

Produce and Provisions.

(From Saturday's Trade Review.) week have not been large. Shore fish $38 to $50.00. has found a ready market at current prices. Labrador arrivals have been at not less than $8.25 per quintal. The markets amount to 8,700 quintals.

lower prices before there can be any supervene, there are sufficient stocks barrel. improvement in the demand. Several here no doubt to supply the local of our largest handlers will not pay trade. Local prices are: - Choice over $180.00 per tun on the spot for Boneless $32.00, Special Family $38.00, Common Oil. Advices from New York Family $34.00, and Choice Plate $25. this week do not justify the payment of this figure.

all the buyers in the foreign market from New York by letters to Exporters here show they have, during Ocand in some cases even lower. This and Chemical Market" in its October ditions says:-"The same weakness named figure for spot goods is $55.00 barrels. a barrel for both Norwegian and Newfoundland. However it is intimated that better than this can be tend that on behalf of themselves and done for the latter type. For ship- the public generally, the Food Control

St. John's this week was only 100 may know when to expect cheaper ation of the dullness of the provision market. when to purchase. Latest American information speaks of marked inactivity, stocks being the Trade, we believe, but it would moderate and very little interest look better if the Board would take land. shown in this particular line. Prices the public into their confidence and of Hogs continue very firm. The fall- give out the figures officially so that ing off in the movement of Hogs re- we would all know where we stand. ported during the week and of the Some of the papers say that there is general slaughter is expected to mean sufficient controlled sugar here to last

For the Piano-

and all fine Furniture

THE care of a costly instrument involves the use of a polish so dependable as to be absolutely "above repeach".

The fact that O-Cedar Polish is used for piano polishing in preference to all other preparations, by thousands of women, is as strong a recommendation as you could have for its use on less costly articles of furniture and on woodwork.

ind on woodwork.

It is preferred in most homes, because it cleans as it polishes, producing a high, dry, lasting lustre and bringing out the beauty of stocks of product at the principal exhausted till June." points. Ham Butt in the local market is $56.00, while lower quality may be

CHANNELL CHEMICAL CO., LIMITED, TORONTO

BEEF .- The imports for this week small, and altogether buyers have not totalled 568 barrels. Market conbeen over anxious to stock up large tinues very strong at last week's priquantities of fish. The few arrivals ces. Not much trade in Beef here the referred to have all been disposed of past week, and the dullness in local shipments for the week to foreign Beef and Pork in any quality. If the usual local demand for outport re-

FLOUR .- Stocks are getting low in CODLIVER OIL.—There is nothing considerable shipments arriving such lower, the reduction in shipping facilities I was asked to accept a "retainer," to ing in Codliver Oil. It looks as if as would be coming in other years at disorganization in shipping facilities I was asked to accept a "retainer," to Europe due to the labor unrest, which is the fee always payable in adit looks as if we will see still lower for the season, and latest reports prices by the end of the year. The 100%. "Kings" are selling in the St. and Wheat has been secured in splentober, made big sales at $1.00 a gailon did condition. There are over one million bushes on the way to Minneis the price quoted here. "The Drug apolis to help out the quality of United States Spring Wheat Flours, as issue, commenting on market con their Wheat does not compare in than any time since the war. The it is utterly false. quality with that of the Canadian prevades the Codliver Oil stituation. North West. We quote highest grade been gathered this season on the Am- Labrador Boundary matter are so have to be made to bring the library approval of the slavery rule that now Demand when it should be heavy, is of Manitoba Patents at $17.00 on the erican Continent, and it should great- mixed with payments made to me in of the department up-to-date. Why, of threatens us. light, and dealers are shading prices spot and $16.00 to arrive shortly. Im- ly reduce the price of Pork next year November last, on account of the Com- course! I sold 150 volumes. About to induce buying. The best openly ports this week amounted to 2240 as it is the staple food of a large per-

SUGAR.-Importers of sugar comments from Norway, $45.00 is named." Board should make public the total PORK .- The importation of Pork to quantity on hand, so that the people sugar and the imp

These figures can be procured by further decrease in the available till March; others say "it will not b

We think it is due to the public to CODFISH .- Arrivals during the had for $53.00. Other qualities from date when we may expect to get cheap to you that he "did not ask Mr. Mo-

