CALGARY IN BRIEF
 Dr. Weston Upton has removed his office to Suite 25 Edge Block, First St.
 W., corner of Third Street Ave.

C. B. Foster, general passenger agent of the C.P.R., with headquarters at Winnipeg, is in the city on official business.

D. W. E. Sparks, office morning, performs an operation on C. Mc-Allister, the realty broker, for appendicitis.

Lucy Chney, Chinese, was yesterday fined $10 and costs in police court on conviction of having served tainted meat in his cafe.

The funeral of the late J. H. Leach will take place Sunday at 1:30 p.m., from Graham & Thompson's undertaking parlor, under the auspices of the Calgary Typographical Union. All members of the union are requested to attend.

Norman S. Rankin, head of the publicity bureau of the C.P.R. department of natural resources, is in Calgary in connection with the convention of the Western Canada Irrigation association in that city during August.

John Smith and William Spears, accused of riding on C.P.R. freight trains without leave or restriction, were yesterday sentenced by Inspector Duffus to serve 14 days with hard labor.

Twenty thousand dollars was awarded Henry W. Lees as compensation from the city of Calgary for injuries sustained in the street on the incident on the westend line on September 4, 1912. Lees entered suit for $25,000.

Harry Noon, manager of the Langston hotel, which was destroyed by fire yesterday, arrived in the city this evening.
 The hotel was owned by H. Sturges and Charles Garrett. Mr. Noon says the hotel will be rebuilt at once.

A. J. McNeil, former Indian agent, and a Calgary old-timer, was yesterday reported to be progressing favorably at the Holy Cross hospital, where he has been taken Thursday afternoon after suffering a fatal attack on Ninth Ave. in this city. The structure will be built on the site where the Royal hotel now stands.

Young & Kennedy now have on display in their windows some of the special trophies being offered at the horse show.
 The trophies are donations from Count de Charman, Count de Edinburg, Thomas and Henry Dubern. Reserved seats for the show are also on sale there.

The International Students' association met in the new Garbutt Business College, corner of Fourth street west and Eighth avenue, Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock. G. S. Kendall, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will speak tomorrow. Subject:
 "Must We Abandon Hope of a Golden Age?"

The Fortnightly Educational Club of the Y.M.C.A. Boys' Department had an other successful supper last night when Mr. John A. Irvine gave an interesting talk on Nova Scotia and the surrounding country. The talk was illustrated by some splendid pictures taken by Mr.
 Irvine. John Watson, president of the club, gave an exhibition of playing the blindfold.

"Written" examinations for pupils of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music in the public library on Wednesday evening next at 8:30 p.m.
 The dates for the "Practicals" will be held as per time table sent last night in the Mason & Risch building. Teachers with 10 or more pupils wishing the examiner to come to their study restaurant it by notifying the hon. representative on duty.

"The greatest use of public school property for the good of the public" will be the subject for discussion at tomorrow's meeting of the Forum at 8 p.m. in the Unity Hall at 3 p.m. W. T. D. Lathwell, who has written the subject, has attracted attention of late, will deliver the opening address, and will be followed by those interested in the subject. Reports of what has been done in other cities will be given and a general discussion will be participated in.

An item published about a month ago to the effect that E. W. Beckett, crown timber agent at New Westminster, had received applications for husband's rights from Ottawa, has caused such a deluge of corresponding male applicants that there will necessarily be a few winners disappointed as there are not enough to go round. Mr. Beckett has hinted that he may send some of the applicants to Calgary and give the girls a chance.

Final arrangements have been made whereby the classes in physics and chemistry will be held as follows: Tuesday at 4:30 p.m., Thursday 10 a.m., Friday at 4:30 p.m. Teachers in the public schools have been notified of the arrangement.
 The first lesson of the series was given Thursday in the assembly hall of the Connaught school where the lessons will continue to be given and Cole Stewart Smith, the instructor, wishes all the teachers of the city to know that visitors are welcome.

A restaurant, run and equipped along similar lines to the famous Child's restaurants of New York, is to be opened in Calgary by E. W. Kolk, former Supt. of the C.P.R. dining car service on the Alberta division. Mr. Kolk has just returned from New York where he has been familiarizing himself with the methods of the Child's restaurants there and has secured a location in the Mc-Naughton block for his Calgary restaurant, which he expects to have open to the public in about five weeks.

Some very caustic remarks were made by "Cappy" Smart concerning ignorant foreigners, upon his arrival at box 13 from which a false alarm had been turned in. A native of Sunny Italy mistook the not being able to read a letter receptacle but not being able to find the customary aperture in which to slip his mislaid, he opened the alarm box door and laid the letter carefully inside. However he had some difficulty in making it stay there and in his efforts to accomplish this feat released the key which sends in the alarm.

At the meeting of the Forum at Unity Hall, Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock, the subject for discussion will be "The Use of Public Property for the Good of the Public." W. T. D. Lathwell,
 attention and hopes to start the movement in Hillhurst, where a social centre is being established, will give the opening address, to be followed by others who are interested in the subject. Reports of what has been done in other cities will be given and a general discussion will be participated in.

The case of Thomas vs. Ward occupied the morning session of the supreme court yesterday. The action is being brought by Tom. Thomas to recover the sum of $1,000 from Peter Ward. The plaintiff claims that on December 11, 1912, while driving into Prospect avenue, he was closely following his car which was damaged to the amount sued for was inflicted.
 In his honor, Justice Stuart, presiding at the trial, reserved judgment to allow himself time to inspect the scene of the accident.

The management of The Calgaria Cafeteria has appointed the well-known chef, Albert Houty, to the head of its culinary department. "Chief" Houty was recently connected with the Hotel Waldorf Astoria, New York, the Wellington, of Chicago, the New Oregon, Portland, and the Carlton, to be co-operating in securing the services of so eminent a chef.
 Houty is to be co-operating in securing as well as the best appointed Cafeteria in the city. 599-85

A New Firm of Accountants, Mr. W. S. Delaney, accountant for the Riverside Lumber Co. Ltd., since June, 1910, severs his connection with that firm and together with Mr. G. Fitzpatrick will on this date open an office at Room 214 Beveridge Block, 10 Ave. East. Calgary, as accountants and auditors, under the firm name of Delaney and Fitzpatrick.
