

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills makes (1.38). They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Some

CARTER MEDICINE CO., Now York. Small Pill Small Dose. Small Price

CHAPTER XLVII. Ned was greatly distressed, for it was very hard, very sad, to see a proud, RAIN INTERFERES WITH strong man weep with such abandon-"I hope I have not said anything to wound you, sir," he exclaimed, appeal-

"No, no; but, my boy, you have con-quered my hard old heart at last," he tremulously returned. "I've known, from the first time I met you, that you were made of grander stuff than Heathertons ever possessed, for they have all been haughty and purseproud, unless it was my dear wife; I can say no more to show you how I honor you. As for Vera, I would like her to be surrounded by love and sympathy, and something tells me that she penter. Attendance, 2,538. would be happier with you and your thing to your judgment. I have explained to her that her name is Heath-plained to her that her name is Heath-erton and she imagines that her father Attendance, 3,500.

Batteries—Briggs and Kling; Kellum and Photo by Frank Cooper.

J. S. McDou erton and she imagines that dropped the latter part of it because of quarrel with me. Doubtless she will surmise that you are relatives, and you can tell her whatever you think best. And now," turning to Miriam with an appealing glance, "dare I ask you to pardon my past rudeness to you? I am appalled when I recall

"Pray do not make so much of it, Miriam interposed, with fast-dropping tears, for it was sad, indeed, to witness the proud man's deep humiliation, to realize how heart-broken he was over his only son's crimes, his grand-daughter's shame, and his own poverty; "and let me assure you," she added, "that both Ned and I will do all in our power to shield Miss Vera from sorrow or

He thanked her humbly, and then the physician coming in, they arose to go, for he seemed very weary, but they promised to come again the next day to confer further with him. Vera came to them in the parlor, just as they were going out, and thanked them for responding so promptly to the message which had been sent

Mrs. Heatherton's heart went imme diately out to the motherless and almost friendless girl, and she felt impelled to take her directly home, spite of the fact that she was the child wandered in his mind until nearly morning. Vera refused to leave him, and sat by his side for many long hours, while she learned from his rambling talk that there were dark secrets connected with her own and her father's lives of which she had never had a suspi-

"Don't tell Vera," was the burden of the old man's cry; "she must never know, for it would break her heart." 'Don't tell Vera what?" she questioned. feeling as if all her strength was leaving her, and she seemed suddenly congealed to ice as the reply came back in a cautious whisper:

"That she isn't really a Heatherton after all, and be sure that she never suspects the awful truth about Dick.' That was enough to tell her that there was some mystery about her birth and that something dreadful had happened to her father, and she knew that she could never rest until it was all explained to her He was a little better the next day, and continued to improve for a week; but his physician said that he would never be well again, and advised his TENNIS.

"What shall we do, mother?" asked, when he had told her what the doctor said. "Neither of them has any friends, and, I fear, but very little

"Whatever you think best, Ned. I do not feel right to be using Mr. Lawson's money for ourselves, when his sister's husband and grandchild are in Miriam gravely responded. "That is just my feeling," the noble fellow returned. "Shall we bring them home and care for then home" Would it be disagreeable to you to have Vera

"No; she is a sweet girl, Ned, and I think I could love her very dearly for his mother answered. He leaned forward and kissed her softly on the lips. "You blessed woman!" he fondly murmured, "I'm sure there will be crown of gold for you somewhere by

Vera went to Mount Vernon street to live, where the young girl devoted herself entirely to the feeble old man during the few remaining weeks of his

He did not suffer much pain, but he grew very helpless and childish, and Orfeo, 3 to 2; Kurtzman, 11 to 5; Apple, clung to Ned with the most touching 5 to 2; Major Mansir, 3 to 4; Ida Da-| vis. 8 to 1.

When at last he passed away both Ned and his mother felt very glad that they had done everything within their power to make him comfortable during those last days of his feebleness and ne-

After their return from New York, where they went to lay him beside his wife, Vera sought Ned with a very grave but determined face.

