Orphans' Home vs. J. Gould, Et Al.
NEW YORK, March 3.—An attachment was filed with the county clerk of Westchester county at White Plains yesterday, against the realty of the late Jay Gould, valued at $3,000,000, in suit of the Soldier Orphans' Home of St. Louis, which has a claim against J. Gould, Russell Sage and George J. Gould for $11,000,000.

The fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla, once fairly tried, became the favorite spring medicine, speaks volumes for its excellence and merit.

New York to Have a Popular Library of Over 450,000 Bound Volumes.

New York, March 3.—The final disposition of the Tilden trust fund has been decided upon, and an announcement of the plan which involves the creation of a great popular library was made yesterday. This plan provides for the consolidation of the Astor and Lenox libraries, the Tilden fund and the private library of the late Samuel J. Tilden into one great organization, comprising a collection of more than 450,000 bound volumes, an immense number of rare and valuable pamphlets, and including property and endowments amounting to more than $8,000,000.

The new library will be known as the "Public Library of the City of New York, Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations."

THE WHITE PLAGUE.

A Reap that Never Tires.

Consumption carries off one-fifth of the human race, hence called the White Plague. Certain individuals, families and races show a marked tendency to contract consumption when exposed to its exciting causes. This disease is no longer held to be hereditary, but liability thereto may be inherited. Consumption is eminently a contagious disease. The home of the consumptive—the railway car, the public hall, the church and the school, one and all, are often infested with the consumptive germ floating in the air. Consumption, like most other grave diseases, is often curable. Millions have recovered. The first stage is the decisive time. Suitable medicine is important. Good sanitary conditions, good digestion and abundant nourishment none the less so. In the way of medicine, Pine-Malt and Hypophosphites, the new lung remedy, cannot be excelled. It relieves the most urgent symptoms in all cases. Mrs. Gitty, of Enniskillen, Ont., writes her experience under date of December, 1894, as follows: "For a year or two I had been in failing health, but about a year ago I became seriously ill. I had fever, and was much troubled with a hacking cough. My voice gradually got weak, and after a time I could not speak except in a low whisper. The doctors said I had consumption of the windpipe and one lung. To my relatives they gave very little hope. I began to take Pine-Malt and Hypophosphites. I commenced to improve as soon as I started on this medicine. The breathing and the cough were helped at once almost, and my voice began to come back. In a few weeks I could talk and sing. Gradually the cough left altogether, and I felt that I was myself again. I took several bottles of the medicine, and now feel better than I have done for years."

Season Tickets for 25 Cents.
If one single dose of FOUR T'S, or Tar, Tamarac, Tulu and Treacle cures a cough, then a bottleful or 24 doses will last a whole family a whole season. It is an economical medicine, isn't it? Get a bottle today. Sold at Strong's Drug Store, McGregor & Merrill, manufacturers, Brantford.

Dr. V. H. Lyon's Tooth Paste or Powder is the best. Harmless yet thoroughly efficient. Sold by all druggists. Price, 25c.

London and Environs

Twinkle, twinkle little star, We never wonder what you are; Just one misstep on the ice, We see millions in a trice.

On his present trip through Ontario, Henry George lectures only at London, Toronto, Hamilton and Leamington.

Miss Nellie Macdonald, daughter of Dr. Macdonald, M. P. for East Huron, is visiting her aunt at 307 Dufferin avenue.

At the communion service Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. W. J. Clark presiding, 24 additions to the membership were made.

Mr. Thomas E. Mara, of the T. E. Mara Company (Limited), left on Saturday evening for a purchasing trip to New York and other eastern cities.

Mayor Little will return home tomorrow from Toronto where he was summoned owing to the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Robert Nicholson. Messrs. R. D. B. and William Nicholson, of this city, are sons of deceased.

Misses Jennie Manville and Kate Clement, the delegates from the Epworth League of London West Methodist Church to the late convention in Toronto, returned Saturday, and report having had a first-class time with the Dominion League at Toronto.

A few evenings ago a lamp exploded in the house of Mr. A. Callander, King street. There was no one in the house at the time, but passers-by noticed the blaze and extinguished it. Mr. Callander has now sworn off using coal oil, and is fitting his house with electric lights.

