The Christmas Quarterly.

The Christmas number of the Newfoundland Quarterly magazine, an annual copy of which we have received through courtesy of the publisher, Mr. John J. Evans, is an extremely attractive and well illustrated issue, containing many interesting and seasonal articles from writers of note. A. A. Parsons, J.P., makes two contributions, "Our New Government" and "The Valley of the Humber." The photographs of Sir William and Lady Humber adorn the front page, and the Humber article is profusely illustrated.

trated, an inset photo of the author adding greatly to the general make-up. A topical article on Placer Gold is peculiarly appropriate. The "Fighting Newfoundlanders" occupies a prominent place, and in connection therewith are cuts of Bowring Park and the Bungalow. Capt. Leo Murphy, J.P., contributes a well written article on the change in Britain's leaders. An excellent photo of Miss P. Florence Miller of Topsail, with a brief biographical sketch of this talented young lady, and her latest effort under the inspiration of the muse, occupies page 25. Other readable articles in prose and poetry go toward the make up of one of the best issues of the Quarterly that it has been our pleasure to possess.

Christmas Party at Feild Hall.

BREAK-UP FOR HOLIDAYS.

A very pleasant affair took place last night at Feild Hall when the management and boarders held their annual Christmas party before the departure of the latter for the holidays. The dining-room was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Colley and her staff, and the tables loaded with good things presented a most attractive appearance. The warden, Rev. H. L. Pike, L.Th., presided, and the guests of the evening were His Lordship the Bishop, Rev. Canon Bolt, M.A., D.C.L., W. W. Blackall, B.A., D.C.L., Superintendent of Education, and Brian Dunfield, Esq., B.A., Hon. Secretary-Treasurer to the Board. After the meal had been thoroughly enjoyed the following toast list was gone through:

THE KING.
THE DIRECTORS—Prop., the Warden; Resp., the Bishop.
FLOREAT DOMUS—Prop., Rev. Warden.
OUR SISTER INSTITUTIONS—Prop., L. Colley, Esq.; Resp., Brian Dunfield, Esq.
THE OLD BOYS—Prop., R. Anderson, (Capt.); Resp., Mr. Mercer.
THE NORMAL SCHOOL BOYS—Prop., R. Hepditch; Resp., J. Thoms.
THE STAFF—Prop., C. Carter; Resp., Mrs. Colley.

All the speakers from the Directorate referred in high terms to the general tone and management of the institution, which does the greatest credit to the Warden's efforts and is unsurpassed in this country; while the appearance of the boys and the remarks of those of them who spoke were the best testimonial to the work of Mrs. F. Colley in providing for the comfort and happiness of the inmates of what has been described by one of the city medical men as "the cleanest house in town."

A particularly pleasant finish was given the festivities when the boys unexpectedly presented Mrs. Colley with a charming and tasteful Christmas gift in token of esteem and affection, in acknowledgment of which she made the speech of the evening. In brief, it was evident to the eye of a visitor that those boys who come back after the Christmas holidays will feel that they are returning to a second home, while those who do not return will always look back with pleasure upon the happy days spent at Feild Hall.

City Council

DID NOT REFUSE OUTDOOR RINK.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—In last evening's issue of your paper there appeared a news item headed "Council refuses to permit open air rink"; this statement, I may say, is not quite correct. The Council gave Mr. Miller, the party mentioned in your item, permission to use a portion of Bannerman Park for the purpose of a rink, site for which was to be selected by the City Engineer and use of water, etc., to be under his supervision. No protests whatever have been made by the residents of Circular Road or vicinity, and the order of the Council has not in any way been rescinded. Asking that you be good enough to insert this explanation, I am,
Yours very truly,
J. J. MAHONEY,
City Clerk.

Dec. 15, 1922.

The above letter shows that the City Council approve of the open air rink in Bannerman Park, but through a misunderstanding on the part of the person who started it, much unnecessary comment has been made. Unfortunately the communication was handed in too late to change the tenor of the article which appears in our editorial column to-day.—Editor.)

Forty-Three Years in the Public Service--The Evening Telegram

Salvage Notes.

Another bunch of our men have left for the industrial concerns of the U.S.A. On Sunday, Dec. 3rd, Messrs. Thomas Oldford, Fred Stead, Cater Stead, Samuel Brown, Aubrey Brown—all of Bishop's Harbour, left by way of Alexander Bay for Boston and neighbouring cities. Inasmuch as Mr. Oldford was Clergy Warden and a member of the School Board, his absence will be felt in many ways. As far as we can gather no one else intends moving this fall, but talk is rife of the spring's doing—three months' fishing being unable to support a family for twelve months.

On Monday night, Dec. 4th, the C.E.W.A. held their annual sale of work. The weather gods were very propitious. The vendors provided by the sisters were up to the usual outport standard of perfection. Much of the goods was delightfully displayed on an early Christmas tree and shrouded to much advantage. The dance that followed the sale was not the least enjoyable part to the younger section of the community. The proceeds were up to the ladies' expectation, but in our humble opinion they were far below the possible outcome for such a number of church people as we have.

The marriage of Miss Martha, daughter of Mr. Allan Brown, to Mr. Eli Moss, both of Bishop's Harbour, was duly solemnized in St. Stephen's church on Wednesday, Dec. 6th. The bride was tastefully arrayed. After the ceremony a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of the groom. To Mr. and Mrs. Moss we extend our heartfelt wishes for a happy and mutually pleasant voyage over the matrimonial sea.

We are very pleased to see Mrs. Hancock, of late years a resident of Salvage Bay, spending a few days in her old home.

Messrs. Reginald Brown and Andrew Oldford who were at St. John's trying to dispose of their fish, arrived home to-day by S.S. Malakoff. The schooner will not be here for a few days yet; possibly the owners will moor her in St. John's.

Mr. Charles Lane, who has been working at Grand Falls since last March, arrived home a few days ago to spend the winter months with his family.—COR.