"Mr. Heatherton." she said, lifting her clear, searching eyes to his, "while granders was ill and wandering he he grandpa was ill and wandering he betrayed that there is some secret connected with my life and my father's absence. I did not like to trouble him when he was ill, so I have waited until now to ask what he meant, and-and olease, I want you to tell me all about

Ned was both astonished and dismayed, and tried his best to evade her But she was quietly firm and persistent.

"You cannot tell me that there is nothing that you are witholding from me, can you?" she asked.

Ned could not deny this, and finally confessed that Mr. Heatherton had confided a secret to him which he was unwilling she should know. "Then tell me," she commanded, authoritatively. "I will know." And he was forced to obey her, but revealed the truth regarding her birth so gently and tenderly, and making her realize how dear she was becoming to him as a sister that much of the stin gwas taken out of the bitter But a harder trial was in store for him, for when the matter was all explained she abruptly asked: "And now tell me where is my

"What did Mr. Heatherton tell you regarding him?" Ned inquired, to gain ney; is that the truth? If so, where, and why?" "Do not ask me; I cannot tell you." Ned said, firmly, but deceply troubled. "But I must know. I shall be unhappy all my life if I have to live in suspense," Vera cried, a sharp agony in her voice. "I know-I feel that there is something dreadful about it. It is very strange that papa should go away when we needed him so much, and you must tell me." Still Ned demurred; he could not bring himself to reveal that the man whom she so trusted and loved was occupying a felon's cell. [To be Continued.]

MANY BIG LEAGUE GAMES

IN THE NATIONAL. Batteries-Frazer and Roth; McNichols

and Moran. At Chicago-

At Pittsburg-Pittsburg-St, Louis game

At New York-New York-Brooklyn game postponed; rain. IN THE AMERICAN.

Batteries—Kitson and Drill; Henley and Powers, Umpires, O'Loughlin and King. Attendance, 3,099. At New York-New York-St. Louis game

IN THE EASTERN. At Montreal-Batteries—Terry and Gibson; Barnett and Vandergrift. Umpire, Haskell. At Rochester-Rochester-Newark game postponed; rain. At Toronto-Toronto-Providence game

postponed: rain. SHELBOURNE LOST. Mount Forest defeated Shelbourne yesterday by a score to 10 to 20.

Petrolea defeated Strathroy yesterday in a fast game, the scoring being ROCKETS FOR LANSING.

The Rockets will go to Lansing, of the man who had so wronged her. Mich., on Civic Holiday, which comes good. That night Mr. Heatherton experi- on Monday. They will play at the enced an unfavorable change, and he opening of a large park in that city. BOWLING.

NEW BOWLING CLUB. being adopted, and the following elect-

LORNES WERE DEFEATED. The Lornes, of this city, played in ing rink scored a point. Strathroy yesterday, and were defeat- fourteenth and fifteenth they secured ed by a score of 8 to 2. The game was eight points and two in the sevenan unusually clean one. The lineup teenth. This made them fourteen in Casselman, MacGregor, Craig, Lang, Wilson, Carruthers, Strathroy Richardson, Howson, Dean, Grundy. Dell, McLean, Jamieson, McKone, R. McCoy, Buttery. Referee, J. Grundy.

FOR TENNIS TROPHY. Word was received at a late hour this morning that the Berlin team will be in London tomorrow to play the first game for the Western Ontario tennis trophy, now held by London. The game will start at 2 p.m. on the Thistle Club grounds. Visitors will be specially welcome. The Berlin men will be Messrs. Sims, Gower, Erb, Bochmer

St. Valentine, 13 to 10; Major Daingerfield, 11 to 10; Belle Dixon, 2 to 1. At S. Louis-Oma J., 6 to 1; Whiskers, 4 to 1; Fruit, 4 to 1; Elie, 8 to 5; of the game will say.

My Eleanor, 3 to 1; The Bugaboo, 8

Premier Prize of Big Bowling Tourney Captured by McDougall's London Rink

Labatt Trophy Will Come to There are very few of the "quitting" variety among bowlers, and it is men like McDougall, Gosnell and Jackson the Forest City.

