which is to appear in next Saturday's issue of this paper. It will show you what this school is doing in qualifying its pupils to fill choice positions, and assisting them to find these places when they are ready.

73 of our pupils secured good positions during July and August of this year. Saturday ad will contain half the list, showing where they are placed; the others will appear the following Saturday. Watch for it if you are interested.

230 of our pupils secured good positions in the ten months ending July 1, 1930. We can send you the list showing where they were placed.

While other business schools are claiming to be doing considerable in the way of assisting their pupils, yet we believe ours is the only business school that publishes a list of pupils placed, so that the public can be satisfied as to the truth of the claim.

PLEASANT RECEPTION.

Several hundred people attended the reception in the Talbot Street Baptist Church last night. The affair was an enjoyable one, but its pleasure was marred somewhat by the absence of the pastor, Dr. Sowerby, who was unable to be present, being confined to his home by illness; but Mrs. Sowerby, with the officials and ladies of the church, did everything within their power to make the several hundred callers feel at home. Refreshments were served in the basement by the ladies. The church was thrown open for inspection of the visitors, and Miss Maud Westervelt, organist, who had several selections. The reception committee comprised Dr. and Mrs. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt, Mr. and Mrs. Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Dalmar, Mr. and Mrs. Beardsall, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Tunc, Mr. and Mrs. Burrey, Mr. and Mrs. Sayer, Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Yodden, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Hennigan, Mr. and Mrs. Jepson, Miss Charlotte Jeffery, Mrs. Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Glen. Rev. F. H. Barron, an Old London Boy, Will Be Ordained as Pastor of Reid Memorial Church, Baltimore, On October 26.

The Baltimore Herald of Friday last, has the following interesting item concerning Rev. F. H. Barron, an old London boy, and brother of Principal Caven Barron, of the Conservatory of Music, city:

"An adjourned meeting of the Baltimore Presbytery was held at Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, the principal business being the examination of the new pastor of the church, Rev. F. H. Barron. Rev. Dr. J. Addison Smith was moderator and Rev. Dr. Henry Branch was the clerk.

"Mr. Barron's letter of dismission from the Toronto Presbytery was presented to the body by Dr. Branch and was accepted. Rev. Dr. Donald Guthrie, of First Church, moved that the examination be held with a view to ordination. Rev. J. S. Malone moved that the candidate's examination be of the Toronto Presbytery be accepted, but the motion was set aside after having been seconded. Mr. Barron's diploma and degrees were accepted, and he was ordained by the body by Dr. Guthrie, Dr. Campbell, Rev. Dr. H. H.

Robbins and other members of the Presbytery, Rev. R. Howard Taylor conducted the examination of the English Bible. He was also examined in the sacraments, and the committee that had previously examined him in the ancient languages reported favourably through Dr. Guthrie. All three present expressed themselves as highly pleased with the candidate, indeed, Mr. Barron's answers to the many questions showed his extended knowledge of all the requisite branches. He was accepted and his ordination as pastor of Reid Memorial Church will take place Oct. 26."

THE PEOPLE TO DECIDE

If the Hospital Trust Is To Continue.

The Board Not Criticised by the Aldermen.

Mayor Rumball thinks Present Action Unfair—Urged a Year's Trial—Resolution of Condolence—Other Business.

The expected has happened, and the people will decide if the hospital trustees are to remain in existence or not. So it was decided at last night's meeting of the council. A majority of the aldermen participated in the discussion that resulted from Ald. Brener's motion, and the trend of their opinion was that in allowing the matter to be settled by the people it was not with the thought of implied censure of the trust, but it was with the object of providing the public with an opportunity to express its opinion upon hospital affairs. The fair-minded among the speakers were inclined to think that the gentlemen who compose the trust had had responsibilities and expenses thrust upon them, and they were being judged unjustly and too quickly. In sending the matter to the people, it was with no desire to question their abilities as capable administrators. Several of the aldermen said that they should be given a fair trial at least a year, before they should be criticised. The council's action allows the possibility of the public also viewing the matter in this way.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The solicitors of the London Typographical Union requested the council to investigate an alleged violation by C. P. Heal & Co., of their contract for city printing, and to cancel the contract. Their clients had been informed that the firm mentioned were not paying union wages. No. 1.

No. 2 committee will consider W. H. Dewey's and others' petition against laying a cement walk on the south side of Horton street, between Clarence and Wellington streets; Pace & Fitzgerald's request for compensation for an injury to their horse; the Wray Corset Company's request to be allowed to connect their pipes to the main sewer; and a request for the use of the East End Hall for military purposes, made on behalf of B Squadron of Cavalry.

Angus McKeown's application for a position on the staff of firemen was referred to No. 3 committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cash's and John Smith's applications for admission to the Aged People's Home were referred to the relief inspector and the mayor.

