To the Editor of the Advincement.

How is it that the Board of Health in the face of a petition with 75 signature, including both rate-payers and sections of the immediate vicinity of the hide storage corner of York and Tabbot streets, will allow to remain in the heart of a residential part of the city, what was declared, by the health of the removed. Apparently the a mileance and which was ordered by the board to be removed. Apparently the residents of the meighbothood are not sufficient judges of what is or is not a missione. Are not the opinions of three medical men whose names are on the petition, and who through listing directly beside it know, together with inspection and decision of the health officer, that it is a missione. The stends during the frequent loading of the loaries, when the real tower door is bonessarily open for bours at a time, is unbearable always, and expectative so in the warm weather. the real lower about is necessarily open to bours at a time, is unbearable a laways, an especially so in the warm weather Nothing could decorrise it at mo-times. The hide inspector's office on the market has been deemed a musance and has been ordered by the city to be re-moved; then why should shey allow this

This Account.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

The Arabs claim that Eve's tomb is at Jicdah, the scaport of Meecs. The temple, with a pain tree growing out of a crace in the rock roof (which is of liself one of the rock roof (which is of itself one of the ders of the Orient), is supposed to be directly over the last resting-place of first woman. According to Arab diction Eve measured over 200 feet in ight, which, unlikely as it may seem.