Gospell's Rink From Blenheim Figured in the Final Game.

Victory Was Apparently Easy One -Association Match Nearing Its Finish-Other Events.

Four,p" skipped by J. S. McDougall, pressing their thanks to some of the went victoriously through the semi-finals and finals yesterday, and the La-had. "We'll be back now the semi-finals and finals with the semi-finals with the semi-final with the semi-fina batt trophy, the pride of the W. O. B. generally the concluding remark. A, tournament will grace the shelves of the home club for a year at least. Six strong rinks are to play today The McDougall rink played seven in the association match, which may games, and won them all. From the be concluded tonight. Dr. Alexander. first they were looked upon as for- London Rowing Club, is the local remidable, and the victory was not a presentative, and there are three other great surprise—much as it was a pop-medical men in the fight. All of the ular one. The rink of R. L. Gosnell, of rinks have made reputations for them-Blenheim, were the runners-up. While selves at this tournament, and the best they did not do as well as might have rink is bound to win. certainly deserve credit for their many hard fights to reach the last round.

The semi-finals in the big match came off in the morning. They were between R. L. Gosnell, Blenheim, and sult was not in doubt at any period. could have been more thoughtful, The McDougall and Gosnell pulled ahead of their opponents from who was glad to contribute. the start and the majorities in both cases were long ones. The London Royal Canadian at Toronto." said Mr.

J. S. McDougall,

Skip of the London Rowing Club Rink upon charity. "Dick" Sparrowhawk, that won the Labatt trophy.

With the idea that better could be He has attended a good many tournadone after a good lunch, the rinks left ments here, but this is the king-pin. in the contest agreed to meet for the erally banked with people who were three hundred bowlers on a warm day. anxious to witness the match. The theory that bowling was not an in- Bowling, like baseball, has its southteresting game for the spectators seem- paws, and there are quite a number ed to be disproved. A large number of at the tournament this year. The mar ladies, and they applauded eagerly to be at a disadvantage, either. when good shots were made-and they

the first bowl was put. It seemed as vor to promote the idea of holding an if the music was asking who would international tourney in this city next be the "Big Chief," and Skip McDoug- year. President Jackson, like many oth-The Orangeville Lawn Bowling Club answer in the first three ends. Seven well take the first step, and he intends has been organized, the playing rules points were made, and playing like to push the matter. of the Ontario Bowling Association this is inclined to discourage the "down" men. By the fifth round the ed officers: Honorary president, Sheriff locals had gained three more, giving below: Bowles; president, Rev. L. G. A. Rix; them a clear lead of nine. Blenheim vice-president, Dr. T. H. Henry; secre- secured two in the fifth and sixth, and tary, A. D. McKiterick; treasurer, J. two more in the seventh, but McDougall landed a quartet of bowls nearest to the "kitty" in the eighth. This made fourteen points, and a lead of ten. On Galt each of the next four ends the visitwas as follows: London -Purdy. Benon, all. They could not have made up the Woollatt, lead of nine in the last end, and so Drinkwater, Cowan, Hefferman his men and the runners-up were - W. McCoy, Endacott, cheered, and both deserved, it fully.

the game was called. McDougall and The rinks and scores were as follows: Blenheim. London Rowing. John Stevenson, J. H. Ferguson, W. Lind. J. W. Shellington, J. S. McDougall, R. L. Gosnell (skip) 23. (skip) 14. Score by ends: ..3 2 2 0 3 0 0 4 0 0 0 0 1 0 3 5 0-23

Labatt trophy match will be heard of he got a half-nelson on the prize mug. who inspire them to stay with the matches were proceeded with. Even the doubles and singles are now going on nicely. The attendance of citizens at London Rowing, 14 to 9.

