LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Bears are making ravages among the sheep in Prince County.

The Examiner says "there was a snow storm on Saturday night," but omits to say where.

The Supreme Court met yesterday and adjourned for one week, to allow the County Court to hold its sittings.

LARGE numbers of horse and potato buyers are on the island at present and extensive shipments are being made.

Mr. J. D. C. SMITH, representing P.
O'Mullin & Co., of Halifax, is visiting the Province in the interest of the firm.

CAPT. HICKEY, of the firm of Hickey & Stewart, left yesterday for Kentucky, to purchase a stock of tobacco leaf.

The Patriot is booming a Street Railway for Charlottetown. The Patriot's advocacy is sufficient to condemn any measure.

MISS E. J. HODGSON, Q. C., and L. H. DAVIES, Q. C., are in Ottawa attending to cases before the Supreme Court of Canada.

A FIRE was discovered on Saturday evening last on the second floor of Capt.
D. McKinnon's store, Summerside, but was extinguished without damage.

An elderly man, named O'Neill, fell over one of the wharves on Monday last, but escaped with further damage than a thorough wetting.

The Herald desires to add its congratulations with those of their many friends, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanley, a notice of whose marriage appears in another column.

LAST week the Summerside Customs and Excise offices were removed to the new Dominion Building, and yesterday the Post office was removed to the same quarters.

We tender our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. McAllister upon the happy event recorded in another column. May their passage through life be as happy as we wish it to be.

The hull, cargo and rigging of the barque Katie Stuart, stranded at Belle Creek, were sold at auction yesterday.

Mr. John D. McMillan, of that place, was the purchaser for $2,180.

A REPORT of an influential political meeting at Summerside, which was largely in favor of Mr. Owen, the Government Candidate, was unfortunately received too late for insertion to-day.

MR. JAMES A. McMILLAN, of Albert Plains, recently sold to Mr. Ruffey, of Bridgetown, N. S., a magnificent Royal Hairy stallion, six years old, weighing 1350 lbs., with a record of 250.

THE S. S. Wanderer arrived from Boston this morning with the following passengers: Misses Beattie Jenkins, Mary McQuarrie, Ellen Kennedy, Mrs.
Kennedy, Philip Kennedy, and A. B.
McNeill.

MR. THOMAS M. HENDERSON, son of Thomas Henderson, Esq., of this city, having completed his course at the Commercial College, and passed a highly creditable examination, has received his College diploma.

REVEREND MARRIAGE, the Rev. John McKinnon, who shot and wounded his sister, Mrs. Howard Percy, some weeks ago, has been committed for trial at the next term of the Supreme Court, on a charge of shooting with intent to do grievous bodily injury.

MR. DONALD McKINNON, of the firm of McKinnon & Reimer, of Souris, Sask., was seized with an apoplexy yesterday in a barber shop in that village on Saturday last, and died on Sunday. Mr.
McKinnon was a native of Charlottetown Royalty, and was about forty years of age.

GEORGE GONFREV, Boston's colored pugilist, who hails from the classic region of Charlottetown known as the "West End," and is a graduate of the late Capt. William Rivers, has been engaged to teach the students of Harvard University the science of boxing during the coming winter.

A BARK in Summerside, owned by Angus McMillan, Esq., with all its contents, consisting of a wagon, two sleighs, a hay rake and other articles, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. Mr. McMillan's residence had a narrow escape. Originals of the fire insurance $400.

The steamer Marquette sailed for Boston last Friday with a general cargo and following passengers: Mr. J. Reid, Mrs. Lepage, Misses Easton, E. Mc-Farlane, E. Lepage, Kichham, Costello, M. A. McLean, McNeill, McGregor, E.
Murphy, K. Matheson, K. Rogers, Lily Collings, Minnie Gallagher, Messrs.
William Foley, J. Reid, Geo. Herring.

The Examiner says: "Of better of excellent quality were caught in some of the rivers of the eastern section of the island last week. Souris river was swarming with them, some of the nets not taking four and five hundred of a night. Codfish are reported plentiful off the coast, and many of the fishermen are now laying in a supply for home use for the winter."

will be issued from all Stations to Charlottetown on 8th and 9th November, good to return up to and on November 12th, 1886, to parties attending Bazaar. Persons availing themselves of these reduced fares will be furnished, on application, with certificates of attendance by the Secretary of the Bazaar Committee, for presentation to Conductors on return up.

At the examinations last week for the George Munro exhibitions and bursaries did nobly. Messrs. George McLeod, of Eldon, and F. J. Stewart, of Charlottetown, took senior exhibitions.
Messrs. H. J. McCallum, of Brackley Point, F. J. McLeod, of Charlottetown Royalty, and G. W. Schurman, took junior exhibitions. These exhibitions are tenable for two years, and worth $200 a year. Besides capturing one-half the prizes, the Islanders headed the list in both senior and junior exhibitions.