A petition has been circulated throughout the county praying that the Government take action in liberating young Henry Brown, who was recently sent to Kingston Penitentiary from the assizes in London to serve a term of five years for being caught in the house of a farmer named Mount, in McGillivray township.

The trustees of school section No. 8, Lobo, have given the following decision in the case of the boy Albert Sharpe, whose punishment has been so unjustly misrepresented through the columns of "The Star" course pursued by the teacher, Mr. G. P. Smith, was justifiable under the circumstances, and that the boy be allowed to return to school on making an apology.

The Chicago Herald has a page devoted to debating the success of Canadians who have made their mark in that city. Among others it mentions several Londoners—Messrs. Harry T. Strong, W. A. Johnston, W. J. Jefferson, and Dr. J. D. Henry. Of the last named, it says: "Dr. Henry S. Brown, of London, Ont., is another McGill man who has won both fame and fortune here. His palatial home on Drexel boulevard alone cost $100,000. Dr. Brown now spends much of his time in Europe, where his daughters are finishing their education."

Mr. Lely is an able entertainer, thoroughly conversant with Scottish history and familiar with the habits and musings of those stirring or pathetic lads who have done so much to keep alive the patriotism of Scotland's sons and daughters wherever found. Mrs. Lely accompanied her husband on the piano and played two pleasing selections, consisting of a medley of Scotch airs. Mr. Lely's songs took a wide range, embracing the pathetic, the patriotic and the humorous, in all of which he was most excellent, his versatility being one of the most noticeable features of his performance.—(Springfield (Mass.) Union. Mr. and Mrs. Lely will appear in the Opera House on Wednesday evening, under the auspices of St. Andrew's Society.

Got Good Pointers Here.
Last Tuesday the building committee of the P. S. B. went to London to visit the site there, in order to get pointers on building a new central school here. They express themselves as much pleased with their trip, and their views will be crystallized in a report to be presented to the school board next Wednesday.—(Petrolia Topic.

About 1,500 people witnessed a $200 fire about 4:30 on Saturday afternoon. The alarm was sent in from Mr. Luke Jeffries' grocery store on Richmond street north. Some unaccountable manner Mr. Jeffries' barn took fire, and although the brigade turned out quickly, the interior of the place was pretty well burned. A load of hay and a cutter and the usual stable fixings were destroyed. Mr. Jeffries also lost a valuable pointer bitch in the flames. The loss to the building, which was owned by Mr. T. McDonough, will be about $200; covered by insurance. Mr. Jeffries will lose about $100, and he also carries insurance.

Death of Mr. George B. Scott.

Many friends will regret to hear of the death at Windsor Saturday of Mr. Geo. B. Scott. Deceased, who was 78 years old, had been ill since 1874, was for some years manager of the Gore Bank in this city. He then went to St. Thomas and was in the treasurer's office of the Canada Southern Railway till the road was leased to the M. C. E. R., when he was removed to Detroit, where he continued in the employ of that company until three or four years ago. He resided in Windsor. Four

In Every House

In this city, there were distributed this week samples of Williams' Royal Crown Pills, and we would direct our readers' attention to the merits of these marvelous little pills, which have proved of so great value to so many sufferers from constipation, bilious or sick headache and liver complaint; in such cases two pills should be taken at night, and continue taking one or two pills each night until relieved and the bowels are regular in their operation. As a dinner pill, one Royal Crown Pill should be taken immediately after a hearty meal and it will be found an excellent means of assisting digestion and preventing dyspepsia. Purify the system by taking a treatment of Williams' Royal Crown Remedy, the best and most economical medicine manufactured to-day.

sons survive him: John, of the Postoffice Department, Ottawa; Harry I. and Bert, both of the Detroit News, and Charles, of the M. C. R. stores department, Jackson, Mich. The remains will be brought to London on Monday, the funeral taking place from the G. T. R. station at 1 o'clock p.m.

Snazelle's Reappearance.
A splendid audience greeted the famous entertainer, "Snazelle" at the Grand Opera House Saturday afternoon, the auditorium and balcony being filled, largely with ladies and children. The entertainment was described on Snazelle's former appearance here and gave the best satisfaction. He appears again Monday night in a new and choice programme, when Messrs. Carrol and Snazelle will sing the duet, "The Moon Hath Raised Her Lambs Above" with scenic effect.

