the season. Notwithstanding the unpleasant night, the school house was crowded to its utmost capacity with young and old; and the table on the platform held no less than forty pies-a goodly sight which spoke volumes for the efficiency of the committee who had it in hand, viz.: Mrs. Wm. Weston, Mrs. Arch. McAllister. Miss M. McKeague and Messrs. Arch. McAllister and Arch. McKeague. Mr. Abner Belyea acted as chairman and kept excellent order. The following programme was successfully carried out:

Chorus-"True hearted, whole hearted. citation-"Whipping a boy," by Arthur Belyea.

Trio—"The Widow's Plea," by Bessie
Law, Minnie Osborne, Bessie Dingee.
Recitation—"The death bridge of the Tay, by Miss M. Cambridge. o-"Just tell them that you saw me by Mabel Hamilton.

Mrs. H. C. Weston.

Danish song -"Home sweet home," Rev. N. C. Hansen. citation-"In the dark," by Harry McAllister.

At the end of the programme, Mr. Barnett stepped up on the platform and began to auction the pies, Wm. Hamilton acting as secretary and John McAllister treasurer. The pies were all marked and sold by numbers, but as some very tempting pies went at moderate prices, and the next ones looking no better or prettier leading factories of the world.
