Many people trust to luck to pull them through, and are often disappointed. Do not dilly-dally in matters of health. With it you can accomplish miracles. Without it you are "no good."

Local Market.

London, Saturday, May 26. The markets during the week have been decidedly small, and in view of last Thursday being a holiday, it was expected that the market today would be a large one. This hope was borne out by the beautiful weather that pre-vailed; but notwithstanding it was not very largely attended. The offerings were mostly of small stuff, and in no line were they so large that prices were affected. To a considerable ex-tent, it was a flower and vegetable market. At least, these articles were mostly in evidence, and the attention of the purchasers was directed notice-ably to them. Supplies of other staples were not overly abundant. The meat stalls were filled by the usual frequenters, whose stocks were depleted early in the day. Dairy produce was offered freely at unchanged prices. There continues to be a keen demand for both butter and eggs.

Mother Accidentally Kills Her Son.

While Another Woman Loses Her Life in Trying to Save Her Little Daughter.

New Work, May 26 .- A tragedy, involving the death of Wm. A. R. Ma-hon, 17 years old, a son of former Revenue Collector William Mahon, of Hoboken, who was shot and instantly killed with a pistol in his mother's hand, and the precarious condition, through shock of Mrs. Mahon, became known last night. Every effort has been made to keep the matter secret. When Mr. Mahon entered his home shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, he found his son lying dead on the floor and Mrs. Mahon unconscious by his side. Medical assistance was summoned, and Mrs. Mahon was revived sufficiently to tell the story of the boy's death. She then relapsed into unconsciousness, and up to a late hour last night she could not be aroused from the stupor into which the tragedy had thrown her.

Mrs. Mahon said she was preparing to come to this city with her son, when he saw a cat on the fence. The family had been greatly troubled with cats, and he got a pistol to shoot it. Mrs. Mahon took the weapon from him for fear he would do himself harm, saying she would shoot the cat. As she stood holding the weapon, William said: "Mother, you haven't raised the hammer. This is the way to do it." Mrs. Mahon did not release her hold of the pistol as her son took hold of it. As he raised the hammer the weapon was discharged. The bullet entered his left breast, and he fell to the floor dying instantly. At the coroner's office it was said that all the facts showed that the shooting was accidental.

DIED FOR HER CHILD. Chicago, May 26.—Mrs. Emtl Joseph Pollock threw herself in front of the Northwestern train, running at a rate of 55 miles an hour, in West Maywood, in an effort to save the life of her 2-year-old daughter. She was killed instantly. The child was rescued by Frank Bellrose, the telegraph operator at the Maywood station, who leaped through the window of his office and risked his life to save the little one.

LABOR LEGISLATION

Recommendations of the U.S. Industrial Commission.

Washington, May 26.-The industrial commission, in its report to congress on labor legislation, recommends im-proved legislation to the state legislatures rather than to congress directly. "The subject of greatest public interest today," says the report, "is perhaps that of the regulation of the hours of labor permitted in industrial occupations and especially in factories.'

As congress has no power to legislate directly in this matter the committee recommends that a simple statute be enacted by all the states regulating the length of the working day for all persons between the ages of 14 and 21 years who work in factories. The length of the working day in all public employment should be fixed at eight hours. The same time should be fixed for men in underground mines, except in cases of emergency. Employment in mines of children less than 14 years of age and all women and girls should be forbidden. Congress might well enact that no person under 18 should be employed as a telegraph operator upon railroads, and that all engineers and switchmen should submit to an examination for color blindness; also that it be made a misdemeanor for an engineer or switchman to be intoxicated while on duty. A simple and liberal law regulating the payment of labor should be adopted by all the states, providing that all laborers should be paid in cash orders without discount, not in goods or due bills, and that no com--pulsion, direct or indirect, should be used to make them purchase goods at any particular store.

Commissioners E. A. Smyth and C. J. Harris unite in a minority report, in which they express the opinion that it would be both unjust and impracticable to attempt any uniform laws regulating labor in all the states, if labor and capital are to have their full development. They say the right of private contract should be allowed to both laborer and employer, and therefore the limitation of hours of labor would be fraught with danger.

STRIKE AVERTED. Philadelphia, May 26. — The ingrain corpet loom fixers and weavers' union has decided not to insist upon the demand recently made on teh manufacturers for an increase of 7 per cent in wages to go into effect June 1. By this decisio a strike of about 8,000 men is averted.

NOTES. About a hundred employes Lawrey & Son Company's pork factory, Hamilton, Ont., went on strike against the employment of non-union labor. The firm refused to discharge the non-union men at the request of the union, and the strike resulted.

This is the only drygoods store in London to close its doors early on Saturdays.

We believe all the business of the day should be done during the hours our store is open. It is to the interest of every citizen to encourage early closing, and we look to the purchasing public to shop before 7 p.m. on Saturdays, thus giving our busy salespeople an opportunity to enjoy a well-earned rest during the evening. INGRAM car men in St. Louis, Mo., were again the medium of a riotous demonstration Friday, and another man was added to the long list of wounded. A car was attacked by a crowd of men and boys near Sullivan street, and several shots were fired at the car. The policemen on board the car returned the fire, and in all about 100 shots were exchanged. Peter Wells, a patrolman who was riding on the front platform, was hit in the left side, the bullet producing an ugly wound. The difference existing between the management of the St. Louis and Sub-urban Railway Company and the union men in their employ were satisfactorily adjusted Friday afternoon, and all im-mediate danger of another strike has been averted.
