Ballonist Loops The Loop

In a Storm at Sea
Looping the loop in a kite was the hair-raising feat performed some time since by a young ballonist when the government was in the use of captive balloons on ships doing convoy work, according to a story in the December 1st Mechanics Magazine. The ballonist in question had been aloft in a basket several hours despite rough weather when a 40-mile-per-hour wind struck the fleet. Instantly the bag made a spinning nose dive, and the ballonist, clinging to the basket, occupied a complete circle. No sooner had one loop completed than another followed—15 in all.

Parcel Post for Mld. Expeditionary Forces!

The attention of the public is drawn to the very urgent necessity of strictly observing the regulations published by this Department from time to time concerning the despatch of parcels to members of the Expeditionary Forces and the following particulars should be strictly observed:

- (1) Parcels must not exceed eleven pounds.
- (2) Parcels should be addressed with the Regimental number, rank, name and surname of addressee, followed by the last known address of the Unit with which the individual was serving; for example:

No. 0978 Cpl. John J. Kent,
2nd Battalion
The Royal Newfoundland Regt.,
Hazeley Down Camp,
Winchester,
Hant's Camp,
England.

- (3) Parcels should bear the name and address of a second addressee to whom the parcel may be delivered or forwarded, if it should prove impossible to deliver to the first. The Original address should be written on the FRONT of the parcel where the postage stamps and customs declaration are affixed, and the second or alternative address should be written on the BACK of the parcel.
- (4) If second address is not furnished at the time of posting and delivery cannot be effected, the contents of the parcel, unless of exceptional value or of a personal nature, will be turned over to the Military Authorities for distribution.

- (5) Parcels containing articles of personal nature or of special value will be returned if request for their return, in case of non-delivery, is made by the sender, such request to be written on the cover of the parcel at the time of posting.
- (6) The procedure outlined in (4) and (5) is adopted at the suggestion of the British Post Office, to prevent the waste of a large quantity of perishable food stuffs which form the contents of 90 per cent. of parcels sent to soldiers.
- (7) Parcels should be packed securely.
- (8) Attention is drawn to the Notice concerning Christmas parcels recently published by the Postmaster General. All Christmas mail for B. E. F. should be posted in time to arrive at the Pay and Record Office, London, not later than the end of November.

J. R. BENNETT,
Minister of Militia.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

PARIS, Nov. 20.

The city of Versailles is preparing to receive the delegates to the Peace Conference. The deliberations are expected to be held in the Grand Trianon, a part of the Chateau of Versailles once occupied by Marie Antoinette.

NEW GERMAN MINISTER.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 20.
Hugo Preuss has been appointed Secretary of the Interior in the German Cabinet, according to an official telegram from Berlin. The post of Secretary of the Interior in the new People's Cabinet of Germany was assumed when the cabinet was formed, by Friedrich Ebert, the Premier.

CANADA REPRESENTED

LONDON, Nov. 20.
(via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—Dominion and Indian representatives present at the ceremony at Westminster Palace yesterday (when Parliament presented an address to the King and His Majesty made a reply to both Houses and the Overseas representatives) included Sir Robert Borden, Sir George Foster and Sir Edward Kemp, all of Canada.

HONORS FOR BELGIUM.

PARIS, Nov. 20.
(Official).—The French Government has decided to confer the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor on Queen Elizabeth of Belgium; and Prince Leopold, heir apparent to the throne of Belgium, will be awarded the War Cross and the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor.

TURKISH CAPTIVES HORRORS.

LONDON, Nov. 20.
A "white paper" on the treatment of British prisoners in Turkey issued to-day, says that of 15,583 prisoners taken by the Turks, 3,290 are reported to be dead, while no trace can be found of 3,227 others, and it is believed they have perished. These latter prisoners were all captured at Kut-el-Amara, so it is certain they passed living into Turkish hands, but no word has been heard from them. The Kut-el-Amara prisoners were forced to march across the desert to Asia Minor without food or medical attention, as a result, the White paper says, "parts of the men were lying exhausted under any shelter they could find, in all stages of dysentery and starvation, some dying, some dead; half clothed and without boots, having sold everything to buy a little milk."

NEW EXPRESS RATES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.
The U. S. Railway Administration has issued an order, effective Jan. 1st, increasing the rates on express packages by 16 cents and 17 cents on first and second-class shipments in the Eastern States, and 12 cents elsewhere. This will raise about 24 million dollars additional revenue, about half of which will be distributed among the employees in higher wages.

