LOCAL MARKET. London, Thursday, May 18. rain this morning no doubt kept many of the farmers from attending the market, which was far below the aver-age for this day of the week. There was a good demand for what little stuff was marketed. Prices as a rule were firm. Grain—A couple of loads of oats sold at $1 25 per cwt. No hay or straw was offered up to 11

No hay of Felock.

Butter and Eggs—There was not much of a demand for the small quantity of butter that was offered; prices ruled at 16c to 18c for crocks, and 17c to 19c for pound rolls. Eggs sold well at 13c and 13½c per dozen, mostly at the latter fighter the eastern markets report a scarbane eastern eastern markets report a scarbane eastern e

Poultry—A few pairs of old fowl sold of 90c per pair alive; a small lot of dressed turkeys sold at 15c per lb; the supply was small.

Dressed Hogs—There were only about a dozen offered, and consequently there was a good demand; the retail butchers, who purchased the majority of the offerings, were compelled to pay the highest price so far this year; sales were made at $9 and $9 25 per cwt; nearly all sold at the higher figure.

Hyde Park, May 17.—On Arbor Day (May 6), in school section No. 17, the principal and assistant made good use of the time in trying to beautify the school house and grounds, being ably assisted by the pupils. The improvements are quite noticeable to the many passersby. In the absence of Rev. Mr. Tancock, rector of the Church of Hosannas, the pulpit was occupied on Sunday by a student from Huron College. His subject was, "Daniel's Faith."

The Presbyterian choir of this place drove to Komoka on Wednesday evening of last week, and entertained a very well-filled church by giving that beautiful cantata, "Zion." After the programme was concluded, the ladies of the congregation served the choir with a dainty luncheon, which they heartily enjoyed after their long drive.

London, May 18.-Sir Gilbert Parker. who claims to have seen the astral body girl lied from the beginning to the end of Sir Carne Rasch in the House of Comof her testimony, and, moreover, testi- mens while the latter was ill at his heme, fied his belief that she did shoot Cae- is receiving corroboration of his extra I not only saw Sir Carne Rasch myself sitting below the gangway, but I called him to the attention of Sir Henry Campder. The fact transpired that detect- bell-Bannerman, with whom I was talkhome in Washington, made the following statement:

"Justice Davis' remarks were ungenerous and as ungentlemanly as un-"Justice Davis' remarks were ungenerous and as ungentlemanly as uncalled for. There was a marked lack of dignity in the spectacle of a judge descending to the effort of trying to open a closed book for the edification of friends who perhaps did not want to in his usual seat on the third Opposition bench. It was also seen from the press gallery. Thirty years ago a member who was abroad suffering from an acute ma "I am not wholly free yet. I can be tried again. Does not Justice Davis know that what he has said might cost me my life?