POTATOES.-Home grown potatoes are very plentiful in the local market barrel. Store prices are $4.00 a bar- real distinction. The point is that it circles discourages importation of rel and 15 to 16 cents a gallon. New-COD OIL.—There is no improve- quirements takes place, it will be cellent. P.E.I. stocks will not be in then. ment in the foreign markets, and it necessary to make considerable larg- till about a month hence. The price looks as if we are going to see still er imports. If this demand does not will be $4.00 to $5.00 per 180 pounds, > APPLES .- The "Gravenstein" seaconcerned. The next quality in order small shipments of which have althe local market, and there are no ready arrived. Prices are somewhat amount thereof, and when I was considerable shipments arriving such lower, the reduction being caused by be paid. It is true, however, Apple export to England in October reports from Manitoba are excellent John's markets at $8.50 to $9.00 per > > month. Corn is selling now cheaper greatest corn crop ever known has centage of the hogs.

Notes From Brigus.

Mr. T. E. Mitchell and J. T. Mack left for Harbor Grace to spend the week-end on Saturday last.

Schooner Clarence B., owned by Mr. C. A. Jerrett and commanded by Mr. Stephen J. Kennedy, of Conception Harbor, arrived home on Tuesday

Mr. C. A. Jerrett and J. W. Hiscock, arrived from the Labrador by Friday morning's train. Mr. Hiscock left by the Seal for St. John's the same even-

The S.S. Seal arrived from Labrador ports on Friday afternoon to land a few crews including Capt. William Bartlett, Jr., also Mr. Thomas Roberts, one of Coaker's Fish Inspectors.

Mr Danial Quinlan and Miss Elizabeth Morrissey were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony on Thursday evening at 7.30 by the Rev. Dr. J. J. Murphy, P.P. Mr. Quinlan has purchased the house formerly occupied by Mr. James Power, the last of the true born Irishmen of this harbor, as their future residence. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan many years of weded happiness.

Mr. Robert Bartlett, carpenter, who spent the past couple of months erecting a bank at St. George's, returned home on Thursday evening.

Schooner Springwood, owned by J. W. Hiscock and commanded by Mr. Patrick Driscoll, another of Conception Harbor's fine mariners arrived of about a week.

Mr. J. French and Mr. H. M. Hearn arrived from Heart's Content on a ALIQUIS. Brigus, Oct. 29th, 1920.

Dark Tan Laced Boots with rub-Fall Boot, for $13.50 at SMALL-

Mr. Morine's Reply to "Advocate."

day's number, and will, I hope, also publish the appended reply to certain letter, but as the Advocate is no prompt in publication, and the public memory is short. I shall be obliged if ou will publish the inclosed. Yours truly.

ALFRED B. MORINE.

To the Editor of the Advocate. Wednesday not appearing in the Adocate on Thursday, and no mention being made of it therein, I very nat urally concluded that you would no publish it, and naturally also ressed chagrin at what seemed to gross unfairness. But you have published my letter, though after unfair delay, and for so much I thank you, and withdraw any words of mine which were unjustifiable.

I thank you, too, for your attempt to justify your editorial remarks on Tuesday last, for I take it for granted you will publish this further reply, and it gives me still another our tunity to state the real truth.

As to the Labrador Boundary, you be enlightened as to the probable quote the Hon. Mr. Coaker as saying rine, but only suggested, that he should accept a retainer from the Government." Well, Sir, Mr. Coaker's "suggestions" are very valuable, and just now, and are going from farmers in this case resulted in me being reto householders as low as $3.50 per tained by Premier Lloyd. I see no was Mr. Coaker who first mooted to foundland has had the best crop for me my appointment by the Governmany years and the quality is ex- ment, for which I thank him, as I did

But you say, Sir, on the authority of Mr. Caoker, I presume, that "the retainer Mr. Morine was to get was to draw the amount until the work son is over as far as Importers are was performed." If this were true, it would indicate that Mr. Coaker did of consumption is "Kings," a few not merely suggest "that I should accept a retainer," but arranged was arranged at the time I was ap-Privy Council, and that I should wait price for good work. 41 cents per bushel during the past to be paid until all the work was lone, > mercial Cable case, as to create the fifty more of later date are needed for impression that His Excellency the this series. Then there will be hun-Governor made some objection to the fee paid to me in the Labrador mat- And they are needed very much ter. This is not true.