The Late John Dearness.
The death of Mr. John Dearness, which we chronicled last week, removed an old resident of the northern portion of this county. Of all the farmers whose sturdy arms were widening the clearing along the "Jernyn Line" in Biddulph where he settled over 30 years ago only four survive him—Messrs. Wm. Grant, Albert Beaton, James Grant and Albert Leavitt. The subject of this notice was a native of the Orkneys, whence he emigrated to Canada in 1849 at the age of 25 and entered the employ of Messrs. MacQuisten & Co., in Hamilton. In 1856 the Crimean war boom tempted him to try farming; he located on a farm beautifully situated near where Fish Creek, then a considerable stream, entered the River Thames. In the financial crisis that followed the war he lost everything, and five years later removed to the Jernyn Line, near where the village of Granton was since established, and where he remained until his decease. He was a consistent Presbyterian, indeed he was one of the founders of the Fish Creek Church, in which while he lived there he served as elder, Sunday school superintendent and usually as precursor. He was twice married, and leaves to mourn his loss a widow, one son who bears his name and who is inspector of public schools in East Middlesex, and three daughters, Mrs. E. S. Holmes, of Cambridgeport, Pa., Mrs. W. Cunningham, of Bolton, Ont., and Mrs. R. Raycraft, of Granton.

Women in Council.

A special meeting of the local branch of the National Council of Women was held in the "X" rooms, Dundas street, on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of coming to a final decision regarding a recent resolution on the question of prayer. The most thorough discussion was given the subject, and the following resolution was passed: "That the local council of London memorialize the National Council to open its meetings with silent prayer, followed by an audible recital of the Lord's Prayer." The resolution was carried by a vote of 40 to 10. The question "How many shall constitute a quorum in the council meetings?" was also raised, and it was decided that one-third of the total membership could legally transact the business of the branch. Mrs. (Rev.) E. N. English was in the chair. Mrs. Macdonald was secretary, and the representatives present were: Mrs. E. H. Home, Mrs. Morphy, Mrs. T. R. Parker, Mrs. C. Hutchinson, Mrs. Connelley, Mrs. W. F. Bullen, Miss Hamilton, Mrs. W. J. Reid, Y. W. C. T. U., Miss Kirkpatrick and Miss Peel; Mothers' Union (Memorial Church), Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Thorpe; Kings' Daughters, Mrs. Heritage, Miss Stiles, Miss Beattie, Mrs. Tilley, Mrs. Harrison; Reading Club, Mrs. MacGill, Mrs. Madge, Mrs. Shanley, Mrs. Kibbie, Mrs. Zimmernan, Mrs. Niven; Music Club, Miss Carling, Miss Meredith, Mrs. Labatt; McAll Mission, Mrs. MacKenzie, Mrs. McMeachan, Mrs. Callard; Froebel Society, Miss Campbell, Miss MacKenzie, Miss Hicks; Teachers' Association, Mrs. Gahan, Miss Knott and Miss Gesson.

A Check-Raising Swindle.

DENVER, Col., March 4.—One of the most ingenious check-raising swindles ever successfully tried in America has just been unearthed in this city, the victims being the Union Pacific Railway Company, nearly every bank in Denver and several dry-goods and other stores. Early last month the Union Pacific pay car left Omaha on its regular monthly trip to Salt Lake City with wages for the company's employees. Closely following the car was a gang of check-raisers, and its members left the marks in their skill with acid ink and pen in nearly every town where Union Pacific employees reside. The check-raisers netted thousands of dollars by these swindles. It is supposed the gang worked west to Salt Lake and then escaped to the coast.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, caracches, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

REASONS FOR SUCCESS.

The success of Norway Pine Syrup as a cure for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles is due to the fact that it is the best and pleasantest remedy ever discovered, and because its action is prompt and certain. The spring and autumn maneuvers of European armies cost annually $10,000,000.

With Invalids.

Yes! with invalids the appetite is capricious and needs coaxing. That is just the reason they improve so rapidly under Scott's Emulsion, which is as palatable as cream.