On behalf of the 7th Regiment, Lieut.-Adj. McCann asked that electric lights be placed on the market square so that the fall driving might be conducted there. The communication was referred to No. 3 committee, whose chairman stated it had no funds.

The communication from the chairman of the government commission, appointed for the consideration of assessment matters, of which particulars have already been made public, was read. The mayor explained that a circular had been passed among the mayors of provincial cities, to be presented to the government asking that it pay the expenses of city solicitors who wait upon the commission. His explanation of his services had been taken. Expense might be saved if the Ontario Municipal Association sent its solicitor to represent the cities. In this connection Ald. Douglass said it would be desirable to send a capable delegation, and he asked that two members of the Real Estate Owners' Association be added to it. The majority of the council did not favor such action, and it was finally decided to leave the matter to a representative delegation to the mayor and chairman of No. 1 committee.

The use of the city hall on the evening of Nov. 30 was granted for a meeting of the medical practitioners of the city and county to consider the establishment of a sanitarium for consumptives as provided by the Stratton Bill.

COMMITTEES.

In No. 2 committee's report recommendations were made to construct tile sewers on Piccadilly street between Union and Wellington streets. The petitions for these works had apparently been considered by the committee before being referred to it by the council so that they were necessarily sent back.

Ald. Cooper spoke against the work being proceeded with this year so that the road will not be spoiled. For the same reason Ald. Dreaney objected to the construction of a tile sewer on Queen's avenue from Adelaide to English streets. Ald. Bartlett said that some of the residents wanted the sewer. The committee will reconsider the recommendation.

Harding & Leathorn were given the contract for the sewer on Dundas street east of Lytle for 150 feet, and on English street between Dundas street and Lorne avenue for $3,650, and side drains to cost 25 cents per foot.

The reports of Nos. 1 and 2 committees were adopted as read.

THE HOSPITAL TRUST.

Ald. Brener introduced his motion to abolish the hospital trust and have the council assume control. He quoted statistics to prove that the cost of maintenance had increased with unnecessary rapidity.

Mayor Rumball left his chair to express his views on this subject. He was entirely opposed to this matter going to the people. The hospital was not of their building, the council having thrust upon the trust a hospital double the size of the old one, and yet the members of the trust were blamed for the extra expenditure. He eulogized the men who now compose the trust men of excellent capabilities, whose work, whether in mercantile or professional life, had been highly successful. Without desiring to say anything against the aldermen, he would ask if it would be possible to pick from the board a body of more capable men than those on the trust. He did not think it fair to blame the trust, in urging that it would be well to leave the matter alone, and give the trust another year, the mayor said that the trust had first been made by the council, and if it were put in their hands again, would they not make another mistake? The city had as good a hospital as was to be found in excess of the needs, and the cost must be borne by the people.

Ald. Stevenson spoke at length in favor of allowing the people to decide upon the question of the trust's existence. The council, he said, should not assume the responsibility of deciding. He said that a petition had been signed by hundreds of people, asking that hospital affairs be investigated; but when it became known that the council was taking action it was not presented.

Ald. Winnett and Wray spoke at some length on the subject, both agreeing with the mayor in most of his remarks. The former said that he remembered when the hospital was controlled by the council it was managed perfectly; the people had risen in arms, had demanded a change, and its control had been placed with the trust. The fact that there was an overdraft this year should not be placed to the discredit of the trust. The council showed the excellent training to which they had been subjected by their leader, Mr. Charles E. Wheeler. The solo parts of the anthems were taken by Miss Hartson and Mrs. A. E. Brown. Mrs. Palmer possesses a sweet and sympathetic voice, which she uses effectively. Of her three numbers Pinelut's "Angel Land" was probably the most enjoyable. Mr. Carnahan, who is being recognized as one of Canada's finest baritone, has been heard in St. Andrew's before, and he was warmly greeted, his concluding solo, "Albion's patriotic hymn," "There's a Land, a Dear Land," being especially well received. Three organ numbers were rendered by Mr. Wheeler in his usual finished style, the "Scottish Melodies" being evidently the most popular to the audience. The male quartet was compelled to respond to an encore. The proceeds of the evening were over $30.

