

THIS ORIGINAL DOCUMENT IS IN VERY POOR CONDITION

of the Dying
London, Ontario N6L 1P7

The excitement which has been created by the arrival of the Queen in our city has been manifested in every way, and the people have been most anxious to see the Queen.

They have been watching her in every corner of the city.

People have been waiting for hours at a time to get a glimpse of her.

They have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the street window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have

been watching

her from the

carriage window,

and have

been watching

her from the

boat window,

and have

been watching

her from the

airplane window,

and have

been watching

her from the

train window,

and have