R. B. Heighway, London Asylum, beat J. E. McNee, London Thistles, 12 to 11.

E. W. Rae, Strathroy, beat R. Munro, London Rowing, 14 to 9. tournament began, and the greens DOUBLES CONTEST-PRELIMINARY. the greens was the largest since the To the London Rowing Club falls the honor of winning the premier event of the premier bowling tournament of the premier bowling tournament of the premier bowling tournament of the evening a number of the rinks left to 9.

Roberts and Thorburn beat Cox and Beltz, 17 to 12.

Gillies and McBride beat McCallum and the greens never presented as lively an appearance as they did yesterday. Towards the evening a number of the rinks left Hill, 17 to 9.

Nineteen rinks are in the novice match, and this event promises to be quite as interesting as some of the others. A rink losing here has no other match to look forward to match to look forward to.

have a long row to hoe. In the first Munroe and round there were 184 players, and the son. 10 to 9. winners will have to play a good number of games before they can claim the prize. The games are not long, however, and it is not likely that the this match will keep the tournament wait-

In all earnestness, the singles also started today. Nearly every player who is staving over is entered, and this match will likely not be concluded until late on Saturday.

To have bowled more years than any to play see- to other man in Canada, and to play second in a trophy-winning four, is the distinction Mr. William Lind possesses. He commenced bowling in Scotland. when he was 22, and at present he is 64 years of age. At this rate, Mr. Lind has bowled for 42 years, and he is good has bowled for 42 years, and he is good for a good many more matches yet although he says he now intends to re-Such good men as him should keep right with the game. It needs

President Jackson did a handsome little act yesterday afternoon. For some time he was noticed going around among the "white-wings," and the clink of coin was generally heard. It was rumored that the happy-looking director of the association's affairs had lost the caretaker, gave the lie to this story however. Mr. Jackson had been mak-Dr. Hunter, of Goderich, and J. Mc- ing up a nice little purse, and he hand-Dougall, of the London Rowing Club, ed it in a bunch to "Dick" as a recogand Fred Davis, of Goderich. The rerinks deserving, and there was no bowler but rink had an advantage of 13 points, while Gosnell, of Blenheim, stood 11 ahead of his opponents. The match was concluded shortly after 1 o'clock.

Royal Canadian at appoints, said the rink of the grand game, Mr. Willison behaved that number was not behaved that number when he well-known editor, which is excelled. the only respect in which it excelled.

battle of the tournament at 3 o'clock. None have worked harder than Mr. On No. 3 green in the upper series. Sam Loughrey, the hustling dispenser Word of this was passed around quick- of lemonade and orange phosphate, in ly and by the time the game was com- the cafe on the second floor. It takes menced, about 3:30, the green was lit- a lot of work to quench the thirsts of those who witnessed the struggle were who uses his left hand does not appear seemed to know when a shot was It is probable that before the tournament closes a committee will be appointed to negotiate with American To the strains of "Big Indian Chief," bowlers in the large cities, and endeaall started out to give a rather definite ers, thinks Western Ontario might as

The scores of yesterday are printed ASSOCIATION MATCH-FOURTH

W. T. Cluff, Strathroy, drew the bye. H. C. Schofield, Guelph, beat G. Beacom, Mount Forest, 19 to 15. ROUND. Dr. Burriett, Mitchell, beat R. Patrick, Galt, 21 to 8.
D. Holmes, Wingham, beat E. A. Dun Then in the bar, Mitchell, 13 to 12. they secured Dr. Wiley, Dresden, beat J. Duncan, London Rowing, 13 to 12.

FIFTH ROUND. Schofield, Guelph, beat W. T. trathroy, 23 to 12. Alexander, London Rowing, beat Waddell, London, 19 to 13. Dr. Alexander, Del Mar, Ridgetown, beat Dr. Bur-

CONSOLATION-THIRD ROUND. W. Harvie, Kincardine, beat N. K. Ornwali, Thamesville, 16 to 12. Dr. Smith, Ayimer, defaulted to W.

