A Story of Franklin.

When Franklin was in Paris, mong the infidels and scoffers of theday, he was ridiculed for loving the B blc. $500 For "Brains."

The unique suit of Gallagher vs. Horne, recently concluded at Vanouver, B. C., has been followed with great interest. Horne is wealthy citizen of Vancouver, with political aspiration. He made over tures to W. H. Gallagher, editor of the Vancouver Telegram. Gallagher was to supply "the brains" and ne was to supply the money. Horne's pocket paper cost him some $10,000 hafore it collapsed, but he was elected to the provincial assembly. Gallagher then put in a bill for $1600. for writing all Horne's election speeches, hearing him recite them, and coaching him in committee work. Horne refused to settle and Gallagher sued him. The jury, after a trial of three days, awarded Gallagher $500 for the "brain power" supplied to Horne.

Newfoundland Politics.

A cable from St. Johns says : A proclamation prorogues the legissture to June 7th, but does not call it to meet for the despatch of business even then. Why Was It that Ayer's Sarsaparilla, out of the greanumber of similar preparations manufactured throughout the world, was the only medicine of the kind admitted at the World's Fair, Chicago? And why was it that, in spite of the united efforts of the manufacturers of other preparations, decision of the World's Fair Directors upot reversed?

BECAUSE

According to Rule 15-"Article that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition," and, therefore— Because Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, and not a secret preparation.
