It keeps up the mother's strength and keeps up the supply of nourishment for the child if partaken of freely. I drank it between meals instead of water and found it most beneficial. "Our five-year-old boy has been very delicate since birth, and has developed slowly. He was white and bloodless. I began to give him Postum freely, and you would be surprised at the change. Whenever any person remarks about the great improvement, we never fail to tell them that we attribute his gain in strength and general health, to the free use of Postum Food Coffee, and this has led many friends to use it for themselves and children. "I have always cautioned friends to whom I have spoken about Postum, to fellow directions in making it, for unless it is boiled fifteen or twenty minutes it is quite tasteless. On the other hand, when properly made it is very delicious. I want to thank you for the benefits we have derived from the use of your Postum Coffee." Mrs. W. W. Earnest, 727 Ninth avenue, Regarding the Rev. D. S. Hamilton, who enters upon his pastorate in the First Congregational Church on Sunday, the Montreal Star has the following comment apropos of a farewell recently tendered him by the congregation of Point St. Charles Church, where for a number of years he was pastor: "Rev. D. S. Hamilton, pastor of the Point St. Charles Congregational Church, was last evening ten-dered a most cordial farewell social by the members of the congregation. During his stay in the district, as pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Hamilton has won the hearts of all his people by the earnest manner in which he always tried to assist them, and all were anxious by their presence to give evidence of their great regard, and wish him many years of continued success in his new parish at London, Ont. Representatives were present from all the Congregational Churches ago. in the city. Rev. Dr. Warriner, of the Mr. that duty called him, and duty, no sionary had gone forth from traveling bag by the members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society, and a neat drinking-cup and leather case by a friend not a member of the congregation. The secretary of the Point St. Charles W. C. T. U. wrote Mr. Hamilton, thanking him for the great interest he had always taken in their work, and expressing their sorrow at his departure. In leaving Point St. Charles Mr. Hamilton takes with him the good wishes of all who knew him.

Hicks' Forecast for October

A Mars period of disturbances central any time in October is sufficient for apprehending heavy, autumnal storms. Such a period is central on Oct. 2, extending beyond the middle of the month. Coincident with this center of the Mars period is a regular Vulcan storm period, extending from the 1st to the 6th. We will scarcely have recovered from heavy equinoctial storms late in September, when renewed storm conditions will begin to appear in the western parts of the country. Temperatures, barometers and winds will all give pre-monitions of coming change.

Between the 2nd and the 6th these conditions will grow into cloudiness, and rain and snow will touch many parts of the country in their transition from west to east about Wednesday the 2nd to Saturday the 5th. As change to warmer comes immediately in front of active storm areas, so change to colder may be counted on, even before the western edge of rain and snow have quite passed any locality. Keep this fact in mind, and also that the actual storms of most periods last only a few hours in any one locality. From the 8th to the 10th, anti-storm conditions will give place to return of falling barometer and other conditions leading to more storms of rain and snow. The 9th is the central day of this reactionary period. The moon the crowd adjourned to the church is on the celestial equator on that day, where a programme of music and ad-October rains and thunder southward, but turning to early snow squalls later in northern sides of the Look for change to rising barometer and colder after the storms central on the 9th. A very unusual combination of disturbing causes bears on the regular storm period which is central on the 25th, covering the 13th to the 18th. The conjectury of moon with the sun on the 12th will precipitate the change to warmer with falling barometer at the very outset of this regular Vulcan period, and returning storms of rain and snow will pass across the country about Monday the 14th to Thursday the 16th. The chances for heavy autumnal gales over the lakes and north Atlantic are many at this period. Snow and sleet are more than probable in northern sections, with high northwesterly high northwesterly gales and an October cold wave. There will most probably be good opportunity at this time for much hardship, "It is one of the finest things for exposure, wreckage, and probable loss of cargoes and lives to unsuspecting and venturesome navigators of the northern lakes and seas. Sunday School Grown From Class of Thirty.

Stirring Addresses Delivered to Pupils and Teachers by Veteran Workmen.

Despite the very inclement weather, "Rally Day" at the Dundas Center Methodist Sunday school passed off very pleasantly and successfully, and was a success in every sense of the word. Beside the school teachers and officers, many friends of the school were present, numbering in all about 750. Superintendent D. A. Mc Dermid was in charge of the service, and seated with him on the platform were Messrs. Isaac Webster, Rev. C. T. Scott, R. Hobbs, Wm. Bowman, C. J. Beal, A. Bradford, J. A. Nelles, James Wilkins, James Greenaway, James Fitzgerald, and Mesdames Noble, Hopkins and Williams. The music was of a special nature, many old-time hymns being sung. Mr. W. H. Hewlett was in charge of the singing, Miss Lettle Smith presided at the piano and Mr. Roselle Pococke direct-ed the orchestra. The opening prayer was offered by Mr. James Greenaway. The superintendent made a few time ly remarks, followed by responsive reading and familiar hymns.

Mr. Richard Hobbs, a pioneer Sunday school worker, spoke on "Some Sunday Schools of the Old Land." He said that in former days it was quite common to walk three miles to Sunday school, and that the teachers only taught alternate Sundays. Union anniversary services were held in the cities on Whit Sunday.

"Some Sunday Schools of Early Days in Canada" was the subject of an address by Mr. Isaac Webster. The speaker said that the first school he attended had one teacher and scholars, and today we were reaping the results of the labors of these pioneers, and the great oaklike Sunday school movement had grown from the acorn planted by the worker of long

The pastor, Rev. C. T. Scott, B.A., in his words of good cheer, said: "Aim high, have high ideals and remember that the least impression sometimes has the greatest influence.'

Superintendent McDermid then read greetings from the following absent friends and ex-teachers and scholars of the school: Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent of the Methodist Church, Toronto; Rev. A. C. Crews, general Canadian secretary of Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues, Toronto; W. H. Sallmon, Yale University; Marion Lawrence, Toledo, Ohio; Llewellyn A. Morrison, Blue Mountain, Corundum Mines; H. M. Hammill, Jacksonville, Ill.; Rev. E. B. Lanceley Port Hope; A. The closing hymn was written by Mr. Wm. Bowman for Nine Elms Sunday School, London, England, in 1851, and was as follows:

Now the Sabbath Day doth close, Let Thy mercy interpose; Keep us from all danger nigh, Stay our thoughts on things on high.

Let the lessons of Thy grace, Taught us in this happy place, Be our guide, and prove our stay, While we journey on our way.

Let the sacred songs of praise, Taught us in our youthful days, Be a source of comfort nigh, When the storms of life run high.

Let the seeds of sacred truth Bud and blossom in our youth; Let the fruit at last be found To Thy glory to abound. Now for Christ our Saviour's sake, Into Thy protection take; Bear us on Thy bosom, bear, Keep our feet from every snare.

It might be interesting to state that the combined ages of the three speakers at the service—Messrs. Bowman, Webster and Hobbs-was 245 years.