MORE GERMAN HONOUR.

LONDON, Nov. 21.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—In the House of Commons, Chancellor Bonar Law announced that the following message had been sent to the German Government, and to Field Marshal Haig, for communication to German Headquarters: "Information has reached His Majesty's Government of shirking and lack of organization in the release of British prisoners in Germany, and their being forced to return marching aloft, miserably clothed, without food, transport, escort or guide to the Allied lines, with the result that lamentable suffering and heavy mortality has ensued. His Majesty's Government cannot tolerate the continuance of this cruel treatment (loud cheers) and must insist that adequate arrangements be made in all the above respects by the German authorities, with whom the responsibility for such lies. Otherwise we shall be compelled to take this into account in any question of the revictualing of Germany, or in satisfying the requirements of the German people, by forwarding food, clothing and transport to prisoners' camps, where they are not otherwise forthcoming, and we are addressing Allied Commanders in this sense now. Field Marshal Haig has also been instructed to forward in the most expeditious way, food, clothing and means of conveyance for the use of our prisoners in Germany, and our Allies are being asked to co-operate in this." (Cheers).

DON'T WANT THEM.

LONDON, Nov. 21.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—In reply to questions in the House of Commons, Chancellor Bonar Law said that it was impossible to decide the question of the return of the Germans to parts of the British Empire whence they had been deported.

NOT BRITON'S WAY.

LONDON, Nov. 21.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—General Rawlinson, in an Order of the Day dated Nov. 11, says: "The Fourth Army is ordered to participate

DID NOT INTEND GOING SHORT.
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 20.
According to Berlin advices, enormous stores of foodstuffs were found in the Castle of the former German Emperor, in Berlin. A member of the Soldiers' Workmen Councils is authority for the statement that there is great variety of foodstuffs found.

DUTCH DISARMING GERMANS.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 20.
A continuous procession of German troops is passing through Limburg, homeward bound, according to the Handelsblad. At least, 150,000 will cross the border near Roosteren, where they will be disarmed by the Dutch. Good order is prevailing by direction of the officers.

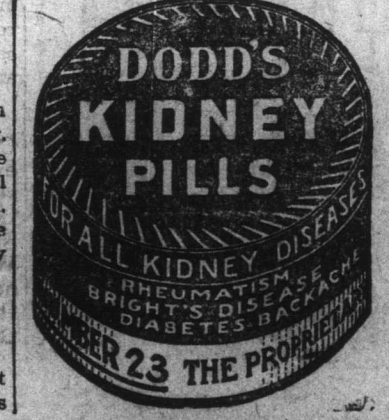

SOLDIERS' WIVES MAY CROSS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.
Announcement was made to-day that the British Consul General in this city has been directed by the Foreign Office in London to remove the restrictions in existence, since April, 1917, preventing women who are British subjects from crossing the ocean to Great Britain. This did not apply—it was explained—to women who desired to visit Great Britain for sight-seeing purposes, but only to those desiring to see their families abroad.

PROFITTEERING.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 21.
A captain's agreement, headed "Guarantees and Agreements for the Control of the Fish Business," and signed by 133 out of 136 captains of schooners, which land fish at this port, was produced by Federal Attorneys to-day.

at the trial of 41 wholesale fish dealers, charged with violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act. Government Attorneys presented evidence that the New England Fish Exchange adopted a set of rules ten days ago, which limited trading on the Exchange to wholesale dealers. Maurice P. Shaw, an officer of the Exchange, testified that shares in the business which were sold ten years ago for $100 per share, were recently bought in by the Exchange for $2,150 to $3,500 each.

AT CADIZ.—Messrs. Job Bros & Co. Ltd., have received word that the Madeline Constance has arrived at Cadiz, all well.

S.S. SEAL.—No further anxiety need be felt concerning the steamer Seal, a message to Messrs. Baine, Johnston & Co. having been received this morning, advising that the ship has left St. Anthony, coming south.

The newest fur coats are rather short and distinctly piquant. For silk waists georgette continues the favorite material.

An excellent camp stew consists of a ham bone, a little bacon or dried beef cut fine, diced potatoes and carrots and beans all cooked over a slow fire for several hours.