A. Horton, St. Thomas. with delight by the bowlers of London, the bye.

C. M. R. Graham, London Thistles, beat

C. M. R. Graham, London Thistles, beat Messrs. Sims. Gower, Erb. Bochmer and one other. The London team is composed of W. D. Love, H. G. Dann, C. M. R. Graham, London Rowing, beat H. Dondon Rowing, 13 to 9. ber of the McDougall rink has been John Weld, John Rowing, 13 to 9. connected with the Rowing Club for Finchamp, London Rowing, 13 to 9. H. N. Gillies, London Thistles, beat Col. Connected with the Rowing Club for Several years, and all have done their share of the work necessary to bring it to the prominent place it now occupies.

At Brighton Beach—Emergency, of the Lonsity of > FOURTH ROUND. of the game will say.

>
> In Ed Weld, William Lind and John Stevenson, Jim McDougall had a combination which it would be hard to beat, no matter where one went.
>
> Dick Gosnell, the Blenheim skip, who went down before the London four, is a past president of the W. O. B. A., and is one of the gamest skips that ever and of the gamest skips that ever loses are determined by the conducted a game. He never loses is possible to the multitude of eyes.
>
> FOURTH ROUND.
>
> H. N. Gillies, London Thistles, beat W. To Cox, London Rowing, 17 to 7.
>
> Dr. Ford, Aylmer, beat E. F. Seagram, Waterloo, 17 to 14.
>
> John Weld, London, Rowing, beat W. John Weld, London, Bowing, beat W. Harvie, Brussels, 14 to 10.
>
> W. Holmes, Wingham, beat W. Leeson, Berlin, 16 to 10.
>
> Berlin, 16 to 10.

NOVICE MATCH-PRELIMINARY. A. J. Richards, Berlin, beat W. C. White, Blenheim, 18 to 12.
W. H. Wright, Owen Sound, beat F. S. Jacobs, London, 13 to 6. FIRST ROUND.

Having dealt with the day's feature, it is not amiss to deal with the tournament generally. Save for a short time in the morning, when it rained, there was nothing to prevent steady playing all day. The sixth round in the association match was entered, and the finals will be reached and played by tonight. The consolation and novice matches were proceeded with. Even the doubles and singles are now going on Roberts and Thorburn beat Cox and Ball, 14 to 7.

O'Connell and Davis beat Horton and Geddes, 14 to 12.
Graham and Fulton beat Ross and Bishop, 10 to 6.
Worthington and Taylor won from McDougall and Weld by default.
Ross and James beat Dewan and Coles, 14 to 11. McTavish and Patton won from Ferou son and Gibb by default, Lind and Swift beat Bawden and Por Lind and Swift beat Bawden and Porterfield, 14 to 12.

Mitchell and Forsyth won from Seagram and Hogg by default.

Beacom and Theobald beat Tillmann and McNee, 18 to 5.

Ward and Angus beat Ledore and Kerr, 12 to 12. and Laird, 14 to 8.

Best and Bright beat Phelps and Hark-The team winning the doubles will ness, 12 to 8.

In the first Munroe and Bailey beat Euler and Lee-

N. A. McCallum won from J. McDougall by default.

F. Copus beat E. A. Horton, 13 to 11.

J. C. Telford beat Dr. Alexander, 13 F. H. Coles beat F. H. Davis, 13 to 12. J. Bell beat J. Norris, 13 to 6. Dr. Atkinson beat F. Marrow, 15 to 10. Col. Doherty beat T. Thorburn, 10 to 6. A. M. Crawford, beat T. Williamson, S. Willison beat J. S. Stewart. W. J. Snelgrove beat Dr. Holoway, 13

C. E. Dowding beat J. Dewan, 13 to 9. John Bawden beat R. Jarvis, 13 to 9. C. M. R. Graham beat E. J. Ladore

Were There Are a Fine Lot of Entries for the Canadian Henley.

Toronto, July 28.—Secretary Grant, of the C. A. O., states that there are a fine lot of entries for the Canadian Henley at St. Catherines a week from tomorrow and Saturday. T. P. Galt, of the Argonauts, will be umpire, and James Pearson, starter. The clubs, the Argonauts, Torontos and Dons, are well represented. Winnipeg has the largest outside entry. It is as follows: Senior four — E. W. Hamber, stroke; A. E. H. Kent, S. Henderson, C. S. Riley, bow. Senior eight-Hamber, Kent, Henderson, Riley, S. E. Richardson, Bob Muir, McDonald, Percy Brown, R.