It has always appeared to me that in law books for that office. Might l discussions between the Governor suggest that Mr. Coaker needs a law and any of his Ministers in relation library in his own department. But to public affairs are in their very na- if he had one, and competent advisers, ture confidential, and the manuer in I would not be The stork has been visiting this town which the name of Governor Harris as nowadays, and as I hope to be. very frequent of late. This time it has has been drawn into discussions by left a son to Mr. and Mrs. D. G. But- some of his present Ministers is positively amazing to me. I refrain, therefore, from replying to your remarks about the Governor in this Opposition Should connection, except to remark that you can know nothing of the Governor's conduct except by statements he has evening after a passage of about 31/2 made to his Ministers, and they have improperly repeated to you my bargain was perfectly clear.

The Lloyd Government was defeatand upon his joint responsibility.

ple would consider themselves of people, and I may say that I would there are thousands in this country

Ladies! There's a reason why you should see the wonderful line of Coats we are offering for $18.75:

COATS!

Because these Coats are worth half as much more. They are well cut, well made, therefore sure to fit good: that's the reason why you should see them before looking elsewhere. The price is $18.75.

OUR REGULAR STOCK OF LADIES' & CHILDREN'S COATS IS AT ITS BEST.

A carefully selected line, embracing all the fashionable and most popular winter weight fabrics. Every Coat is cut on lines which guarantee a good fit.

Dollar for Dollar, your money cannot buy better Coats at the prices.

S. MILLEY.

think it a very unlucky year nowa- who regret that they ever placed these sed, if inferior product, have filled up fluctuations in the Wheat market, and which has reduced the normal rate of vance, and in fact, the exact amount days when, if not in public office, I men in power. All over the country trip of the courier. could not earn that amount or more. dissatisfaction is rampant, and the pointed. It is so manifestly assurd I must admit that I am amazed at people want an opportunity to show that I should name an exact sum to Mr. Coaker's narrow views in this con-cover services that might spread over nection, for I've never regarded him Coaker rule. But we must have a It appears to me, however, that the years, and perhaps take me to the as too small in spirit to pay a good way of showing it, and that can be Philatelists could easily come as

> Your reference on Saturday to this stand that a further expenditure will chance they will soon show their disdreds more needed of still later date About $5,000 could be profitably spent profitably employed

> > Yours truly. ALFRED B. MORINE.

Nov. 1, 1920 Get Busy.

Editor Evening Telegram.

ed in May, 1919, and any payments mitting themselves to become slaves? than the confusion existing in our made to me prior to that date on ac- Day by day the autocratic rule of W. outports when the Daylight Bill is very moment pretending to settle the count of the Commercial Cable case F. Coaker is being forced upon us, enforced, and only obeyed by half were known to Mr. Coaker, I presume, and we seem to bow our heads in complete submission. Has the spirit of Judgment for the Government was our forefathers entirely disappeared, given in February, 1919, and an appeal and has the manliness and independ- from Salvage. Since September no made to the Privy Council. In Nov. ence of the past become completely 1919, payments were made on ac-obliterated? Where are our leaders, are about to leave. Some are merely counts of the action and the appeal, or have we any man in the country going away for the winter, while and on the 17th of May, 1920, final strong enough to arouse the people to others are bidding adieu for aye, to judgment for the Government was a sense of decency and respect, Never the old scenes. Happily but few ingiven in the Privy Council. The pro- was a strong man more needed than ceedings have not yet been conclud- at the present moment. W. F. Coaker ed, and extend, therefore, over a per- is playing the role of the impudent iod longer than two years, while autocrat shamelessly. His partner the amount the Commercial Cable in the game, Premier Squires, is gone Company will have to pay this year a-hiding and glows Coaker to run the and are endeavouring to get their will total $230,000, in addition to show, knowing that he has brass which claims against other cable in his make up to attempt anything, and the consequent seas make the companies were involved in this. Mr. Warren has also taken a back On the 18th of May, 1918, I said seat, acting the part of the cute small the following in a letter to a member man. Men who were supposed to be of the Lloyd Government: "I have vigorous champions of the independ-based the retainer on 1% . Will ence of the people in the Opposition If so, I shall be obliged for a cheque age or do they think that silence is forthwith, according to the usual the part that the people of this counpractice." In reply, I received a try expect them to play? Where is Only six miles away, but the genial later I wrote, "as the amount now at Why does he not get busy and show issue proves to be $308,000, I shall the stuff he is made of? Surely he later ask that the retainer be increas- and Sir M. P. Cashin and Sir J. C. here on Thursday evening after a run ed." This was agreed to. I quote Crosbie are not going to allow the from the correspondence to show that people to be treated as slaves without making an attempt to arouse the Commenting upon the fact that I old fire of manliness to take control received about $12,000 for legal work in this country again. If these men given to me by the Lloyd Government, are dead politically, then let them tell the Advocate says "a great many people would consider themselves very We can then make a move to secure tacky if they could get so much in four others, who will not be inactive at a or five years." I should think them time like this when matters are so serlucky, too, the kind of people the Advocate has in mind, but the Colony which paid them would certainly be and that it is no use to do anything very unlucky. I am not of that kind now, but it must be borne in mind that done only by public meetings organiz-As to the law reports I sold to the ed and conducted by the men who are ety, as the postage and revenue that I merely say on this point that Government in 1919, for the Justice looked upon as leaders in the Opposi-Department, you say you under- tion ranks. If the people are given a an intermittent outline of part of its