The programme was as follows: Anthem, "Thou Crowned with the Year" (C. Maker), choir; organ, Fantasia, A minor (Victor Hammer), Mr. C. E. Wheeler; solo, "Father Eternal" (H. Jones), Mr. Carnahan; solo, "There is a Land, a Dear Land" (Gounod), Mrs. Palmer; duet, "The Angel" (Rubenstein), Mrs. A. E. Brown and Miss Edith Hartson; solo, "The Brighter Day" (Mascheroni), Mr. J. M. McIntosh; organ, "A Vision of Heaven" (W. Spinnery), Mr. Wheeler; solo, "Nearer to Thee" (C. E. Wheeler), Mr. Carnahan; anthem, "Gloria in Excelsis" (Mass in F. Gounod), choir, solo by Mrs. Brown; male quartet, (a) "Remember Me, O Mighty One" (Kinkaid), (b) "Steal Away" (slave song), Messrs. Marriott, Wheeler, Tambling and Webster; solo, "Fear Not Ye, O Israel" (Dudley Buck), Mrs. Palmer; solo, "The Vision Holy" (Paul Rodney), Mr. Carnahan; organ, concert arrangement of Scottish melodies (J. L. Pense), Mr. Wheeler; anthem, "Tarry With Me" (Custance), the choir, solos by Miss Hartson and Mrs. Brown; solo, "Angel Land" (Pinelut), Mrs. Palmer; solo, "There's a Land, a Dear Land" (Francis Ailtsen), Mr. Carnahan.

INQUIRY.

In reply to Ald. Garratt's inquiry as to the use of limestone on the Queen's avenue tar macadam, instead of granite, Ald. Winnett said that when this was brought to his notice, an inspection had been placed there to see that the proper stone was used.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

It was moved by Ald. Garratt, seconded by Ald. Brener, that the council do and sympathy of the municipal council of the city of London be tendered to the widow and family of the late George D. Sutherland, and we desire in doing so to express our high appreciation of his work as a citizen, and likewise of his services to the city, which he served with distinguished ability as a member of this council for two years, 1876-77.

The motion was carried by a standing vote.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

Ald. Gerry gave notice that at the next meeting of this council he would move a resolution calling attention to the absence of watchmen at the G. T. R. crossings of Talbot and Ridout streets, from 5 p.m. Sunday to 5 a.m. Monday, and to the great danger thereby caused to the public, and requesting the G. T. R. to keep watchmen at such crossings continuously.

Ald. Stevenson gave notice of motion to have the engineer see that fire escapes are provided at the opera house.

Prizes Presented.

His Lordship Bishop McEvay visited the St. Peter's and Holy Angel's separate schools on Friday afternoon and presented prizes to successful pupils at the recent entrance examinations. His lordship was accompanied by the clergy of the palace, the members of the separate school board and Messrs. Thomas Coffey and T. J. Murphy. The prizes distributed at St. Peter's were as follows:

First prize, a gold medal, gift of Mr. T. J. Murphy, to the pupil of the separate school of the city who obtains the highest marks at the entrance examination, won by Master James Collins. Gold medal, gift of Rev. M. J. Tiernan, for good conduct, regular attendance and application to work, won by Lena Mahoney. Gold medal for writing and drawing, gift of J. M. Daly, won by James Kinsella. Gold medal for composition and spelling, gift of Mr. B. H. Dignan, won by Edna Walsh. Five-dollar gold piece, arithmetic and geography, gift of Mr. Wm. McPhillips, won by Louis Hanavan. A special prize, gift of Mr. Thomas Coffey, for Louis Hanavan, who succeeded in obtaining 100 per cent of the marks given at the examination in arithmetic.

His Lordship Bishop McEvay presented a prize to each of the other successful pupils at the examination, viz., Fred Dwan, Gerald Labelle, James McKeough, James Neville, James Gleason, Edward Reynolds, Maggie Boyle, Mamie Kelly, Parnell Parnell, Ezra Hurley.

In the junior fourth class the first prize, gold medal, presented by Mr. D. Regan, to the pupil who obtained the highest marks during the year in good conduct, regular attendance and application to work, was won by Josephine Loguidice.

The following donated prizes for good conduct and attendance at Sunday school during the year. Rev. J. T. Aylward, Mr. D. Regan, Mr. Thomas Coffey, Mr. Martin O'Sullivan and the school board. Names of pupils in order of merit: Louisa O'Rourke, Na Brannan, Josephine Loguidice, Mary O'Meara, Nellie Boyle, Edna Roddy, Joseph Dwyer, Sarah Paladino, Stella Morikin, Oswald Thessereault, John Frederick, Leo Costello, Francis White, Rose Peak, Louis Hanavan, Ezra Hurley, James Gleason, Edna Walsh, Lena Mahoney, James Collins, J. E. McKeough.

Service of Praise

The spacious auditorium of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was well filled for the service of praise given last night by the choir of the church, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Palmer, soprano soloist of the Central Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, Ontario, and Mr. W. J. Carnahan, leader of Elm Street Methodist Church choir, Toronto. The programme throughout was a most enjoyable one, and the renditions by the choir showed the excellent training to which they had been subjected by their leader, Mr. Charles E. Wheeler. The solo parts of the anthems were taken by Miss Hartson and Mrs. A. E. Brown. Mrs. Palmer possesses a sweet and sympathetic voice, which she uses effectively. Of her three numbers Pinelut's "Angel Land" was probably the most enjoyable.