Robinson, Dr. Motherstill, Geo. Stead, Senior pair-Hamber and Henderson lonald. Motherstill, bow. Aldos, Crawford, Richards. Junior singles-Crawford, Richards. year's junior champion, is in the inter- len is mum on the subject. fours, doubles and singles; Brockville in the doubles and singles; Ottawa in Brooklyn Club have made an the contestants. Lou Scholes and Frank like an extravagant expression, but

A SPENDID GAME

Thamesville, 14 to 10, beat T. S. Clark, Patsy Does Sensational Fielding and More Than His Share of Batting.

ten hits in the seven games. Donovan has a tough field to cover and no one acquainted with that foot has a tough field to cover and no one Holmes, Wingham.

W. B. Smith, Toronto Victorias, beat acquainted with that fact has anything Bob Hughes, b. h., by Ashland—W. B. Smith, Toronto Victorias, beat but kindly feelings for him if a fly Wilkes (Highnight) R. Mosey, Toronto Thistles, 18 to 15. but kindly feelings for him if a fly S. Black, Chatham, defaulted to E. ball gets away from him, for the sun Horron, St. Thomas. but kindly feelings for him if a fly Wilkes (Highnight) ball gets away from him, for the sun John Burns, gr. h. (Highnight) J. S. Black, Chatham, defaulted to E. A. Horton, St. Thomas.

J. S. Willison, Toronto Canadas, drew the bye.

C. M. R. Graham, London Thistles, beat E. Ball gets away from lim, for the fielder in the is blinding and stares the fielder in the face during the entire game. Donovan has made a happy family out of the last friction, and the least friction, B. C. Boss Brussels, 12 to 10. and that certainly counts for something. He does not censure a player

Time—2:10¼, 2:09¾, 2:10¾. thing. He does not censure a player for making a mechanical error, and if At Brighton Beach—Emergency, 13 to 10; Invader, 5 to 1; ber of years was secretary of the Lonst. Valentine, 13 to 10; Major Dainger-field, 11 to 10; Belle Dixon, 2 to 1.

At Fort Erie—Arahmay, 6 to 1; Ethel Davis, 6 to 1; Precious Band, 4 to 1; pices of the Western Ontario Lawn Davis, 6 to 1; Precious Band, 4 to 1; pices of the Western Ontario Lawn Davis, 6 to 10; Malakoff, 4 to 10; Malakof got up and patted Barry on the back and praised him for pulling off the clever play. Barry was pleased that he scored, but he felt even better when his manager was there to show his appreciation before the multitude of appreciation before the multitude of Mary Scott, ppreciation before the inutitude of Mary Scott, b. m. (Col. Time-2:13½, 2:13

"Manager Donovan is a terror at the 2:05 pace; purse $1,500: bat. Not that he is a hard hitter. Frank Yoakum, b. g., by Parker, Quite the contrary. As soon as he (Gosnell) Quite the contrary. As soon as he takes his place the fielders change their positions and never know where P. J. Little Squaw, br. m. (Ceiderburg)... is going to chop the ball. Sometimes Time—2:05½, 2:06¼. and is one of the gamest skips that ever loses courage, no matter how the score may stand, and puts up a vigorous fight to the last. He has been coming to the London tournaments for about nine years, but although always close to the winner he has never yet had the good fortune to land the trophy. This of all kinds. Lovel, 100 pages 10

HIGH-GRADE ENAMELEDWARE.

Now is a good time to buy your Graniteware. We have on sale the very finest quality. Special prices in all sizes Preserving Kettles, Saucepans, Tea and Coffee Pots, Dishpans, Rice Boilers. Pie Plates and Jelly Cake Plates. All new goods. Handsome new patterns.

ON SALE IN THE BASEMENT.