> Yours truly DEMOCRAT.

Salvage Notes.

Mr. J. R. Courage was here a few days ago soliciting orders for imported beef (fresh). We are informed that he did a brisk business, although considering that the meat talking of the regulations, was it the will cost in the vicinity of 30 cents per pound, landed, we see nothing enticing in the way of bargains about the transaction.

We also had a visit from a journeyman watch repairer, but if we have to depend on such scantily outfitted Dear Sir. to the people of this workmen for reliable chronometers, if confederation became a live quescountry realize that they are per we are doomed to something worse

> Many families are disappearing less than seven families have left or tend leaving Newfoundland as yet,

The unsettled weather has been big setback to the fall's work. Most of the people have their potatoes up, cruising finished, but the daily gales still have our school left, in which we task an almost impossible one.

Twice during October the "Watch- in His service. We want you children ful" has been unable to call-going to think of us, and send us a small you kindly ascertain if this meets Party are as dumb as it is possible to sea running. On the first occasion, thankful. If you cannot help us this with the Government's approval . . be. Why is this? Have they lost courthe mail was landed at Happy Advanced will venture, Tuesday night, but we did prayer's. Any donation received wi cheque for my retainer. Two weeks our young champion, W. J. Higgins? Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, was so interested in his leader's district. that he disregarded the desire of the Oct. 28, 1920 sub-body under the Historical Social stamps of any country give more than history. Newfoundland being no ex ception. Be that as it may the for mation of such a society will, un doubtedly induce many to become stamp collectors, and thus keeper patriots.

We are glad to note that the Regulations are still getting logical knockouts from the People's Paper. The cries of the Star and Advocate are course as per usual. "All is gold that glitters of Coakerism." The Star wa not always so generous-but bygon are bygones for the present-ar results of the same, so manifest the city and country, that induced a American visitor to St. John's to re mark to one of our clergy, that the tide of sentiment in the city in business circles, was confederation?

Labrador Boundary Question between Newfoundland and Canada. Laughable, indeed! but not more so that others of Squires' doings.

Salvage, October, 26, 1920.

An Appeal.

To The C. of E. Children, Newfound Dear Children .- On behalf of children of Bay Bull's Arm. Trinit Bay, I will ask your help. On June 1s Church and some of our homes, but w hold Divine Service. We, the children are at present working to obtain money o purchase a small organ to be use donation. However small we shall be to acknowledged. On behalf of the Children, I am yours in anticipation. A. B. M. Ryan, C. of E. Teacher, Bay Bull's Arm., T.B.

attacks About six W

Jockeys

ich takes P our and th mnanied hers, herald The scene of blic square lace. Here a off for the ead over th c are admitted e square, and ourse is surro ses for the lling to pay i Every distric ented by a jod lem, amongst kes his steed strict, and bo As soon as t e jockeys reti mble our own s are withou ding being the d race thre are. Every te his whip fr

Directly the out he is seize and embrace lges to recei ich is an elal This he b deposits in his Wee appearance. A taste for mi s is often ha is afraid to If a girl uses About the on apt to m

Late