Who was Antonio Maceo?

Jose Antonio Maceo was a Cuban patriot. He was born in Santiago de Cuba in 1848. He joined the insurgent army as a private in 1868, and his natural ability and personal magnetism as a leader soon brought him to the front, making him second only to the great Gomez. Under his skillful leadership the Spanish were defeated at Demajagua and La Galleta; his campaign in Baracoa in 1878 showed masterly generalship, as did his utter rout of Santacles at San Uno. Maceo alone of all the Cuban Generals refused to sign the peace of Zanjón. His achievements in the campaign of 1895 in the Pinar del Rio Province, and his battles at Paraji and Jobita are among the most brilliant feats in the history of Cuba's struggle for independence. While crossing the trocha between Majana and Mariel, in December 1896, attended only by his staff, he was surrounded by a Spanish force and killed.

Did a Negro operator ever send out a Radio programme for a Negro club?

The first programme to be sent out by a Negro operator for a Negro Club that had complete charge of the affair went out from the WEAR station in Baltimore, under the auspices of the Bannekar Radio Club on June 29, 1923. Roland Carrington was the operator, and the artists were Lachner String Quartette; Morris L. Davidge, violin; Lillian Matthews, soprano; Llewellyn Wilson, pianist; Henry Pratt, violin; and Johnson Holsey, tenor.

Whose work is the oil painting, "The Birth of Christ" that hangs in the Union Station of Kansas City, Missouri?

In the Union Station of Kansas City, Missouri, hangs the oil painting "The Birth of Christ". Recently a group of noted art critics viewed this painting and several of them insisted that the canvas was "old Italian" or the work of an artist who had received his training from the old Latin Masters; but they were thoroughly astounded when Andrew Jackson, a Negro janitor, and former coal miner, was presented to them as the artist. The critics declared that the figures, depicting the Christ child lying in the manger watched over by the kneeling Virgin Mary, were perfect, as was the accuracy in shading and proportion of the foliage and the other background.

200,000 Colored Leave Georgia in Year
(By the Associated Negro Press)

Atlanta, Ga., Oct.—Georgia Colored people still are going to Northern States at the rate of 1,500 a week, with no indication of a decrease in migration, according to an announcement by the state department of commerce and labor.

During the period of July, 1922, to July, 1923, approximately 200,000 left the state, it was said. Agents of the department have been continuing their check of outgoing trains and it was stated that the estimate of 1,500 leaving a week was very conservative.

A BAD ACTOR

Cairo, Ill., Oct.—Edward Peeler, arrested when he asserted he had shot a colored man in Kosciusko, Mississippi, was taken to the state insane asylum at Anna, after he had obtained a riot gun and began shooting up the sheriff's office.

Peeler attempted to burn the county jail by setting fire to his bed; he tried to hang himself with an electric light cord; chewed up an electric light bulb; flooded part of the jail by tearing out some of the plumbing.