Special values in Glassware this week. Water Jugs, fancy patterns, regular 50c, for 25c Fruit Sets, 7 pieces, only, set DINNER SETS.

A very large assortment of hand some patterns, all complete, up from $6 00

VISIT OUR ART ROOM.

Batters With a Total of 183 Bases.

Napoleon Lajoie, captain of the Cleveland Blues, not only leads the American League in batting and number of hits, but also in total bases secured on hits. Larry's record is 86 singles, 29 doubles, 9 triples and 3 home runs, his total of bases being 183. ball over the fence eight times. ond sacrifice hitter. Chicago leads with Cleveland second. The four western teams lead in sac-of the game. The Clevelanders, Flick and Bay, Rosignol, ch. m., 5, by Imp. Green, of Chicago, and Heidrick, of St. Palace, D. T. Pulsifer, $1,700. Louis, are tied for third place, Hemphill and Lajoie following in order. In team work in stealing bases, the west thirteen bases having been stolen on ron, Sagwa and Brown Sam also start him in 24 games. Kleinow, of New ed. Best time, 2:08%. York, the backstop that Griffith se- 2:26 trot, purse $500 respect, with Powers, Sullivan, Criger, Second; Daniel, third. S. H. Strong Farrell, Bemis and Kahoe also show-In the individual stolen base and sacrigiven. In the team record, the tie also started. Best time, 2:111/4. a team's percentage, are included. SOUNDS LIKE A JOKE.

New York, July 28.-A story is cur-third. Wm. P., Brown Bradden and Harent that "Bad Bill" Dahlen, of the lanos also started. Best time, 2:131/4. New York National League, and one Junior four-Brown, stroke; Mac- of the best infielders on the diamond won in straight heats: Lady K, second, today, has decided to quit baseball, Junior and intermediate doubles-G. and, following "Bill" Sunday's example, YACHTING. become an exangelist. There is a question whether the story is told seriously Jack Coltson, of Hamilton, last or is in the nature of a joke, and Dahmediate singles, Rat Portage is in the WOULDN'T PART WITH HANS.

Pittsburg July 28.—The owners of the the fours, doubles and singles. Buffalo the Pittsburg Club for Hans Wagner, has forwarded entries for the fours, the famous shortstop of the thrice doubles and singles; Philadelphia the champions. They have offered Babb, Queen's City Yacht Club. same, and New York doubles and Virgil Garvin and $2,500 in cash for singles, has seven entries and should the big fellow, and failing on the first as Greer, of Boston; Smith, of Toron- Regarding the case Mr. Dreyfuss says: to; Juvenal, of Philadelphia, and Vas- "I would not give Wagner for the en- and get a bottle at once, sely and Fuessel, of New York, among tire Brooklyn team. This may seen

WON CONSOLATION

Thousand Dollar Event at Detroit Went to Horse That Raced at London Meet.

The Washington Star speaks thus of | The Grosse Point track was in splen Dr. Wiley, Dresden, beat D. Holmes, "Patsy" Donovan, of the Senators, did shape yesterday and fine racing Dr. Hunter, Goderich, beat J. Hoover, formerly of the London International was witnessed. Angus Pointer, a horse nine: "Manager Donovan has been that raced at the local meet here, wor the Chamber of Commerce consola-His sensational fielding the past week tion, valued at $1,000. All of the race was one of the features, and he made were won in straight heats, and no re-

2:24 pace, Chamber of Commerce C

Time-2:081/2, 2:083/4 2:25 trot; purse $1,500:

er. The condition of the track, which was muddy, would not be taken by the public as a good excuse for the backwardness of the Daly horses. As recently as July 7, over a heavy track, Himself ran a good second to Hurst Park in a handicap at nine furlongs. Again, on July 11, Himself made near-Heads the American League ly all the running at a fast pace in a race won by Hurst Park. On a soft track, Himself is, or was, better than on a hard track. Yet in the so-called race this week neither of Daly's horses ran anywhere near the trio out in front—and eventually they finished many lengths behind. The betting was suspicious. FOR THE SUM OF $15,000

The entire racing stable, including 'Buck" Freeman is second with 152, horses, blankets and saddles, the prop-'Buck" leading the league in triples, erty of J. J. Ryan, were sold in the Next to Freeman come Bradley and paddock before the races at Brighton Hickman, of the Blues, with 143 and Beach yesterday. Horses from other 134 bases. Parent and Harry Davis are tied for fifth honors, Davis leading the were realized. The star of the sale league in home runs, having knocked was Reliable, the recognized champion sprinter and weight carrier, A. Shields the ball over the fence eight times.

Manager Fielder Jones, of Chicago, leads the league in sacrifice hits, having made a martyr of himself twenty-five times. Billy Lush, of Cleveland, is second, and then come Former Manager Callahan, of the White Sox, Carrand Isbell. Bradley is Cleveland's second sacrifice hitter.

sprinter and weight carrier, A. Shields, after some spirited bidding, secured the 4-year-old for $15,000; he is a b. c., 4, by Imp. Watercress-Arnette. Eleven horses from Ryan's stable sold for a total of $26,725. J. J. Ryan was present at the sale. The other sales of $1,000 or more were: Paul Clifford, blk. h., by Lissak-Trouseau III., C. T. Nolan, $1,650. Melrose b. c., 2 by The Pepper-$1,650; Melrose, b. c., 2, by The Pepper-In the team record of sacrifice hits, Kate Bramble, C. T. Nolan, $1,750; Monster, blk., g., 3, by Plaudit B. and Sue Dearman, $3,000; Jack Ratlin, b. rifices, the eastern second, not paying so much attention to this department Schuat, $3,000; Jack Ratin, b. h., 5, by Spendthrift-Intacta, W. H. Schuat, $3,000; Hyland, b. c., 4, by Imp. Mirthful-Koumiss, W. Midgley, $1,000; lead the league in stolen bases, Flick ton-Valuable, D. Pulsifer, $1,100; Cothaving a lead of one over the "Silver." tage Maid ch 4 by Halma Imp tage Maid, ch. 4, by Halma-Imp.

RACES AT OLD SAUGUS. again leads, Chicago having the best In all the regular classes at Old Saurecord and Cleveland second. Boston is gus yesterday favorites won: Summar-2:09 pace purse $500 (unfinished Wed base-runners from purloining nesday)-Terrill S, won first, fifth and bases, Eddie McFarland, the Cleveland seventh heats and race; Effie Powers boy with Chicago, is the premier, only second; Phoebon W., third, Peter Patcured from Toledo, is next best in this won in straight heats; Kitty Giltner, rarrell, Bemis and Kanoe also snow-ing up well. Drill of the Senators has been the easiest proposition to steal an Lucky Jim, Princess Tesa, Listen and been the easiest proposition to steal on. Belle C. also started. Best time, 2:074 2:14 pace, purse $500—Ohio M. won in fice record only those who have made straight heats; Stephen P. second, five sacrifices or have stolen base are P. H. Flynn third. Henry N. and Ziba games which do not appear in figuring 2:19 pace, purse $500-Lady Laurin won fourth, fifth and sixth heats and race; Antidee second.

Sonata third. Best time, 2:151/4.

THE QUEEN CITY MAY CHAL-Toronto, July 28.-Unless the Royal Canadian Yacht Club does so, the Queen's City Yacht Club will in all probability challenge for the cup races next year. Such was the interesting announcement made today by Commodore T. A. E. World, of the

THERE ARE A NUMBER of varieties furnish a grand contest with such men try have made offers of a third player. of corns. Holloway's Corn Cure will re move any of them. Call on your druggist

> "Maple Leaf" The Best CANNED SALMON Packed

PURE FOOD INSURES GOOD HEALTH E.W. GILLETT COMPANY

Your Doctor Ever faithful? Saved your life? Then hold fast to him. We believe in doctors. Ask yours about Ayer's herry Pectoral for hard colds, coughs of all kinds. J. C. Ayerco.,